HEAD COACH GREG VANNEY

The LA Galaxy announced in January 2021 that the club named Greg Vanney Head Coach. Vanney, 50, began his professional career as a player with the LA Galaxy and returns as Head Coach after a six-year stint as Toronto FC's Manager in which he became the only coach to capture an MLS Treble by winning MLS Cup, the MLS Supporters' Shield and the Canadian Championship during the 2017 season.

Vanney stepped down as Toronto FC manager following the 2020 MLS Season as both the most successful and longest-tenured coach in Toronto FC's history with every major club record, including total wins (112) and games coached (250). In all, Vanney recorded an 87-68-48 MLS Regular Season record and a 10-5-2 MLS postseason record while being named MLS Coach of the Year and Concacaf Coach of the Year in 2017. As Toronto FC's coach, the former Galaxy defender helped lead his side to the MLS Cup Playoffs in five of the previous six seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020), while making appearances in three MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017, 2019) and the Concacaf Champions League Final (2018). He also helped his side capture three-straight Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

As a player, Vanney made 270 total MLS Regular Season appearances, including 193 as a member of the LA Galaxy, tied with Todd Dunivant for the sixth-most appearances of any player in LA Galaxy history and trailing only Cobi Jones (306), Landon Donovan (253), Kevin Hartman (243), Mauricio Cienfuegos (206) and A.J. De-LaGarza (204). With LA, Vanney helped lead the club to a Supporters' Shield (1998), CONCACAF Champions' Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2001) while being named to the MLS Best XI twice (2000, 2001) and earning honors as LA Galaxy Defender of the Year (2001). He also made an additional 32 MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including 26 postseason appearances with the Galaxy.

Vanney began his professional playing career after being drafted by the Galaxy from UCLA with the 17th overall selection in the 1996 MLS College Draft. During his time as a professional, Vanney represented the Galaxy, FC Dallas, Colorado Rapids and D.C. United in Major League Soccer while also playing a stint for Bastia in France. He also earned 11 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, making his debut in 1996 before later featuring in the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup Championship and 2006 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Following his retirement after the 2008 MLS season, Vanney served as the Real Salt Lake Youth Academy Director from 2008-2011 before joining Chivas USA as an assistant coach from 2011-2012. Vanney originally joined Toronto FC as the club's assistant general manager and academy director in 2013 before being named head coach and technical director on August 31, 2014.

NOTABLE QUOTES

LA GALAXY HEAD COACH GREG VANNEY

On his thoughts on the game:

"I thought -- it was an intriguing game I thought because they sat so low for good stretches. When they extended themselves they didn't win a lot balls high, but when they sat so low and just really kind of bogged us down and were able to keep us in front of them so much. We made probably three, maybe four big mistakes and got punished for those decisions and those mistakes. And we spent a lot of the game trying to figure out how to turn possessions into a chance. And, yeah, I mean, at 3-1 felt like it was going to be difficult. We were trying to make some subs and trying to get some guys into positions where we could whip some balls in the box, do something to try to create some numbers up in the box and some action ahead of the ball so that we could try to find a way to break through the wall they had set up there. Yeah, proud of the guys that came on and kept working through it. These games are crazy always, so, in a rivalry game or any game you never give up. These games specifically have always had a way to have some crazy in them. Didn't disappoint there at the end.

I saw some things as we were sitting on the side like trying to get Mauricio in because he's such a good server of the ball in those wide positions, trying to get extra body up there up top, you know, whether it was Christian or Nasci, just trying to get another guy up. A lot of times Jesus was sometimes dropping in and looking like a back five and sometimes he would step out, but whenever he went into a back five we just didn't have numbers up against him. It was an interesting game. I found it tactically intriguing. Again, there wasn't a ton of shots in the game overall, but the ones that were taken, a lot went in the goals, so made for an interesting night. The intensity was there for the fans and I think it was -- yeah, I'm glad our guys kept fighting to the end and they found a way through."

On the response from his team following the loss to Austin FC:

"Yeah, I thought, again, it was an interesting game because I think when a game -- when a team sits like that on you and they're very comfortable doing that, it takes a little bit of the intensity out of the game at times, versus two teams that are pressing and going at each other. But definitely thought the intensity was there. It was just hard sometimes I think to see it because the way the game played out through stretches of the game. Obviously in transition they're so good. You make a mistake or bad decision in transition and it's costly. I thought when the game continued and pressed on, yeah, I felt like -- I think the concentration and the appropriate intensity was there, but obviously it got to a different level of passion and intensity down the stretch. That was -- you don't always want to be on that edge, but as I said to our guys we need to be on the edge today. We need to be smart and not get over the edge, but we need to be on the edge, have kind of derby intensity in ourselves, and I think it came to life as the game continue to do progress."
