This season, Roman Bürki is tied for fourth in clean sheets (4), with three of his clean sheets coming at home. Bürki has made a total of 34 saves this season.

FIRST GOAL A MUST

- ▷ The high-pressing system has shown to be dangerous when tallying the first goal.
- ▷ CITY SC scored the first goal against New York City FC in the 35th minute to get a 1-0 lead which eventually led to 2-0 in the club's first victory of the 2024 MLS season.
- ▷ St. Louis owns a 17-2-4 record when scoring first in MLS.
- ▷ Since the inaugural season, St. Louis CITY SC owns a 14-5-5 record all-time at CITYPARK in MLS play.
- ▷ Head Coach Bradley Carnell is 22-3-5 all-time, both as an interim and full-time manager, when his team scores first.

POMPEU'S PATHWAY

- ▷ Célio Pompeu came to the U.S. in 2016 and moved to Newark, N.J. where he began playing soccer at St. Benedict's Preparatory School and Cedar Stars Academy.
- ▷ Pompeu played for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) at the collegiate level and made a big impact as he was selected to participate in the 2021 adidas Major League Soccer (MLS) College Showcase.
- ▷ Following his college career, Pompeu joined CITY2 at the MLS NEXT Pro level and has since risen through the St. Louis organization.
- ▷ In the inaugural MLS NEXT Pro season in 2022, Pompeu helped CITY2 to a Western Conference regular-season title with 10 goal contributions, five goals and five assists.
- ▷ The Brazilian midfielder then recorded two goals and an assist in the MLSNP playoffs as CITY2 finished up as the league's runner-up.
- ▷ Pompeu finished the 2022 campaign with seven goals and seven assists across all competitions.
- ▷ The club recently signed the Brazilian to a new MLS contract keeping him in St. Louis through 2026 with a team option for 2027.
- ▷ Pompeu is having a strong second season in MLS through 13 matches in 2024, tallying three goals and two assists.
- ▷ The Brazilian began his MLS career in 2023 and strung together two goals and three assists in all competitions, one goal in league play, one goal in playoffs, and three assists in the Open Cup.

CITYPARK: GATEWAY TO HELL

- ▷ CITYPARK was a tough place for away teams to play at in St. Louis' inaugural season. Last season, St. Louis CITY SC's played in front of a sellout crowd in all their 17 MLS regular-season home games. So far this season, CITY SC have seen a sellout crowd in their four MLS home matches.
- ▷ CITY SC earned 35 points in home matches which was good for the second most home points by an expansion team in their inaugural season in MLS history (excluding the shootout era).
- ▷ Offensively, St. Louis scored 41 goals at home in MLS, which was tied for second in the league. On the defensive end, CITY SC trailed just 167 of 1530 minutes and posted an 11-4-2 record.
- ▷ CITY SC's 11 home wins last season tied Atlanta United for the most by an expansion team in their inaugural season.
- ▷ St. Louis kicked off their 2024 season with a 2-1 win at home in the CONCACAF Champions Cup against Houston Dynamo.
- ▷ In league play this season, CITY SC has a 3-1-3 record at home so far, scoring nine goals and recording three clean sheets.
- ▷ St. Louis has a 14-5-5 record all-time record at CITYPARK in MLS play.

TOTLAND TAKEOVER

- ▷ Tomas Totland was signed in the off season to bolster CITY SC's right back department.
- ▷ Totland, a dual national of both Norway and the U.S. played in both Europa League, Europa League qualifiers and Champions League qualifiers before joining the MLS.
- ▷ The right back notched his first goal for CITY SC in a 3-3 match against Sporting KC on April 20. The Norwegian has also recorded two assists for CITY SC.
- ▷ The defender has played the most minutes as an outfield player on the team and is second in distance covered. Totland is tied for sixth in the league for interceptions with 22.

BÜRKI: THE SWISS WALL

- ▷ Last season, Roman Bürki was announced as the winner of Allstate MLS Goalkeeper of the Year topping FC Cincinnati's Roman Celentano and Orlando City's Pedro Gallese. The Swiss goalie owned the league's top mark with plus-9.1 Post-Shot Expected Goals minus Goals Allowed and finished second in MLS in saves with 123.
- ▷ CITY SC's captain made 36 appearances, recorded eight (8) clean sheets and made 134 total saves across all competitions.
- ▷ His 17 wins were the most by any goalkeeper during their first MLS season (post-shootout era) and the 42 goals he conceded in MLS play are the fewest of any goalkeeper to play at least 30 games for an expansion club in a 34-game season.
- ▷ His 123 saves in MLS play were the second-most among all goalkeepers in MLS and his save percentage (74.55%) in MLS play was the fourth highest among active MLS goalkeepers to play in at least 20 games.
- ▷ Per OPTA, Bürki led MLS in goals prevented (11.9), which is the difference between the number of expected goals conceded (based on the quality of shots faced) and actual goals conceded.
- ▷ Bürki recorded his 150th career clean sheet in a 1-0 win against Toronto FC on July 8, 2023 and made a career-high 12 saves in a 1-1 draw against Colorado Rapids on April 22
- ▷ Bürki was selected as an All-Star and eventually selected into the 2023 MLS Best XI.
- ▷ So far this season Bürki has recorded four clean sheets and made 34 saves.

CENTER BACKS SHOWING STRENGTH & RESILIENCY

- ▷ St. Louis CITY SC has built a strong spine within its team, starting from the back with captain Roman Bürki in goal and continuing with the first line in front of him, the center backs.
- ▷ CITY SC's core of Joakim Nilsson, Tim Parker, Josh Yaro and Kyle Hiebert have been a key part to St. Louis's success. The most experienced pairing of Nilsson and Parker hasn't fully developed due to injuries, which has given many opportunities to journeyman Josh Yaro, third-year pro Kyle Hiebert and current CITY2 captain Michael Wentzel.
- ▷ This group has shown its ability to contribute on the offensive end early in 2024, tallying three of the team's 17 goals across all competitions, two of which came in the first five league matches (Joakim Nilsson against LA Galaxy and Josh Yaro against D.C. United).
- ▷ Both Yaro and Nilsson scored the first MLS goals of their careers, with Yaro doing so after making his debut with Philadelphia Union in 2016.
- ▷ In 2023, the group recorded six of the team's 69 goals across all competitions, four of which came from Tim Parker.
- ▷ This season, Parker scored the team's first goal of the year in their Concacaf Champions Cup matchup against Houston Dynamo FC. Parker is responsible for the first goals in MLS, MLS Cup Playoffs and Concacaf Champions Cup in CITY SC history.

FIGHTING SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS

- ▷ Last season, St. Louis finished with a 0-4-1 record when trailing at halftime and a 1-11-1 record when trailing after the 75th minute in the regular season.
- ▷ CITY SC came back from a losing position to earn at least a point in five matches last season – Austin FC (3-2 W), Charlotte FC (3-1 W), Portland Timbers (2-1 W), Houston (1-1 T) and Minnesota (2-1 W). The first three wins happened in their first ever three MLS matches in club history.
- ▷ St. Louis has already come from behind four times this season to earn a point in MLS play.
- ▷ The first was against Real Salt Lake in their MLS opener where Sam Adeniran scored the equalizer in the 79th minute.
- ▷ In their first away regular season match against Austin FC Célio Pompeu scored the leveler in the 90'+3 minute to secure a point on the road.
- ▷ Against LA Galaxy on March 9, St. Louis CITY SC came from behind twice to finish the match 3-3 at Dignity Health Sports Park.
- ▷ CITY SC has also scored two goals in stoppage time across all competitions this season - Hosei Kijima in the 90+1' minute against Houston Dynamo and Pompeu in the 90'+3 minute against Austin FC.

PIVOTAL SUBSTITUTIONS

- ▷ One of St. Louis' strengths in their inaugural season was their depth and the ability to change games with that depth.
- ▷ Last season, Bradley Carnell made 162 subs from a possible 170 in the MLS regular season, more than any other coach in the league.
- ▷ The head coach showed strong belief in his squad that saw 16 goal scorers in the MLS and 28 players make an appearance.
- ▷ Against cross-state rivals Sporting KC on September 30, 2023, Carnell made multiple subs at the 60-minute mark changing the shape which led to the team scoring four goals in the last 12 minutes.
- ▷ This season, Carnell picked up where he left off, awarding MLS SuperDraft pick Hosei Kijima his debut in the CONCACAF Champions Cup match against Houston, which lead to the midfielder netting the game-winner in stoppage time.
- ▷ In the team's next match against Real Salt Lake on February 24, a Bradley Carnell sub again changed the course of the match.
- ▷ After visiting side Real Salt Lake took the lead in the 74th minute, forward Sam Adeniran, who subbed on in the 67th minute, put in the equalizer just five minutes after Salt Lake took the lead.
- ▷ Against LA Galaxy on March 9, Carnell brought on Adeniran in the 60th minute with the Galaxy leading 2-1. A minute after coming on, Adeniran provided an assist on Joakim Nilsson's bicycle kick goal. In the 81st minute Kyle Hiebert was subbed. Nine minutes later Hiebert was responsible for challenging John McCarthy which led to the subsequent own goal.
- ▷ In the team's sixth MLS match, CITY SC were down 2-1 at home to D.C. United in the second half, CITY SC winger Celio Pompeu came on in the 57th minute and played a pivotal role by winning a penalty kick that was converted Klauss.

TIM PARKER STRIKES FIRST

- ▷ For the second consecutive year, CITY SC defender Tim Parker opened the team's scoring account, heading in a cross off a free kick in the club's debut CONCACAF Champions Cup match against Houston Dynamo.
- ▷ During the 2023 MLS season, Parker scored the first goal in CITY SC's historic come-from-behind win in the team's inaugural match against Austin FC last season.
- ▷ Tim Parker has scored the first MLS, MLS Playoffs and Concacaf Champions Cup goals in CITY SC history.
- ▷ The 2023 MLS All-Star now has six goals across all competitions in two seasons with CITY SC.

LÖWEN OPENING DAY ASSISTS

- ▷ After setting up Sam Adeniran's game-tying goal in the 79th minute against Real Salt Lake, midfielder Eduard Löwen picked up his first assist of the 2024 season.

- ▷ With his assist, Löwen provided in CITY SC's MLS opener for the second consecutive season.
- ▷ On both occasions, the assist set up the team's first goal in MLS play, as Löwen fed Tim Parker for the first-ever goal in team history against Austin FC in 2023.

NO WAY, HOSEI!

- ▷ Selected 17th overall by CITY SC in the 2024 MLS SuperDraft, midfielder Hosei Kijima made a debut for the ages in CITY SC's 2-1 victory over the Houston Dynamo.
- ▷ With his signing officially announced earlier in the match day, Kijima suited up for CITY SC and subbed into the match in the 86th minute, delivering a perfectly placed strike past a diving goalkeeper just five minutes after subbing on to lift the team to a 2-1 victory.
- ▷ Kijima is now the second MLS SuperDraft pick to make his debut for CITY SC, following John Klein who made his debut last season
- ▷ Kijima is also the 18th different player to score a goal in all competitions for CITY SC in the team's young history
- ▷ Kijima is the first MLS SuperDraft pick to score a goal for CITY SC in team history

UNBEATEN IN FIRST FIVE MATCHES

- ▷ St. Louis CITY SC extended their unbeaten streak to five matches after drawing 2-2 against D.C. United on March 23. With the tie, CITY SC became the first expansion team in MLS history to start their first two seasons unbeaten through the first five matches.
- ▷ CITY SC kicked off their inaugural season in record-setting fashion, earning five victories in their first five matches, a feat that had never been accomplished by an expansion team in league history.
- ▷ Through the first five MLS matches of the 2024 season, St. Louis CITY SC went undefeated with a 1-0-4 record.
- ▷ CITY SC is just the fifth team to go unbeaten over the first five games in back-to-back season in MLS history (2014-15 Real Salt Lake, 2017-18 FC Dallas, 2019-20 LAFC, 2022-23 LAFC and 2023-24 FC Cincinnati).

INAUGURAL SEASON FOR THE HISTORY BOOKS

- ▷ St. Louis CITY SC enjoyed one of most successful seasons by an expansion team in both MLS history and across all five major men's sports leagues in the United States — not only defying expectations but breaking numerous expansion team records.
- ▷ The team kicked off the MLS season like no other expansion side in the league's history, reeling off a record-setting five victories in their first five matches.
- ▷ St. Louis CITY SC finished the regular season 17-12-5, with the team's 56 points good for the second most by an expansion team in MLS history (excluding the shootout era)
- ▷ CITY SC's 17 wins set the record for the most wins by an expansion team in MLS history.
- ▷ The team became the first expansion team

- ▷ CITY SC joined Atlanta United FC, Los Angeles FC and Chicago Fire FC as the only expansion teams to score 60 or more goals in their debut seasons.
- ▷ Sixteen (16) different players got on the scoresheet for CITY SC in MLS play, tying the team with Charlotte FC (2022) for the most different goal scorers for an expansion team in MLS history.
- ▷ CITY SC became the fastest expansion team in MLS history to 50 goals after, reaching the feat in 25 games.
- ▷ CITYPARK served as a fortress for the team, as CITY SC's 11 home wins tied Atlanta United FC for the most home wins by an expansion team in MLS history (excluding the shootout era)

OFFSEASON MOVES

- ▷ Following last season's success, St. Louis CITY SC made a few moves in the offseason with two players, Lucas Bartlett and Jared Stroud leaving to D.C. United in a trade for former USYNT midfielder Chris Durkin.
- ▷ Durkin a former Homegrown player for DC United, adds to St. Louis' central midfield group and will occupy a U22 Initiative roster spot.
- ▷ At D.C. United, Durkin amassed five goals and nine assists in 96 regular-season games. He's also played 71 times for Belgian side Sint-Truiden V.V. where he also crossed paths with CITY SC striker Klauss who was also on the team.
- ▷ To bolster their defensive unit, St. Louis signed two outside backs in Nikolas Dyhr and Tomas Totland. Dyhr joined CITY SC from Danish Superliga side FC Midtjylland and has won titles at both the youth and senior level in Denmark while also gaining valuable experience in Europa and Champions League competitions.
- ▷ On the right side, CITY SC added Totland, a U.S. and Norway dual national, from Swedish First Division club BK Häcken. The right back most recently played in both Europa League, Europa League qualifiers and Champions League qualifiers, amassing 10 appearances with one assist.
- ▷ For the Norwegian Youth National team, Totland earned caps at the Under-18, U-20 and U-21 squads. He tallied seven total appearances including an appearance during the U-20 World Cup in 2019.
- ▷ St. Louis also added former St. Louis CITY2 goalkeeper Christian Olivares St. Louis CITY2 goalkeeper Christian Olivares and acquired Hosei Kijima with the 17th overall pick and Brendan McSorley with the 79th overall pick in the MLS SuperDraft.

- ▷ Prior to the start of preseason, two players departed CITY SC, Homegrown midfielder Miguel Perez, who left on loan and forward Niko Gioacchini.
- ▷ Perez joined USL Championship side Birmingham Legion FC on loan with CITY SC holding the option to recall the Homegrown player at any point during the season.
- ▷ Perez was one of the biggest stories in the club's inaugural season, as he made his professional debut in the season opener against Austin FC and scored his first professional goal three days after graduating high school.
- ▷ The other departure was forward Gioacchini who moved to Serie B side Como 1907. Gioacchini finished the season with 10 goals after joining the club in the 2023 Expansion Draft from Orlando City.

CARNELL EXTENSION

- ▷ After leading the club to a historic inaugural season, St. Louis CITY SC and Head Coach Bradley Carnell agreed on a new contract extension.
- ▷ Arriving in St. Louis in January of 2022, Carnell wasted little time building a strong foundation, help-ing to implement the high-pressing system with then-CITY2 Head Coach John Hackworth that pushed CITY2 to a 2022 MLS NEXT Pro Western Conference title in their first season.
- ▷ Carnell led the team to a 5-0-0 start last season to become the first MLS team to reach that feat. Dur-ing the stretch, CITY SC had eight different goal scorers and two clean sheets. St. Louis followed by becoming the quickest expansion team to reach 25 points, doing so in 13 games.
- ▷ Carnell and CITY SC finished 2023 as the Western Conference Regular-Season champions with a mark of 17-12-3. St. Louis became the first expansion team to win a conference regular-season title and record 17 wins (post-shootout era), while tying for the second most team points in a season with 56.
- ▷ Carnell applied the Designated Team concept to heart in 2023 as St. Louis had 16 different goal scorers in MLS, 28 players make an appearance, and 24 different players make a start. Along with being named a finalist for coach of the year, he played a key role in Bürki being named Goalkeeper of the Year and Bürki and Tim Parker being named to MLS Best XI in 2023.

CONCACAF CHAMPIONS CUP DEBUT

- ▷ As a byproduct of St. Louis CITY SC's record-setting expansion year in which the team earned 56 points to finish the regular season atop the MLS Western Conference, CITY SC clinched a berth in the 2024 Concacaf Champions Cup, the preeminent soccer competition across North America.
- ▷ Facing Houston Dynamo FC in the First Round of the tournament, CITY SC pulled off a memorable 2-1 victory in the first leg of the teams' two-leg matchup, with goals from vice-captain Tim Parker and midfielder Hosei Kijima.
- ▷ Parker broke the scoreless deadlock with a header in the 61st minute, scoring his sixth goal with CITY SC across all competitions over the past two seasons
- ▷ Parker now holds the title of having scored the first MLS, MLS Cup Playoffs and Concacaf Champions Cup goals in CITY SC history
- ▷ With Houston poised to steal a result on the road after having equalized in the 72nd minute, Kijima came on as a substitute in the dying moments of the game and had a debut for the ages, as CITY SC's 2024 MLS SuperDraft first round selection worked around a Dynamo defender to score the game-winning goal in stoppage time
- ▷ A week later, the teams played the second leg of the First Round matchup in Houston, in which the Dynamo eked out a 1-0 win and secure their spot in the next round of the tournament after winning the tiebreaker of away goals scored

STARS AND STRIPES REUNITE

- ▷ Aziel Jackson was the latest CITY SC player to feature for the USMNT after making his debut on January 20, 2024 against Slovenia.
- ▷ Prior to Aziel's callup, Indiana Vassilev played for the U.S. Men's Olympic Team against Japan U-23 national team last October.
- ▷ Vassilev was also a member of the U-17 national team that featured current teammates Akil Watts and Chris Durkin and was coached by CITY SC's Technical Director John Hackworth.

- ▷ Hackworth, Vassilev, Durkin and Watts helped lead the Under-17 squad to a U-17 World Cup quarterfinal appearance.

O CAP, MY CAP (& VICE)

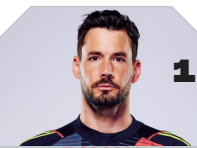

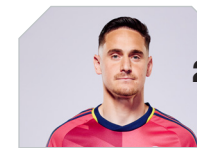

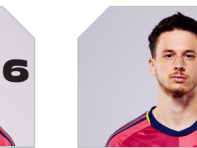

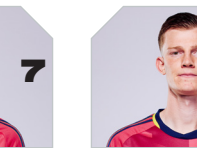

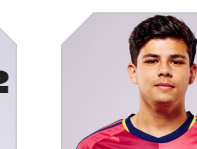

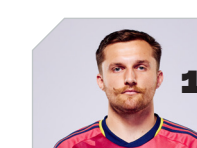

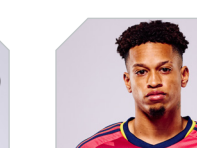

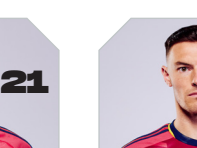

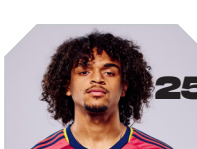

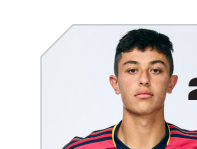

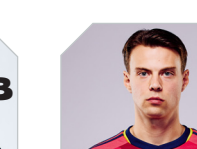

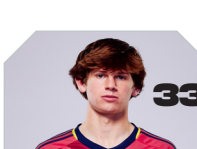

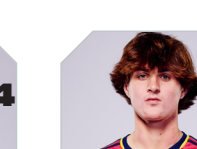

- ▷ Ahead of last season, Head Coach Bradley Carnell announced goalkeeper Roman Bürki as the team's first captain and MLS veteran Tim Parker the team's vice captain to serve alongside Bürki.
- ▷ Both Bürki and Parker enjoyed a successful first season with the club, with the duo finishing at the top of the team charts for games started (Bürki – 33, Parker – 29).
- ▷ In August 2023, Bürki and Parker were named MLS All-Stars, becoming the club's first all-stars for the first team.
- ▷ The pair also received post-season honors, with both earning a spot on the 2023 MLS Best XI.
- ▷ On October 26, 2023, Parker was named as a finalist for the MLS Defender of the Year award and Bürki for MLS Goalkeeper of the Year award. Bürki was voted as number in his category while Parker finished second behind FC Cincinnati's Matt Miazga.

BAFANA BAFANA

- ▷ CITY SC Head Coach Bradley Carnell was born and raised in Johannesburg, South Africa and began his professional career with Kaizer Chiefs FC in 1997. He then spent the better part of his playing career in the Bundesliga as a defender.
- ▷ During his playing career, Carnell was a mainstay in the South African National team, appearing 42 teams. While being a mainstay, he earned the call up to the 2002 FIFA World Cup where he started and played 90 minutes of the three Group Stage matches.
- ▷ Carnell added Jarryd Phillips, Director of Sports Performance, to the coaching staff. Phillips, also a native of Johannesburg, has 11 years of MLS experience in sports science and performance.

OVERVIEW

The STL CITY SC ownership group is committed to investing in the growth of the city they love and believe CITYPARK, St. Louis' state-of-the-art soccer stadium, plays an important role in continuing to build the positive momentum happening throughout the St. Louis region. As the team looks to fuel St. Louis' continued growth and renaissance, CITYPARK reflects many of St. Louis' most amazing attributes, including its diverse neighborhoods, growing culinary scene, innovative technology, inviting community and spirit of a new St. Louis.

CITYPARK and its surrounding stadium district is the largest urban professional sports campus in the U.S. and the only one with a stadium, team headquarters, and practice facility all within the same footprint. The 31 acre urban campus in Downtown West will help unite the region around its love of sports and serve as the heartbeat of St. Louis by creating a 24/7/365 fan and community experience that encourages visitors and development to Downtown St. Louis.

MLS Commissioner Don Garber said that this comprehensive stadium plan will "serve as a model for future professional sports teams in the U.S."

Anchored by a compact stadium that fits comfortably into its urban neighborhood, the district include spaces for hosting year-round community events, concerts, festivals and other outdoor activities. As a part of the stadium district design vision, every side of the stadium – North, East, South, West – will be open and inclusive and have no back door, with all back of house services occurring via a tunnel below Market Street and fans welcome from every side.

The 22,500-seat CITYPARK is open and transparent, with views into the field from the neighborhood and views out to the city from the seating bowl. The main concourse is level with the west end of Lou Fusz Plaza, reinforcing the pedestrian scale. Its sleek form features a portico along with tall, slender columns that frame the upper seating bowl. A flat canopy fabricated from material that reflects light like the Gateway Arch, provides protection for fans while letting in daylight and amplifies fan noise.

The stadium provides a range of fan experiences, including general seating areas, heart-pounding supporter section and across diverse premium offerings and clubs, include the VIP Pitch Club, Together Credit Union Club, ULTRA Club, and the CITY-owned brew pub.

The 100% local STLmade food experience at CITYPARK, designed by James Beard award-winning Chef Gerard Craft, brings to life the next generation of in-stadium convenience, with state-of-the-art "connected stadium" technologies and modern design features including: dedicated mobile-order ahead via the CITY mobile app, frictionless CITY Go walkout markets, self-service kiosks and mobile wallet/pay technologies to decrease transaction times and increase overall fan convenience.

CITYPARK's state-of-the-art Wi-Fi and communications technology are layered on top of the physical stadium, creating an exceptional fan experience that includes local music curated by Musical Director Mvstermind. CITY SC worked with fans and members of the local community to develop everything from partner restaurants to the "music of St. Louis" setting the mood for a truly St. Louis experience.

The first majority female-owned club in MLS history is anchored in the STLmade movement, with a vision to be more than a soccer team and working to be something transformational for the St. Louis region. CITYPARK is our home.
