NEW ENGLAND - SEATTLE CONNECTIONS

- Revolution defender Xavier Arreaga spent parts of six seasons with Seattle Sounders FC, winning MLS Cup in 2019 and the 2022 Concacaf Champions League crown.
- Seattle defender Jon Bell began his career with New England, playing for Revolution II in 2020 before moving up to the first team from 2021-22.
- Seattle defender Nathan and Revolution defender Jonathan Mensah were teammates at San Jose Earthquakes during the 2023 season.
- Revolution forward Bobby Wood and Seattle midfielder Albert Rusnak played together at Real Salt Lake from 2021-22.
- Wood was also coached by current Seattle assistant Freddy Juarez at Real Salt Lake in 2021.
- Wood and Seattle forward Danny Musovski overlapped at Salt Lake for one season in 2022.
- Musovski was teammates with Revolution midfielder Mark-Anthony Kaye at Los Angeles FC from 2020-21.
- Seattle forward Braudilio Rodrigues played his college soccer at D-II Franklin Pierce University in New Hampshire, where he helped lead the Ravens to the 2022 National Championship.
- Seattle midfielder Danny Leyva and Revolution midfielder Esmir Bajraktarevic played together on the U.S. U-23 team over the past several months in preparation for the 2024 Paris Olympic Games.
- Revolution head coach Caleb Porter was born in Tacoma, Washington and spent four seasons in the Pacific Northwest coaching for Seattle rival Portland Timbers FC.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR TEAM NOTES

- New England and Seattle Sounders FC will meet for the first time in five seasons on Saturday night. When the two sides last faced off in Seattle during the 2019 season, Carles Gil converted a late penalty to salvage a 3-3 draw in a thrilling affair.
- The Revolution hold a narrow edge in the all-time series against Sounders FC, 5-4-5, and have registered draws in three of their last four trips to Seattle.
- New England has scored first in six straight games and is unbeaten in its last 25 matches when leading at halftime (22-0-3) dating back to March 2022. Since the start of 2021, the Revolution have lost just once in 41 matches when leading at half (34-1-5).
- The Revolution are averaging 51.7 percent possession per game, the eighth-best possession advantage in MLS this season.
- Since June 1, New England

CALEB PORTER HEAD COACH

- Caleb Porter owns a .790 career winning percentage in MLS play when his team scores first, third best among active MLS coaches with at least 100 games.
- Porter has faced Seattle 24 times in his career, more than any other MLS opponent, and won the 2017 Cascadia Cup title with Portland Timbers FC.
- Porter's 120 career wins are 12th most in league annals, just one shy of matching Jason Kreis (121) for 11th most all-time.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- M Carles Gil eyes a return to the matchday roster and looks to record an assist in a fifth straight appearance for the third time in his MLS career. Gil (69) is four assists shy of tying Steve Ralston's club record of 73 helpers in MLS regular season play.
- F Dylan Borrero logged 62 minutes in his return to the matchday roster on Wednesday after missing two games due to injury. The Colombian has two assists in his last three matches, and New England is 7-0-2 when he finds the scoresheet.
- D DeJuan Jones tallied his first assist of the season in his 125th MLS start on Wednesday. Since entering the league in 2019, Jones ranks sixth among MLS defenders with 139 chances created.
- M Mark-Anthony Kaye hopes to return to the matchday roster after missing three of the last four games through injury. For his MLS career since 2018, Kaye ranks third among MLS midfielders with 238 tackles won.
- D Dave Romney, who earned his 200th career MLS start last Saturday, ranks second in MLS with 11,791 minutes played since 2020.
- M Matt Polster continues to lead all MLS midfielders with a 74.7 percent aerial duel success rate - the seventh-best mark leaguewide.
- D Brandon Bye looks to continue building match fitness after appearing off the bench in each of the last three contests, his first showings since returning from a torn ACL sustained last August.
- M Noel Buck is the youngest player since Diego Fagundez (18 years, 71 days) to score five MLS goals for the Revolution. New England is 7-0-1 when the Homegrown midfielder finds the scoresheet in MLS.
- D Henry Kessler eyes a second straight start. In all competitions, Kessler (96) is four starts shy of 100 for the club.

31 ALJAŽ IVAČIČ GOALKEEPER

- GK Aljaž Ivačič owns a 3-1-1 record with two clean sheets in five career matches against Seattle Sounders FC.
- Ivačič is tied for the fourth-best total for post-shot expected goals minus goals allowed (PSxG-GA) among MLS goalkeepers (min. 500 minutes played) at +2.4 since making his Revolution debut on May 4.
- Ivačič owns a 6-4-0 record on the year with a pair of clean sheets, while his 27 saves since June 1 are second-most among MLS goalkeepers.

9 GIACOMO VRIONI FORWARD

- F Giacomo Vrioni has scored five goals in his last four games, including a pair of multi-goal performances. His five goals since June 1 are tied for third-most league-wide in that span.
- Vrioni owns 10 goals in all competitions this season, including seven in league play. For his Revolution tenure, the Albanian averages 0.64 goal contributions per 90.
- Over the course of his recent scoring spree, Vrioni ranks fifth in MLS with 21 shot attempts since June 1.

3 XAVIER ARREAGA DEFENDER

- D Xavier Arreaga prepares to face his former team for the first time since being traded in April. Arreaga won 2019 MLS Cup and 2022 Concacaf Champions League titles with Seattle.
- Since joining New England, Arreaga is tied for second leaguewide with 20 dribblers tackled, doing so at an 87 percent success rate.
- Arreaga ranks second in MLS with 59 clearances since his Revolution debut on April 27.

TEAM NOTES

CAPTAIN CARLES COOKING IN 2024

Revolution midfielder Carles Gil has tallied five goals and six assists in league play to date, including three games with the winning assist. Last year, the Spaniard became the first Revolution player with four seasons of 10-or-more assists. Gil's 47 assists in league play from 2021-23 equaled the fifth-best three-season assist total in MLS history. For his MLS career, Gil owns 74 assists (inc. playoffs), the most leaguewide since his arrival in 2019.

KING OF THE GIL: CAPI ONE OF MLS' BEST EVER MIDFIELDERS

New England captain Carles Gil marked his 150th MLS appearance on June 22 with a multi-assist performance to help lead the Revolution to a fourth straight win. The one constant during New England's recent four-match win streak was the playmaking of Gil - who has tallied assist in each of his last four games. It's the third time in his MLS tenure that Gil has recorded an assist in four consecutive matches, and the first time since 2021. Gil set the club record in 2022 when he notched assists in six straight matches across all competitions, doing so in five straight league appearances to match the previous career high from his 2021 MVP campaign.

TEAM NOTES

ALJAŽ IVACIĆ ANCHORS REVOLUTION DEFENSE

The New England Revolution signed goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačić through the 2025 Major League Soccer season in a Deadline Day deal on April 23. In his first eight starts for New England, Ivačić has notched a pair of clean sheets and five wins, including a five-save shutout on June 8 to earn MLS Player of the Matchday honors.

Ivačić became just the second Revolution goalkeeper to earn MLS Player of the Matchday honors after Matt Turner accomplished the feat in Week 8 of the 2021 campaign. The Slovenian is also the first goalkeeper league-wide to claim the award since Minnesota United's Dayne St. Clair in Matchday 3 of the 2022 season.

The 30-year-old also backstopped New England to a 2-1 victory over Nashville SC on June 1 with a penalty kick save on 2022 MLS MVP Hany Mukhtar's attempt, helping start the current four-game win streak for the Revolution. Since his Revolution debut on May 4, Ivačić holds the fifth-best total of post-shot expected goals minus goals allowed among MLS keepers with at least 500 minutes played. A positive number in this category indicates a goalkeeper's shot-stopping ability is above average.

MARK-ANTHONY KAYE TACKLING THE COMPETITION

Upon arriving in New England last year via midseason trade with Toronto, midfielder Mark-Anthony Kaye continued to show his ball-winning prowess in midfield. The Canadian international finished the 2023 campaign as the MLS leader with 71 tackles won. So far this season, Kaye is once again the team's leading tackler, having won 22 of his 33 tackles on the campaign. With a logjam in midfield, Kaye had started eighth consecutive matches prior to missing the June 15 contest as a late injury scratch.

Throughout his MLS career, Kaye has excelled in winning tackles. With prior stops at Los Angeles FC, Colorado Rapids, and Toronto FC, Kaye has remained a steady midfield presence since entering the league in 2018, and ranks third among MLS midfielders in tackles won:

BYE THE WAY: REVS' RIGHT BACK RETURNS TO ACTION

For the first time in nearly 11 months, Revolution right back Brandon Bye made his return to match action with a substitute appearance at FC Cincinnati on June 22, marking his first performance since suffering a torn ACL in Leagues Cup last August.

When it comes to Revolution defenders finding the scoresheet, Bye and fellow fullback DeJuan Jones are among the best in club history. Jones and Bye each recorded seven assists in 2022 to share the single-season club record for helpers by a defender. Jones, who was signed to a four-year contract extension ahead of the 2024 campaign, again matched that total in 2023 with seven helpers. The United States international became one of just three MLS defenders to record five or more assists in each of the last three seasons (Kai Wagner & Brooks Lennon).

Jones and Bye have been instrumental to the Revolution on both ends of the field since the duo first began playing together in 2019. Both converted wingers from their college days, the two rank sixth and seventh among MLS defenders in key passes since the start of 2019.

MATT POLSTER A MAINSTAY FOR NEW ENGLAND

Revolution midfielder and MLS veteran Matt Polster has been a mainstay in the New England lineup since his arrival in August 2020. Polster has proven his worth in all areas of the pitch, helping the Revolution to the Concacaf Champions Cup Quarterfinals for the second time in three years and recently made his 200th MLS appearance.

Polster recently hit another major milestone in his Revolution tenure, becoming the 28th player to log 10,000 minutes across all competitions for the club. Polster eclipsed 15,000 for his MLS career with a 90-minute effort on May 4 against his former club Chicago. The midfielder set a new career high last season with 31 appearances, all starts, in regular season play. Since joining the Revolution, Polster ranks fifth among MLS midfielders with 169 interceptions over the past five seasons:

TEAM NOTES

DAVE ROMNEY AMONG MLS SERVICE LEADERS

Veteran defender Dave Romney has been instrumental to New England's recent run of form. Inserted back into the starting lineup on June 1, Romney has kept his starting spot and helped guide New England to its current four-game winning streak. The 10th-year defender just earned his 200th start in MLS play on June 29 vs. Columbus.

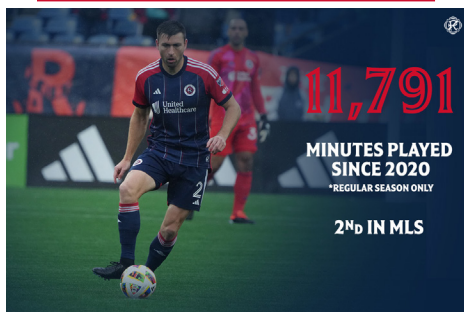

During his first season with New England in 2023, Romney, who arrived in New England after a three-year tenure with Nashville SC, had a perfect service record in 2023, becoming the second player in club history to play every minute of a 34-game season (Jose Goncalves - 2013). He also played every minute of the Revolution's playoff and Leagues Cup 2023 campaigns. For his efforts in 2023, Romney was recognized as Revolution Defender of the Year as voted on by local media. Aside from his defensive numbers, Romney's disciplinary record was also exemplary, committing just 11 fouls and receiving one yellow card over 34 appearances. A denizen in central defense for Nashville prior to arriving in Foxborough, Romney ranks second among all MLS outfield players in regular season minutes played (11,791) and third in starts (131) since the start of 2020.

PORTER, REVS TOUGH TO BEAT WHEN SCORING FIRST

Throughout his MLS coaching career, Caleb Porter's teams have been nearly unbeatable when tallying the first goal. This season, New England has followed that trend under Porter, boasting a 7-2-0 record when scoring first, having done so in each of its last six games. Of Porter's 120 regular season coaching victories in his career, 99 have come when his team strikes first - 12th-most in MLS history and sixth among active head coaches. Porter's .791 win percentage when his team scores first is third-best among current MLS bosses with at least 100 regular season games.

New England has done well to protect its lead as well. Dating back to March 2022, New England is unbeaten in its last 25 games when leading at the half (22-0-3), while the Revolution own a 35-1-5 record when leading at halftime since the start of the 2021 season. This season, the Revolution are among seven MLS clubs with an unblemished record when leading at the half (5-0-0).

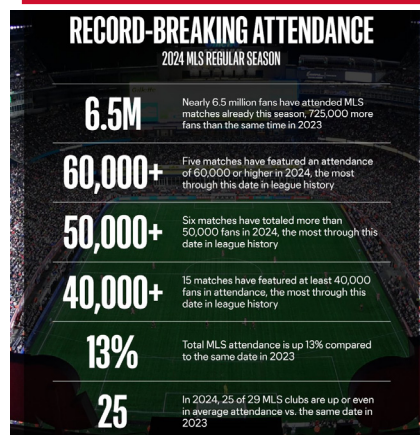

REVOLUTION, MLS ON PACE FOR RECORD ATTENDANCE

The 2024 season has seen MLS attendance figures up by 13 percent over last season across the league, especially in New England where the club set a new single-season mark with an average of 23,940 fans per game in 2023 (eighth best in MLS). That new record season comes on the back of a 2022 campaign that saw the third-highest average in team annals (21,221).

This season, the Revolution are expected to approach an average of 30,000 fans per match, marking another year of significant growth, and are currently sixth leaguewide with an average home attendance of 29,429 fans per game. New England has surpassed 25,000 fans six times to date, including the 2024 home opener which drew 29,293 fans - the highest mark for a standalone home opener since the inaugural home game in 1996.

2024 MLS LEADERS: AVG. HOME ATTENDANCE (THRU 6/30)

Rank	Club	Avg. Att.
1.	Atlanta United FC	46,722
2.	Charlotte FC	33,162
3.	Nashville SC	28,619
4.	Vancouver Whitecaps FC	28,593
5.	Seattle Sounders FC	27,223

THREE REVOLUTION PLAYERS EARNED JUNE 2024 CALL-UPS

The New England Revolution had three players earn call-ups to their respective national teams for upcoming matches during the June FIFA window.

Fellow Homegrown midfielder Esmir Bajraktarević was called into the United States Men's Olympic Team for its training camp in Kansas City from June 3-11. Bajraktarević joined the U.S. Men's Olympic Team following a June 1 victory over Nashville SC for the Revolution in which the Wisconsin native scored his first MLS goal as the match-winner. The U.S. closed camp with a friendly against Japan on June 11 at Children's Mercy Park. Japan claimed a 2-0 victory over the U.S., as Bajraktarevic was an unused substitute. With the U.S. Olympic squad, Bajraktarević has made six appearances with one goal scored, coming in a 2-1 win against Mexico on Oct. 12, 2023. Most recently, the 19-year-old played twice in March 2024 matches against Guinea and France.

Homegrown midfielder Noel Buck, a native of Arlington, Mass. and product of the Revolution's pro pathway, featured for the England men's Elite League Squad, formerly the U-20s, by Head Coach Ben Futch for a pair of June matches in Croatia. Buck was the only member of the 24-player Elite League Squad based at a non-European club, and one of only seven players born in 2005 or later. Buck started and played 50 minutes against Sweden at Stadion ŠRC in Sesvete on Friday, June 7, before logging 25 minutes off the bench in a 2-2 draw against the Republic of Ireland at the Gradski Stadion in Vrbovec on Tuesday, June 11.

Goalkeeper Henrich Ravas was part of the Slovakia National Team roster for the 2024 UEFA European Championship by Head Coach Francesco Calzona. Ravas, the only MLS player on Slovakia's roster for UEFA Euro 2024, was an unused substitute in all four of Slovakia's matches. In Group E play, Slovakia finished 1-1-1, defeating Belgium and drawing Romania with a loss to Ukraine in between. In the Round of 16, Slovakia suffered a heartbreaking defeat to England, 2-1, in extra time.

FIFA WORLD CUP 2026™ REVEALS BOSTON MATCH SCHEDULE

In February, FIFA announced the much-anticipated Match Schedule for FIFA World Cup 26™, in which Boston will host seven matches including a Quarterfinal at Boston Stadium (Gillette Stadium). Up to 14 national teams will visit the city between June 13 and July 9, 2026 to compete for soccer's grandest prize. The announcement of the match schedule adds to the excitement around the tournament, which will see fans flock to the birthplace of the American Revolution for the chance to experience the FIFA World Cup™ during the United States' semi-quincentennial anniversary.

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION II

LATEST NEWS

New England Revolution II (4-9-2; 16 pts.) fell on the road to FC Cincinnati 2 (10-4-1; 31 pts.), 1-0, on Sunday night at NKU Soccer Stadium. Home-grown forward and Academy product Malcolm Fry made his 50th MLS NEXT Pro appearance for Revolution II on Sunday, finishing with a team high three shots.

The hosts began Sunday's contest on the front foot, applying pressure on New England and creating anxious moments inside the penalty area. Revolution II battled back, as Gevork Diarbian and Olger Escobar combined to generate a pair of scoring chances inside the opening half hour.

Cincinnati tallied the lone goal in the 34th minute when Guilherme Santos found Kenji Mboma Dem at the top of the box with a window to curl a shot into the top right corner. Mboma Dem had missed a chance moments earlier, firing an open look over the bar. Revolution II goalkeeper J.D. Gunn kept his side in the match, making six saves on the night including a denial of Santos on a breakaway late in the second half.

Revolution II leading scorer Marcos Dias subbed into the match just shy of the hour mark, immediately making an impact in the attack with chance in the 64th minute, but his shot was straight at Cincinnati goalkeeper Paul Walters. Fry nearly equalized moments after, bending a shot just wide of the post from the edge of the box.

New England opens a two-game homestand on Saturday, July 6, hosting Philadelphia Union 2 at Mark A. Ouellette Stadium in New Hampshire. The 7:00 p.m. ET kickoff streams live on MLSNEXTPro.com with A.J. Ricketts calling the action.

REVOLUTION II SCHEDULE & RESULTS

Revolution II opens the 2024 MLS NEXT Pro season on March 24. The team will play 28 league matches through October, culminating in the MLS NEXT Pro Cup Playoffs.

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION ACADEMY

LATEST NEWS

The 2023-24 MLS NEXT season came to a close this week for the New England Revolution Academy's U-19s and U-15s teams, after both fell in the MLS NEXT Cup Playoffs Round of 16 in Nashville, Tenn. at Richard Siegel Soccer Complex. The two teams then competed in the MLS NEXT Showcase to each finish their campaigns with a win.

The two-time MLS NEXT Cup Champion U-19s opened action in the playoffs Round of 32 on Sunday defeating Shattuck-St. Mary's, 3-1. Braedon Smith (2004 – New York City, N.Y.) tallied two goals for New England, while Enzo Goncalves (2006 – Hyannis, Mass.) scored his 10th goal of the season, capitalizing off an assist from Olger Escobar (2006 – Boston, Mass.) in the 53rd minute. On Monday, the U-19s lost in the second round of playoffs to Barca Residency Academy, 2-1. Escobar was the Revolution's lone scorer in the match. The Academy team finished its MLS NEXT campaign with a victory in showcase play on Wednesday, defeating FC Dallas, 1-0. Kian Charris (2006 – Pawtucket, R.I.) notched the game winner for New England to close out the 2024 season on a high-note.

The U-15s collected a victory in the first Round of 32 on Saturday, beating Seattle Sounders FC, 3-2. Sheridan McNish (2008 – Norwood, Mass.) and Paolo Tornberg Ayala (2009 – Revere, Mass.) both registered goals for New England, while Brian Brooks (2009 – Waltham, Mass.) scored the game winner, recording his third goal of the season. On Monday, the U-15s fell to FC Cincinnati, 3-2. Ayala tallied his second goal in his second playoff appearance, while Judah Siqueira (2009 – Easton, Mass.) converted on an assist from Aarin Prajapati (2009 – Boston, Mass.) in the 79th minute. The Revolution Academy team closed out its season with a 4-3 victory over Barca Residency Academy on Tuesday in the MLS NEXT Showcase. Kaleb De Oliveira (2009 – Somerville, Mass.) registered two goals for New England, while Levi Katsell (2009 – San Diego, Calif.) and Siqueira also found the scoresheet to conclude the U-15's season with a win.

2024-25 REVOLUTION ACADEMY SCHEDULE

All five Revolution Academy teams will return to MLS NEXT play in September, to kick off the 2024-25 MLS NEXT Fall Season.

CALEB PORTER

HEAD COACH

CALEB PORTER AT A GLANCE

- Named the ninth head coach in Revolution club history on Dec. 19, 2023.
- One of six coaches to win multiple MLS Cups, and one of only three to do so with different clubs, having led the Portland Timbers (2015) and Columbus Crew SC (2020) to league titles.
- Entering 2024, MLS winning percentage ranks top-10 among all coaches (min. 200 games).
- Led Columbus to the MLS Cup title in second season with the club in 2020, before winning the Campeones Cup the following season.
- Named 2013 MLS Coach of the Year after first MLS season, when he led Portland to a 23-point turnaround over the previous year to finish first in the Western Conference.
- With the University of Akron from 2006-12, won the 2010 NCAA D-I men's soccer national championship, seven consecutive MAC regular season titles, and six straight MAC Coach of the Year honors.
- Won back-to-back NCAA College Cup titles (2003 and 2004) as an assistant at his alma mater, Indiana University.

Caleb Porter is in his first season as head coach of the New England Revolution. Porter, appointed the ninth official head coach in club history on Dec. 19, 2023, is a two-time MLS Cup winner with over 20 years of coaching experience in Major League Soccer, the NCAA, and international soccer.

Porter's 300 games of experience are sixth most among all coaches currently leading an MLS club. Entering his 10th season as a head coach in MLS, Porter's .534 career winning percentage stood as the 10th best in league history among coaches with at least 200 games on the sideline. In the MLS Cup Playoffs, Porter's postseason record stands at an impressive 9-3-4 (.688) across four playoff campaigns.

Porter, 49, joined the Columbus Crew ahead of the 2019 season and remained with the club through 2022, posting a 52-46-39 record in his four seasons. In only his second season with the club, Porter guided the Crew to a 12-5-6 record in the regular season to secure third place in the Eastern Conference en route to the club's second MLS Cup title, defeating Seattle Sounders FC, 3-0, in the final. In doing so, he became only the third coach to win multiple MLS Cups with different clubs. The following year, Porter guided the Crew to the 2021 Campeones Cup trophy with a 2-0 win over LIGA MX side Cruz Azul.

The Tacoma, Wash. native began his MLS coaching career in 2013 with the Portland Timbers where he would lead Portland to the Western Conference Final twice in three years. In his first season in Portland, Porter won MLS Coach of the Year honors after leading the Timbers to a 14-5-15 record, marking a 23-point turnaround from the previous year, and a first-place finish in the Western Conference. Porter posted a 68-50-52 record with the Timbers and won his first MLS Cup in 2015 after setting a new single-season club record in wins (15) and leading MLS in shutouts (13). In his final season with Portland, Porter helped claim the 2017 Cascadia Cup and led the Timbers to another first-place finish in the Western Conference.

Before entering the professional ranks, Porter coached the men's soccer program at University of Akron for seven seasons from 2006-12, winning the MAC regular season title each of those years. In 2010, he led the Zips to the NCAA Division 1 national championship with a 1-0 victory over the University of Louisville in the final. Porter compiled a 123-18-17 record at Akron and garnered numerous honors including National Soccer Coaches Association of America National Coach of the Year (2009) and six consecutive MAC Coach of the Year awards from 2007-12. He remains the fastest coach in program history to reach 100 wins at Akron, doing so in just 126 matches, while also setting an NCAA record conference unbeaten streak at 47 games (44-0-3) in 2012.

While at Akron, Porter also gained valuable coaching experience at the international level as head coach of the U.S. Under-23 Men's National Team from 2011-12. He also worked as an assistant with the Under-18 national team from 2009-11. Porter's experience in international club competition also includes three Concacaf Champions Cups (2014-15, 2016-17, 2021), as he is set to enter the tournament for the fourth time with New England in February 2024 when he coaches in his first official competitive action with the club.

Porter began his coaching career as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Indiana University, from 2000-05. He helped the Hoosiers win back-to-back NCAA College Cup titles in 2003 and 2004, five consecutive Big Ten Conference regular season championships, and two Big Ten Conference Tournaments in 2001 and 2003.

Porter's playing career includes four seasons of collegiate soccer at the University of Indiana, where the former midfielder graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management. The San Jose Clash selected Porter in the third round with the 27th overall pick in the 1998 MLS College Draft. Porter spent the 1999 MLS season with the Clash before joining the A-league's Sacramento Geckos on loan for two matches that season. He went on to sign with the Tampa Bay Mutiny in July 1999 before knee injuries led to his retirement on June 30, 2000.

PABLO MOREIRAASSISTANT COACH

Pablo Moreira is in his first season as an Assistant Coach with the New England Revolution and his 10th season as an assistant in Major League Soccer. Moreira is a two-time MLS Cup champion over 339 matches in his career. During his time in MLS, Moreira has coached an MLS League MVP, MLS Cup MVP, Newcomer of the Year, Goalkeeper of the Year, seven MLS Best XI selections, and nine MLS All-Star Selections en route to 137 total career wins.

Prior to joining the Revolution, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach for the Columbus Crew from 2019-22. Moreira helped the club win the 2020 MLS Cup, becoming the youngest Assistant Coach in MLS history to win multiple MLS Cups – doing so with two different clubs in each conference. The next year, he helped lead Columbus to the 2021 Campeones Cup, the club's first international trophy, beating Liga MX Champions Cruz Azul.

Moreira, 39, entered the professional ranks as an Assistant Coach for the Portland Timbers from 2013-17. Moreira's first season with the Timbers included a 23-point improvement and a 43 goal-differential improvement from the previous season, securing a first-place finish in the Western Conference and the club's first postseason berth. Additionally, Moreira helped lead the Portland Timbers to their first MLS Cup championship in 2015, as well as Concacaf Champions League appearances in 2014 and 2016, Western Conference regular season first-place finishes in 2013 and 2017, and a Cascadia Cup in 2017.

Collegiately, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach / Video Analyst at the University of Akron from 2010-2012. During his three seasons with the Zips, Moreira posted a 55-6-9 record through 70 games. In addition, he garnered the No. 2 recruiting class in the nation in each of his first three years, producing 14 professionals into the MLS ranks during that span. In 2011, Akron set an MLS record for most first-round selections from a single school, landing five of the first eight picks during the MLS Super Draft.

CLINT PEAYASSISTANT COACH

Clint Peay is entering his first season as an Assistant Coach with the New England Revolution and his fifth season with the organization. Peay spent the last four years as the inaugural head coach of Revolution II, and briefly served as Interim Head Coach for the first team in 2023. The 20-year coaching veteran boasts an extensive background in player development that includes an eight-year tenure in the U.S. Youth National Team program and 10 years in the NCAA as both a head coach and assistant.

In his four seasons at the helm of Revolution II, Peay oversaw the professional debuts of 49 different players, including 29 products of the Revolution Academy, in both MLS NEXT Pro and USL League One. He helped lead the developmental team reach the MLS NEXT Pro Eastern Conference Championship in 2023, as Revolution II set single-season records for wins, points, and goals scored.

A proven winner at the game's highest levels, the Columbia, Md. native enjoyed a decorated playing career spanning a decade from his collegiate days at the University of Virginia (1991-95) through five MLS seasons with D.C. United (1996-2000). In his four years at Virginia, Peay won four straight NCAA Division I national titles and saw his Cavaliers rank first in the nation at the end of each of campaign. He preceded his college tenure at Oakland Mills High School, where he helped lead the school to a Maryland State Championship and a No. 1 national ranking as a senior. At the international level, Peay served as captain of the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team. He went on to compete for the United States in the 1995 Pan American Games and 1995 World University Games, before being named to the roster for the 1996 Summer Olympics.

BLAIR GAVINASSISTANT COACH

Blair Gavin is in his first season as an Assistant Coach with the New England Revolution. Hired on January 8, 2024 after one season as Head Coach of FC Tulsa in the USL Championship, Gavin, a former Revolution player, reunites with Caleb Porter after serving as an Assistant Coach on his staff in Columbus in 2022.

Gavin, 35, earned his first coaching opportunity in 2018 with Phoenix Rising FC after his retirement. The Phoenix, Ariz. native, who spent his final two seasons as a player with his hometown club from 2016-17, joined Patrice Carteron's staff at just 29 years old. In his first season coaching Phoenix, Gavin helped guide the club to a Western Conference Championship and its first berth in the USL Cup Final. In 2019, Gavin and Phoenix finished with the best regular season record in the USL Championship. In his final season with Phoenix in 2020, Gavin helped the club reach the USL Cup Final once again, though the championship match was cancelled due to health and safety protocols.

As a player, Gavin spent eight seasons as a midfielder in MLS and the USL. He was originally selected by Chivas USA as the 10th-overall pick in the 2010 MLS SuperDraft. In parts of three seasons with Chivas, Gavin appeared in 43 matches, scoring three goals. Midway through the 2012 season, he was acquired by the New England Revolution and went on to make two appearances for the club. After a brief spell with Seattle Sounders FC, Gavin made the move to the NASL with the Atlanta Silverbacks, followed by three years in the USL Championship with Portland Timbers 2 and Arizona United/Phoenix Rising FC, tallying 86 more appearances and five goals.

The former two-time First Team All-Mid-American Conference honoree played three seasons of collegiate soccer under Porter at the University of Akron before earning a Generation Adidas selection. Gavin scored seven goals over 68 games for the Zips, helping the team earn a berth in the 2009 College Cup Final.

KEVIN HITCHCOCKGOALKEEPERS COACH

Kevin Hitchcock is in his sixth season as Goalkeepers Coach with the New England Revolution after joining the club on April 30, 2019. Hitchcock brings nearly 25 years of coaching experience to Caleb Porter's staff, including time in the first divisions of England, Qatar, and India, as well as a decorated 18-year playing career in England.

In his five previous seasons coaching the Revolution's goalkeepers, Hitchcock oversaw the development of two of the best shotstoppers in league history in Matt Turner and Djordje Petrović, who helped the team to four playoff berths in the last five years. Both goalkeepers made major strides in their development under Hitchcock's tutelage, resulting in multi-million-dollar transfers to the English Premier League. At the time of Turner's move to Arsenal FC in 2021, it was the largest outgoing transfer fee for a goalkeeper in MLS history, a mark that Petrović beat when he made his move to Chelsea FC in 2023.

With Hitchcock as their mentor, Turner (2020 and 2021) and Petrović (2022) finished in the top five of MLS Goalkeeper of the Year voting in four consecutive seasons (2019-22), and placed in the top two three years in a row (2020-22). Turner was named the 2021 Allstate MLS Goalkeeper of the Year after the club's historic Supporters' Shield campaign, when the American international backstopped the Revolution to a league-record 73 points. In 2020, Turner finished second in the voting as New England reached the Eastern Conference Final, while setting a new club record for lowest goals-against average. Before joining the Revolution, Hitchcock, who owns a UEFA "A" Goalkeeper License and UEFA "B" Coaching License, spent the previous 18 years as a first-team goalkeeper coach, including nine seasons working with top-flight players in the English Premier League.

STAFF BIOS

CURT ONALFO
SPORTING DIRECTOR

Curt Onalfo is in his first season as Sporting Director of the New England Revolution, overseeing all aspects of the club's soccer operations including personnel, scouting, player development, and the pro pathway. After serving as Interim Sporting Director for part of 2023, Onalfo was elevated to the post on Nov. 30, 2023. He was previously New England's Technical Director since June 2019, where he led an overhaul of the Revolution's pro player pathway inclusive of Revolution II, the Revolution Academy, and the first team.

Since arriving in New England, Onalfo has helped the Revolution first team reach the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs in four of five seasons and win the 2021 Supporters' Shield with an MLS-record 73 regular season points. His expertise in player development has also resulted in a clearly defined pathway from the team's youth ranks up to the first team, accelerated by the launch of Revolution II under his direction ahead of its inaugural 2020 season. In its first four seasons, Revolution II provided the first professional minutes to 49 different players, including 29 current and former Revolution Academy players to make their pro debuts with the second team.

Onalfo, 54, has led a renaissance in the Revolution Academy since taking over the program midway through 2019. Under his guidance, the Revolution Academy became the first in MLS NEXT history to win back-to-back MLS NEXT Cup national championships, with the Under-19s winning the postseason tournament in 2022 and 2023. The Revolution Academy also featured the MLS NEXT Under-17 MVP in forward Olger Escobar. The success of New England's pro pathway under Onalfo is also evident in the influx of youthful Homegrown Players into the first team, including teenagers Noel Buck, Esmir Bajraktarevic, Jack Panayotou, all three of whom have garnered national team recognition. Buck, 18, started 20 MLS games in 2023 and earned multiple appearances with the England U-19 Youth National Team, while fellow 18-year-old Bajraktarevic is a fixture on the U.S. Under-23 Olympic Team for Paris 2024 and earned his senior national team cap in January 2024.

A native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Onalfo possesses New England roots as he was raised in Ridgefield, Conn. He arrived in New England following an extensive coaching and playing career in Major League Soccer and with the United States Men's National Team. He owns 13 years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by head coaching roles with D.C. United (2010), the Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017). While working as an Assistant Coach with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural Head Coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to become Head Coach of the Galaxy's first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an Assistant Coach with the United States Men's National Team. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 – including at the 2002 and 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup – and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 Men's National Team in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently assisted the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018 through May 2019, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup, and briefly served as Acting Head Coach of the U-19 side for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo entered the coaching ranks an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as Interim Head Coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed Head Coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons, compiling a 27-29-22 record, and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named Head Coach of D.C. United.

Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the 1996 MLS Inaugural Player Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in the league's debut season, helping it reach the first ever MLS Cup final. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four MLS seasons, including stints with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99).

CHRIS TIERNEY
ASSISTANT SPORTING DIRECTOR

Chris Tierney is in his first season as Assistant Sporting Director after being promoted to the position on January 8, 2024. Prior to his appointment, Tierney served two seasons as the club's Director of Soccer Operations from 2022-23 and was the club's Player Recruitment Manager from 2019-22. Tierney works in tandem with Sporting Director Curt Onalfo to manage the day-to-day operations of the club's soccer operations including a leading role in player scouting, contract negotiations, and salary cap management.

Tierney transitioned into the front office in August 2019 following a decorated 11-year playing career from 2008-18, all with the Revolution, and was long regarded as one of Major League Soccer's top left backs. He announced his retirement in November 2018, finishing his tenure as one of the club's all-time leaders in several statistical categories. Tierney still ranks among the club's top five for games played (246), games started (220), and assists (40).

As a player, the Wellesley, Mass. native helped New England to a 2008 North American SuperLiga title as well as appearances in the 2014 MLS Cup and 2016 U.S. Open Cup finals. Among his career accolades are an MLS All-Star Team selection in 2015, Revolution Defender of the Year honors in 2016, and Midnight Riders Man of the Year recognition in 2016.

Tierney played collegiately from 2004-08 at the University of Virginia. He currently resides in Charlestown, Mass. with his wife, Eliza, and their two children.

REMI ROY
TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Remi Roy is in his 15th season with the New England Revolution and his first as Technical Director, having been appointed to the position on January 8, 2024. Roy previously served as the club's Director of Scouting & Player Personnel since 2018, after initially joining the club as an assistant coach for eight seasons from 2010-17.

In his current role, Roy is focused on scouting, recruitment, and talent identification in players at the collegiate, national, and international levels. He works closely with the Sporting Director Curt Onalfo and Assistant Sporting Director Chris Tierney in player evaluation and has a role in all soccer-related aspects of the organization, including communication with agents and facilitating MLS communication and compliance.

Roy was heavily engaged in the Revolution's scouting operations throughout his tenure as an assistant coach, contributing to the club's domestic and international scouting efforts. As an assistant coach, first under Steve Nicol and then for six seasons on Jay Heaps' staff, he worked primarily with the club's first-team goalkeepers and provided additional training for the Revolution Academy goalkeepers.

During his time on the Revolution coaching staff, Roy mentored several talented goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in the professional ranks. In addition to coaching former Revolution goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy mentored longtime New England 'keeper Brad Knighton, and helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010.
