TEAM NOTES VS. SEA

Against Seattle

The Quakes are currently 15-15-9 (45 GF, 55 GA) in the all-time series against the Sounders with a 7-10-14 (21 GF, 37 GA) away record.

San Jose's last triumph in Seattle occurred on May 31, 2023 in a 1-0 margin set by forward Jeremy Ebobisse's goal in the 48th minute.

Cristian Espinoza has proven to be a threat to the Sounders' defense with six goals and four assists across 13 appearances. However, Raul Ruidiaz has found the back of the net nine times in 13 games against the Black and Blue.

Last Time We Met

The Earthquakes defeated the Seattle Sounders 3-2 at PayPal Park on March 23 to earn their first victory of the season. Vitor Costa opened the scoring in the 42nd minute and Cristian Espinoza doubled the lead one minute later in the 43rd. Raul Ruidiaz netted a penalty kick in the 72nd and Danny Musovski equalized in the 81st. However, the draw was short-lived due to an 82nd minute game-winning goal by Jeremy Ebobisse.

Honoring History

The San Jose Earthquakes and Seattle Sounders FC, both founded in 1974, are celebrating their 50th anniversaries this season. During the NASL era, the Quakes record against the Sounders was 9-10-5 across 24 matches from 1974-83.

Climbing the Ranks

Seattle GK Stefan Frei reached the second-place rank on all-time clean sheets (113) with a 2-0 win against Sporting Kansas City on Sept. 15. Two former Quakes goalkeepers hold top 10 positions - Joe Cannon in fifth place (86) and Jon Busch in seventh place (83).

Heritage Cup

Wednesday's contest concludes the 16th edition of the Heritage Cup, an annual competition between the Earthquakes and Sounders FC based on their regular-season games. The Quakes are the reigning champions, keeping the silverware for three consecutive seasons. Since the tradition started in 2009, San Jose has possessed the trophy seven times, while Seattle has owned it for eight.

Century Club

Forward Cristian Espinoza's goal against Real Salt Lake on Aug. 24 marked his 100th goal contribution in an Earthquakes uniform in MLS regular-season play (32g/68a). Only Chris Wondolowski (207) and Ronald Cerritos (108) have achieved this in club history.

Top Trio

Cristian Espinoza's goal against Real Salt Lake on Aug. 24 officially tied him with Jeremy Ebobisse and Landon Donovan for third most goals in club history (32). A goal Wednesday would propel him to the sole possession of third place on the team list.

Consistency is Key

Cristian Espinoza extended his run to a league-high MLS consecutive-game streak 103 with his start against Vancouver Whitecaps FC on Sept. 14. Jeremy Ebobisse held the second-longest MLS consecutive-game streak (99) before ending his run on Aug. 24, due to injury.

First Blood

San Jose is 4-5-1 in MLS play when scoring first this season. They are 7-6-1 in all competitions when netting initially.

PLAYER NOTES

PLAYER MILESTONES:

- Cristian Espinoza currently has 14 career game-winning goals, two away from tying Ronald Cerritos for second most in club history (15).
- Cristian Espinoza's latest assist, his 11th of the season, has extended his all-time club assist record to 68.
- Cristian Espinoza has now tied Jeremy Ebobisse and Landon Donovan for third most goals (32) in club history.
- Cristian Espinoza has now passed Richard Mulrooney and Shea Salinas (14) for the most game-winning assists in club history (15).
- Jeremy Ebobisse's five multi-goal games are two away from tying Landon Donovan for third most in club history (7).
- Jackson Yueill has passed Shea Salinas for third in most games started for the Quakes at 190, trailing only Ramiro Corrales (228), and Chris Wondolowski (313).

Ian Russell - Interim Head Coach

Ian Russell was elevated to interim head coach on Monday, June 24. Russell made 134 appearances in MLS between 2000-07, including 131 for San Jose between 2000-05, helping the Earthquakes win MLS Cup championships in 2001 and 2003 and a Supporters' Shield in 2005. The Seattle native then served as an assistant coach for the Quakes from 2008-16, which included a second Supporters' Shield in 2012. Russell was named head coach of the Earthquakes' then-USL affiliate Reno 1868 FC ahead of their inaugural season in 2017 and spent four years at the helm with Reno. Russell most recently served as an assistant coach with Toronto FC in 2021.

Steve Ralston - Assistant Coach

Steve Ralston originally joined the Earthquakes as an assistant coach in 2015 after four years in the same capacity with Houston Dynamo FC. He took over as interim head coach of the Quakes for the final six games of 2018. After three years away, he returned to San Jose as an interim assistant coach in 2022. A native of St. Louis, Ralston retired from Major League Soccer in 2010 as the league's all-time leader in assists (135), games played (378), starts (372), and minutes (33,143). He played in four MLS Cup finals for New England and was named an MLS All-Star seven times. He received MLS Best XI recognition three times during his 15-year playing career.

Luciano Fusco - Assistant Coach

Luciano Fusco is in his third season with San Jose as an assistant coach after assisting under interim head coach Alex Covelo during the final 27 matches of the 2022 season. He previously held roles as an assistant coach with Quakes II in MLS NEXT Pro and as a head coach in the Quakes Academy. Prior to joining the Earthquakes in 2018, Fusco served as a head coach in the LAFC Academy and as an assistant coach for UCLA men's soccer team from 2016-2018, where he worked with future Quakes and U.S. National Team midfielder Jackson Yueill. He also earned four coaching invites with the U.S. U-16 National Team.

Adin Brown - Goalkeeper Coach

Adin Brown returns to the Earthquakes as goalkeeper coach. Brown most recently served as goalkeeper coach for Chicago Fire FC (2020-22). Prior to joining Chicago, Brown was goalkeeper coach for the Portland Timbers (2015-17) and Timbers2 (2018-19), helping the club win its first MLS Cup in 2015. He was also goalkeeper coach for the University of Portland men's soccer team from 2013-15. Brown, a native of Pleasant Hill, California, and graduate of De La Salle High School, attended the College of William and Mary and was just the third goalkeeper in NCAA history to be named a First-Team All-American twice. He was also the United States' starting keeper throughout qualification for the 2000 Summer Olympics but missed the final competition due to injury.

QUOTABLE VS. VANCOUVER WHITECAPS FC

EARTHQUAKES INTERIM HEAD COACH IAN RUSSELL

On the team's effort tonight:

"We started the game decent, had some good energy. We played three at the back to try to deal with their two forwards. They have dangerous players there, and we struggled a bit with some runs from midfield. They were getting beyond us. We tried a few tactical switches during the game and created some chances. [Ousseni] Bouda had a good chance; he was offside. We didn't generate enough in attack and were defending a lot."

EARTHQUAKES DEFENDER PAUL MARIE

On looking ahead to the midweek match against Seattle Sounders FC:

"Tonight, the mentality was not right. We know it. We were supposed to be on the front foot and we were not. We definitely need to shift our focus on Seattle and come out at 200%."

On areas of improvement:

"We're not clinical enough. I think we need to keep the ball better, and we need to hurt them more. We were not able to tonight. I think we ran a lot defensively and just used a lot of energy where we were trying to press a lot. We were not doing great with that. ... When you get to the final third, we need to do way better. We need to work on it."
