HEAD COACH & SPORTING DIRECTOR GREG VANNEY

The LA Galaxy announced in January 2021 that the club named Greg Vanney Head Coach. Vanney, 46, began his professional career as a player with the LA Galaxy and returns as Head Coach after a six-year stint as Toronto FC's Manager in which he became the only coach to capture an MLS Treble by winning MLS Cup, the MLS Supporters' Shield and the Canadian Championship during the 2017 season.

Vanney stepped down as Toronto FC manager following the 2020 MLS Season as both the most successful and longest-tenured coach in Toronto FC's history with every major club record, including total wins (112) and games coached (250). In all, Vanney recorded an 87-68-48 MLS Regular Season record and a 10-5-2 MLS postseason record while being named MLS Coach of the Year and Concacaf Coach of the Year in 2017. As Toronto FC's coach, the former Galaxy defender helped lead his side to the MLS Cup Playoffs in five of the previous six seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020), while making appearances in three MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017, 2019) and the Concacaf Champions League Final (2018). He also helped his side capture three-straight Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

As a player, Vanney made 270 total MLS Regular Season appearances, including 193 as a member of the LA Galaxy, tied with Todd Dunivant for the sixth-most appearances of any player in LA Galaxy history and trailing only Cobi Jones (306), Landon Donovan (253), Kevin Hartman (243), Mauricio Cienfuegos (206) and A.J. De-LaGarza (204). With LA, Vanney helped lead the club to a Supporters' Shield (1998), CONCACAF Champions' Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2001) while being named to the MLS Best XI twice (2000, 2001) and earning honors as LA Galaxy Defender of the Year (2001). He also made an additional 32 MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including 26 postseason appearances with the Galaxy.

Vanney began his professional playing career after being drafted by the Galaxy from UCLA with the 17th overall selection in the 1996 MLS College Draft. During his time as a professional, Vanney represented the Galaxy, FC Dallas, Colorado Rapids and D.C. United in Major League Soccer while also playing a stint for Bastia in France. He also earned 11 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, making his debut in 1996 before later featuring in the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup Championship and 2006 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Following his retirement after the 2008 MLS season, Vanney served as the Real Salt Lake Youth Academy Director from 2008-2011 before joining Chivas USA as an assistant coach from 2011-2012. Vanney originally joined Toronto FC as the club's assistant general manager and academy director in 2013 before being named head coach and technical director on August 31, 2014.

NOTABLE QUOTES

LA GALAXY HEAD COACH GREG VANNEY

On the first 20 minutes of the match:

"We didn't show up for the first 20 minutes. I mean, it was as simple as that. We weren't competitively there, whether it was defending, doing the work, getting close to guys. We just weren't to the speed that we needed to be at, and the game tilted on us really fast. So for me, just an unacceptable start. We talked about these early games, it was imperative to get off to a good start because the difference can be in the first 15 minutes. And we came out and laid an egg for the first 15 minutes, 20 minutes, and we found ourselves chasing an uphill battle for the rest of the game. You know, even at times through the game, even though we had our moments and stretches of controlling things, still, just things were a little bit too slow and a little bit too passive. We conceded ground on the defensive side a lot. We ended up putting in a lot of work but a lot of work that didn't come to much in terms of fruits for the labor. And makes for a frustrating day. Again, as I said to the guys, having momentum in this league is ever so precious, and you want to make sure that you don't do anything to spoil that momentum, and come out and lay it all out on the line and really compete from the opening whistle and if a team beats us, they beat us. But we just can't even arrive in the first 20-plus minutes. And then we tried to push for it thereafter, and we just couldn't get the final actions. They had a lot of numbers in front of the goal. We obviously shifted Miguel out and tried to slide Joe in and bring Diego on and see if we could just speed up some things, and there just wasn't a ton of space. And we weren't really moving it fast enough to create anything meaningful there even in the second half, even though there were a couple moments that looked like they could build and a couple moments that – I didn't see anything with the handball shouts or anything. So I just don't know what any of that was. So, anyways, that was a long-winded answer to your first 20 minutes.

On defender Jalen Neal's return:

"It was great to get Jalen going. Martin is managing an issue himself, and I felt like in the first half, he'll be the first one to tell you that he just didn't feel like could he step tight to people and get close. So he was dropping and trying to control the depth and the space. When we do that, we concede a lot of territory from us. It became difficult for us to sustain attacks. And then we're playing a long field, and I think a lot of that is just he's trying to manage, it's more of a neuro injury that he's having, some pain, but it just was limiting him, which means that when we saw that going on, we wanted to get Jalen, it was a good opportunity. Jalen has got enough in his tank from his return to play and having a couple games with the second team that he was ready to get in this game. And so it gave us an opportunity to start to get him going. It was good to see him out there. He's going to still continue to have to work towards getting his rhythm and getting a lot of his decisions and things like that, timing, stuff like that worked out just because he has not played in a while but I thought this was a good game because we had a lot of the ball in the second half and he was able to do a lot more just counter-pressing and finding passes and things like that. He didn't have to do a ton of defensive work which maybe is a good way to get yourself back and going after a long stint away."
