CREW KEY NOTABLES

- Over the last 38 home matches across all competitions, the Black & Gold have won 25 and only lost two contests (11 draws), dating back to the 2023 season. The Crew have also only lost one of their past 24 MLS regular season home matches (16-1-7). Thanks to the best supporters in MLS, the Columbus Crew at Lower.com Field have sold out 29 consecutive MLS home matches. The streak is the longest such stretch in club history (most recently: four in 2022), dating back to the 2023 MLS season.

- Through 25 matches, the Crew have earned 49 points (14-4-7), the Club's highest point total through 25 games. The most in Club history through 26 matches is 50 points in 2008.

- The 4-2 win against New York City FC on Aug. 31 marked the 35th time the Crew have scored multiple goals in MLS play (21 in 2023; 12 in 2024) since Wilfried Nancy took the helm in 2023. It's tied with LA Galaxy for the most in the league over that stretch. Columbus ranks second in goals per game (2.08).

- Since the beginning of the 2023 season, the Crew have scored four goals in a single game nine times (five in 2024, four in 2023). With five this season, the Black & Gold are tied for the most games recording four or more goals in a single season in Club history (1998).

- With 19 wins in 29 regular season matches at Lower.com Field, the Crew rank tied for second with LAFC in most home wins recorded since the 2023 MLS regular season (12 in 2023; 7 in 2024).

- Forward Cucho Hernández has recorded 37 goals and 57 goal contributions in his last 50 appearances across all competitions. Additionally, Hernández registered 52 goals in 84 matches for the Crew across all competitions. He currently ranks sixth in Club history for total goals.

- Forward Diego Rossi now has 10 goals and a personal-best 11 assists in MLS play this year. He became the fifth player in Club history with 10+ in both categories in a single season, joining Cucho Hernández (2023), Lucas Zelarayán (2022), Ethan Finlay (2015) and Jeff Cunningham (2001) as the only players to accomplish the feat. Additionally, Cucho Hernández is the first Crew player in Club history and 19th in MLS history to accomplish the feat twice in his MLS career, as well as the 16th to register it in back-to-back years.

2024 LEAGUES CUP NOTES

FINAL NOTABLES

- The Crew claimed their first Leagues Cup championship with a 3-1 win over LAFC in the Leagues Cup Final at Lower.com Field in Columbus, Ohio.
- The Crew are 6-0-2 all time in Leagues Cup play.
- Columbus became the first MLS club to play in three tournament finals in a span of nine months and won both contests played at home (MLS Cup 2023).
- With the victory, the Crew earned a bye into the 2025 Concacaf Champions Cup Round of 16. Columbus earned a bye into the Round of 16 last year following their 2023 league title and advanced to the Concacaf Champions Cup Final for the first time in Club history.
- Columbus paced Leagues Cup in goals per match (2.8). Despite playing in only five matches, the Crew finished second in goals with 14, trailing only LAFC (19 in 7 matches; 2.7 avg.).
- The Crew had two players – Forwards Diego Rossi (six goals) and Cucho Hernández (four goals) – finish tied for fourth or better in the 2024 Leagues Cup.

SEMIFINALS NOTABLES

- The Crew won 3-1 against the Philadelphia Union in the Leagues Cup Semifinals at Lower.com Field in Columbus, Ohio. With the win, the Crew earned a berth into the 2025 Concacaf Champions Cup.
- With the victory and berth into the Leagues Cup Final, the Columbus Crew are the first MLS club to reach three tournament finals (MLS Cup, Concacaf Champions Cup, Leagues Cup or US Open Cup) in a nine-month span and only the sixth to do so in a 12-month span.
- Forward Diego Rossi scored twice for the Crew to reach 18 goals across all competitions with the Crew in 2024. Rossi now has six goals in this year's edition of the Leagues Cup and sits tied first with LAFC's Denis Bouanga in the Golden Boot race despite the Club's bye into the Round of 32.
- Forward Cucho Hernández registered his 50th goal in 81 matches for the Crew across all competitions. He currently ranks sixth in Club history for total goals.

ROUND OF 16 NOTABLES

- The Crew won 3-2 against Inter Miami CF in the Leagues Cup Round of 16 match at Lower.com Field in Columbus, Ohio on Tuesday, Aug. 13.
- Columbus scored three unanswered goals in the second half to erase a 2-0 deficit during the victory. It marks the first time the Black & Gold won a match after trailing by two or more goals since the 2023 Eastern Conference Final overtime victory at FC Cincinnati and first time in regulation since a 3-2 result at Chiago Fire FC on July 9, 2022.
- Forward Christian Ramirez scored for Columbus, marking his third Leagues Cup goal dating back to last year's inaugural tournament.
- Forward Diego Rossi scored the leveler and the go-ahead goal. Despite the Crew playing in only two tournament matches compared to most teams' four, the Uruguayan is tied for second in the 2024 Leagues Cup Golden Boot with four goals.

QUARTERFINALS NOTABLES

- The Crew won 4-3 in a penalty shootout against New York City FC after a 1-1 draw in regulation in the Leagues Cup Quarterfinals match at Lower.com Field in Columbus, Ohio.
- The shootout win marks the Club's first win in penalties during Leagues Cup after falling to Minnesota United during the Round of 32 last year.
- The Black & Gold advanced to the Leagues Cup Semifinals for the first time and host the Philadelphia Union on Wednesday, Aug. 21 at Lower.com Field at 7:30 p.m. ET.
- Forward Cucho Hernández scored the leveler in the first half, recording his 31st goal and 43rd goal contribution in his last 41 appearances across all competitions.

ROUND OF 32 NOTABLES

- The Crew won 4-0 against Sporting Kansas City in the Leagues Cup Round of 32 match at Lower.com Field in Columbus, Ohio on Friday, Aug. 9.
- The Crew tied a team-best of four goals in Leagues Cup play in their 4-0 win against Sporting Kansas City, matching their 4-1 win against Club America in last year's Group Stage.
- Forward Diego Rossi scored twice for Columbus, becoming the first Crew player to register a multi-goal game in Leagues Cup.
- In his Crew debut against Sporting Kansas City, Defender DeJuan Jones recorded his first goal for the Black & Gold, marking the fastest goal by a Crew player in their Club debut across all competitive matches, only 20 seconds after being substituted in.
- Midfielder Dylan Chambost scored his first goal in his official Club debut against Sporting Kansas City.

The Crew had two players – Forwards Diego Rossi (six goals) and Cucho Hernández (four goals) – finish tied for fourth or better in the 2024 Leagues Cup.

Columbus became the first MLS club to play in three tournament finals in a span of nine months and won both contests played at home (MLS Cup 2023; Leagues Cup 2024).

Columbus has allowed just 70 goals since the start of 2023, the third-best mark in MLS over that timeframe.

As of September 2, the Crew rank first overall in the Concacaf Club Ranking Index, making them one of just three MLS clubs in the top 10 and the only MLS club in the top five.

LEADING THE CREW

On June 6, 2024, the Crew named Issa Tall the Club's sixth full-time General Manager. Tall is the fourth Black General Manager in MLS history. With back-to-back Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year Award finalist Head Coach Wilfried Nancy, Columbus is the first team in league annals led on the technical side by two Black men. In global soccer, Columbus is currently the only team in MLS and among the top-five European soccer leagues to feature a Black head coach and chief soccer officer (ex: technical/sporting director or general manager). Additionally, Crew 2 in March promoted Kelvin Jones to head coach. Jones joined the Club in 2017 and previously served as an Academy Coach (2017-2020), Academy Director (2020-2023) and UPSL Head Coach, Assistant Academy Director (2023-2024).

CREW DEBUTS

Homegrown midfielder Taha Habroune made his official MLS debut by starting against Real Salt Lake (April 13), becoming the first player in Club history to progress through and play for the Academy, Crew 2, and the First Team.

Goalkeeper Nicholas Hagen made his MLS debut against Real Salt Lake (April 13) and contributed to a clean sheet after entering the match for Evan Bush in the 35th minute. Hagen registered five saves, the most saves in a game for the Crew this season. Hagen earned his first MLS start on July 17 against Charlotte FC, recording four saves.

Defenders Andres Herrera and Dejuan Jones and midfielder Dylan Chambost started in their regular season Crew debuts against Philadelphia Union on August 28. Midfielder AZ Jackson also made his first start for the Black & Gold in the 1-0 win.

ISSA TALL - GENERAL MANAGER

Tall, named the Crew's sixth full-time General Manager on June 6, 2024, joined the Crew as Assistant General Manager of Player Personnel & Strategy in 2019 and has significantly impacted Club-wide personnel decisions and long-term planning during the past six campaigns. He also oversaw the team's scouting, player personnel and analytics processes in his previous position.

In his tenure, the Crew claimed two MLS Cups in the past four seasons (2020 and 2023) and won the 2021 Campeones Cup. In 2024, the Club reached its first Concacaf Champions Cup Final after becoming the only MLS side in tournament history to defeat two Liga MX clubs (Tigres UANL and CF Monterrey) in the knockout rounds on the path to the championship match.

Tall served an integral role in the Club's hiring of Head Coach Wilfried Nancy in December 2022, as well as the Club's acquisition of top international talent while emphasizing the importance of elevating player performance throughout the Crew organization. In 2023, the Crew and Nancy, a back-to-back finalist for the Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year Award, lifted the MLS Cup; tied a franchise record with 57 points (third in the MLS Supporters' Shield); posted a MLS-best 67 regular season goals, their first time pacing the league in the category; and led the league and set Club standards in many major statistical categories for performance at home.

The success in 2023 occurred following one of the Crew's most active summer transfer windows, highlighted by the incoming transfers of 2020 MLS Golden Boot winner Diego Rossi and Yevhen Cheberko, the outgoing transfer of Lucas Zelarayán and trades for Julian Gressel and Rudy Camacho. The Crew also received tremendous contributions from talent developed within the Club: Homegrown Midfielder Aidan Morris, a 2023 MLS All-Star and Under 22 presented by BODYARMOR selection; 2022 MLS NEXT Pro Goalkeeper of the Year Patrick Schulte and Homegrown Midfielder/Defender Sean Zawadzki, who both received their first U.S. Men's National Team call-ups; and 2022 MLS NEXT Pro Best XI Defender Mohamed Farsi. performance at home.

Tall's contributions were paramount as the Crew executed the highest-profile transfers in club history to land 2020 MLS Cup MVP and 2021 MLS All-Star Lucas Zelarayán in 2020 from Liga MX's Tigres UANL; 2023 MLS Cup MVP and MLS Best XI Forward Cucho Hernández from the English Premier League's Watford F.C. in 2022; and Rossi from Turkish Süper Lig side Fenerbahçe S.K during the 2023 summer transfer window. He also fostered the Club's trade with Atlanta United in 2020 to acquire 2022 MLS All-Star and Captain Darlington Nagbe, one of the most respected players and decorated champions in MLS history.

Last year, Crew 2 also claimed back-to-back Eastern Conference championships after winning the inaugural MLS NEXT Pro Cup in 2022, while the Crew Academy was named the 2023 MLS Mark Abbott Club Awards Academy of the Year by its peers.

Additionally, Tall has been pivotal to ensuring Crew players, coaches, technical staff and their family members have top-notch resources and amenities to succeed on and off the pitch, particularly with his oversight to establish the OhioHealth Performance Center in June 2021.

Prior to Columbus, Tall gained critical experience at FIFA's Headquarters in Zurich (2016-2019), where he worked in the Federation's Team Services and Competition Department – the group responsible for organizing the World Cup and other FIFA competitions. He was a primary liaison for all international delegations participating in major FIFA tournaments, including the 2018 World Cup in Russia, the 2016 Olympic Games in Brazil and the 2018 FIFA Club World Cup in the United Arab Emirates. Additionally, he led the revision and implementation of the current FIFA World Rankings.

Tall established a strong foundation in Major League Soccer as a key contributor to Toronto FC's Player Personnel and Scouting Department (2014-15) and MLS Headquarters' the Player Competition Department in 2013]. With TFC, he directed the formation of the Club's scouting and analytics processes and resources.

A native of Mulhouse, France, Tall graduated from Adelphi University, where he made 41 appearances and posted 24 goals from 2009-2011 before working as an assistant coach. Prior to his college career, Tall competed with RC Strasbourg Academy and helped the club win the French National Cup in 2006 and two Regional Championships 2003 and 2004.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH WILFRIED NANCY

Wilfried Nancy joined the Crew on Dec. 6, 2022 as the eighth full-time head coach in Crew history.

In his first season with the Black & Gold, Nancy led the team to win the 2023 MLS Cup in a 2-1 victory over LAFC on December 9. In the same season, Nancy was a finalist to the 2023 Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year award.

Nancy earned much success throughout his first season leading the Black & Gold. In their first season together, Nancy lifted the MLS Cup; tied a franchise record with 57 points (third in the MLS Supporters' Shield); posted a MLS-best 67 regular season goals, their first time pacing the league in the category; and led the league and set Club standards in many major statistical categories for performance at home.

Previously, Nancy served as head coach for CF Montreal during the 2021 and 2022 seasons. In 2022, Nancy led Montreal to a club-best, regular-season record of 20-9-5. With 65 total points, Montreal finished second in the Eastern Conference and third overall in MLS, just two points shy of the Supporters' Shield winners. Montreal's 20 wins were second overall in the league, and his team finished in the top five for goals scored (63). Montreal went unbeaten in eight matches from mid-March to mid-May, and again from mid-July to late August.

Nancy finished second in voting for the 2022 MLS Sigi Schmid Coach of the Year award, just one-tenth of a percentage point behind Philadelphia Union's Jim Curtin.

In 2011, Nancy joined Montreal's Academy and over the course of 10 years, held head coaching roles for the U-18s (2011-13), the U-21s (2014), and the U-16s (2014-15) before being elevated to First Team assistant in January of 2016, a role he held until being promoted to head coach. He holds USSF Pro, UEFA A and Canadian Soccer Association A licenses. In 2014, he obtained the Elite Formation Coaching License (EFCL) diploma.

Born in France, Nancy had a professional playing career that spanned 10 years. From 1995-2005, the defender represented French clubs Sporting Club Toulon, Beaucairois, Raon-l'Étape, Ivry, Noisy-le-Sec, Chatellerauld and Orleans.

On April 17, previous President and General Manager Tim Bezbatchenko announced that the Crew and Nancy agreed to a contract extension.

CREW

ABOUT CREW 2

Columbus Crew 2 – Columbus Crew’s Second Team – compete in MLS NEXT Pro and play their home matches at Historic Crew Stadium, the first soccer-specific stadium in the United States. A developmental team promoting community involvement, Crew 2 connects the Black & Gold player pathway, which begins with Crew Academy and ends with the Crew’s First Team. Crew 2 finished the inaugural MLS NEXT Pro season with the best regular season record and captured the first-ever MLS NEXT Pro Cup on Oct. 8, 2022. In 2023, Crew 2 again claimed the Eastern Conference championship, earning the right to host the MLS NEXT Pro Cup at Lower.com Field for the second consecutive season. The Capys are led by Crew 2 Head Coach Kelvin Jones.
