STEVE CHERUNDOLO

Manager

Steve Cherundolo was named as Head Coach of LAFC on January 3, 2022, becoming the second coach in Club history.

His three seasons in charge of the Black & Gold have seen the club win both the Supporters' Shield and MLS Cup in 2022, the Western Conference Championship in 2022 and 2023 as well as the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup in 2024, while also reaching the Concacaf Champions League Final and MLS Cup Final in 2023 and the Leagues Cup Final in 2024. Cherundolo has a 54-27-21 record in MLS regular season play and an 8-3-1 record in the MLS Cup Playoffs during his three seasons with the club. He is the only coach in MLS history to lead his team to the Concacaf Champions League Final and the MLS Cup Final in the same calendar year, and just the third coach to reach the MLS Cup Final in each of his first two seasons as a head coach.

In three years in charge of LAFC, Cherundolo has led the club to an 80-37-27 record in all competitions, helping the club win five trophies and reach seven finals.

A finalist for the 2022 MLS Coach of the Year award, Cherundolo was just the second head coach in MLS history to win the Supporters' Shield as a first-year manager in the league, and is the only coach in league history to win the Supporters' Shield and MLS Cup in his first season. He led LAFC to 21 regular season wins in 2022, which are the most-ever for a first-year head coach in MLS. In June 2023, Cherundolo coached his 50th regular-season game, setting a league record with 29 wins in that time, and in September 2024, he recorded the 50th regular-season win of his coaching career, coming in his 98th game on the sidelines. That made him the seventh fastest coach to reach 50 wins in MLS history, and the second fastest since the elimination of the shootout ahead of the 2000 season.

One of the most decorated players in the history of the U.S. Men's National Team, Cherundolo spent more than 15 years playing in Germany's Bundesliga, before beginning a coaching career in Germany that saw him spend time as a Bundesliga first-team assistant, youth-team head coach and a position in the German National Team youth development program.

Cherundolo, 46, earned his prestigious UEFA Pro License in 2020 after a distinguished playing career that saw him set a record for the most appearances by an American for one club, playing 415 times for German club Hannover 96.

On December 20, 2023, Cherundolo signed a multi-year extension with the Club.

A Southern California native and 2021 inductee into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame, Cherundolo made 87 appearances for the U.S. National Team, including becoming one of 11 players in U.S. history to be named to three FIFA World Cup rosters (2002, 2006, and 2010.) Cherundolo played every minute at right back for the U.S. in the 2010 World
