In his first season in charge of the Black & Gold, Cherundolo led the club to its second Supporters' Shield and its first MLS Cup. A finalist for the 2022 MLS Coach of the Year award, Cherundolo was just the second head coach in MLS history to win the Supporters' Shield as a first-year manager in the league, while leading the team to 21 regular season wins, which are the most ever for a first-year head coach in MLS.

On December 20, 2023, Cherundolo signed a multi-year extension with the Club.

One of the most decorated players in the history of the U.S. Men's National Team, Cherundolo spent more than 15 years playing in Germany's Bundesliga before beginning a coaching career in Germany that saw him spend time as a Bundesliga first-team assistant, and a youth development coach with the German National Team.

Cherundolo, 45, earned his prestigious UEFA Pro License in 2020 after ending a distinguished playing career that saw him become a Bundesliga legend in Germany for Hannover 96, as he appeared in 415 total matches, setting a record for the most appearances by an American for one Bundesliga club.

A Southern California native and 2021 inductee into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame, Cherundolo made 87 appearances for the U.S. National Team. He is one of 11 players in U.S. history to be named to three World Cup rosters (2002, 2006, 2010). Cherundolo played every minute at right back for the U.S. in the 2010 World Cup.

Known as "The Mayor of Hannover" for his service as the long-time captain for Hannover 96, Cherundolo began his coaching career developing talent in the Hannover youth system from 2014-2018 and served as the head coach for the U-17 squad. Cherundolo also worked as an assistant for Hannover's first team.

He joined the coaching staff of Bundesliga team VfB Stuttgart as an assistant in 2018, and then moved to coach in the German National Team youth system. Ahead of the 2021 USL Championship season, Cherundolo was named the head coach of LAFC's affiliate, the Las Vegas Lights.

Cherundolo starred at Mt. Carmel High School in the San Diego area and the La Jolla Nomads youth club before playing two seasons at the University of Portland. Cherundolo then joined Hannover 96 in 1999, making his debut in German football on Feb. 25, 1999 at the age of 19. He helped lead Hannover to the 2001-02 Bundesliga 2 championship, earning them promotion to the Bundesliga for the 2002-03 campaign.
