POSTGAME QUOTES

Bruce Arena

On drawing positives from the night despite the result:

"The positive there is our team never quit. I thought our second half performance was better. However, we squandered too many chances on the night. We had a number of good goalscoring opportunities, and we ended up only with one goal and it was on a penalty kick, so we got to accept responsibility for playing so poorly on those two parts of the field."

"We continued to try to push the game and get back in the game. Obviously the fourth goal was a killer. But our guys never quit. On the night, we need to be better than scoring one goal off a penalty kick. ... Defensively, we clearly made a couple mistakes that hurt us. On the night, Charlotte deserved to win. They were the better team. But there were some good moments for us, and we have to build on that, but there are things we need to clean up before we play next Saturday."

On overall thoughts of the game:

"Obviously, not happy with the result of the game. I think we started the game pretty well and created some chances. If we put some in the back of the net, maybe we could ease the pressure a little bit that they were coming with. We know they're a team that likes to break out in transition. Today we didn't deal with it properly and got punished."

On bouncing back and responding next Saturday against Seattle:

"It's a long season. We understand some games aren't going to go the way we planned, so we need to continue to do the right work when we go back to the training field, watch film and just push ourselves to keep a high standard. Obviously this is not how we want things to go. We will bounce back. We have a good group of guys here and we trust in the coaching staff. It's part of the long season and I have full confidence in the team."

MLS NEXT PRO TO FIRST TEAM

Last season, the attacking midfielder was a fixture on San Jose's MLS NEXT Pro team, The Town FC, scoring five goals and making 24 appearances (23 starts) in the regular season and postseason combined. In his first-team debut on Feb. 22 against Real Salt Lake, he assisted an early Jamar Ricketts goal to open the scoring.

NEW IN THE BLACK & BLUE

Seven players have made their Quakes debut in 2025. Chicho Arango, Ian Harkes, Mark-Anthony Kaye, Josef Martínez and Dave Romney. Two players also made their MLS debut - Reid Roberts in last weekend's match against Charlotte FC and Beau Leroux, who tallied an assist in the Quakes' season opener against Real Salt Lake.

RETURN OF ARENA

Bruce Arena has made his head coaching return to MLS. Arena is the winningest coach in the league and U.S. Men's National Team history. Community Highlights

La Bombonera

Quakes forward Cristian Espinoza visits a mural in his likeness on the exterior wall of La Bombonera indoor soccer complex and speaks to youth soccer players.

America Scores

"Our partnership strengthened because the Earthquakes had the right people in position who understood the mission alignment and value of working with America SCORES," said Angela Bailey, SCORES Director of Corporate and Community Engagement. "The Quakes' involvement goes beyond financial support. They have actively participated in various aspects of SCORES programs, including volunteering, sending their players to events to inspire the kids, and providing access to games through their Tickets for Kids program."

Quakes Unified

The Quakes Special Olympics Unified Team consists of 23 players, ages 16-25, both with and without intellectual disabilities. Partnering with Special Olympics Northern California, the Unified game aims to provide athletes of all ability levels the chance to play and be part of a team while learning skills such as being a good teammate, winning with grace and encouraging others to carry positivity into their everyday lives.

Quakes Community Coaching Course

In collaboration with Positive Coaching Alliance (PCA), the Quakes Foundation will select a limited number of applicants from diverse backgrounds across the Bay Area to join the six-month course beginning in April 2025. The goal of the program is to educate, motivate, and financially support underrepresented coaches. Participants will receive personalized training from Quakes Academy coaches and Club Ambassador Shea Salinas. The curriculum will cover key topics such as developing style of play, building a positive team culture, season planning, and creating progressive training sessions.

El Camino Health

The San Jose Earthquakes announce El Camino Health as their new kit sponsor. The partnership will work to improve the health and well-being of the Bay Area. El Camino Health will also be the official partner of Get EQ Fit, a program designed to help kids stay active and live a healthy lifestyle.

BRUCE ARENA

SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

Bruce Arena is the winningest coach in MLS and U.S. Men's National Team history. The 2025 season will mark his 20th season coaching at domestic club level, with stops at the New England Revolution (2019-23), LA Galaxy (2008-16), New York Red Bulls (2006-07) and D.C. United (1996-98).

Arena has raised the MLS Cup an unprecedented five times (1996, 1997, 2011, 2012, 2014), the Supporters' Shield four times (1997, 2010, 2011, 2021), the Concacaf Champions Cup (1998), the Copa Interamericana (1998) and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup (1996). He has won the most regular-season games (264) and postseason games (35) in MLS history and been named MLS Sigi Schmid Coach of the Year a record four times (1997, 2009, 2011, 2021).

At the international level, he led the U.S. Men's National Team to heights previously unseen in the modern era. During his tenure in charge, the USMNT reached two FIFA World Cups (1998, 2002) — making the quarterfinals for the first time in 72 years in 2002 — while winning the Concacaf Gold Cup three times (2002, 2005, 2017) and finishing as the team's career leader in victories (81).

Arena, a native of Long Island, New York, also won five NCAA national championships (1988, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994) during his time as head coach at the University of Virginia from 1978-95.

COACHING STAFF

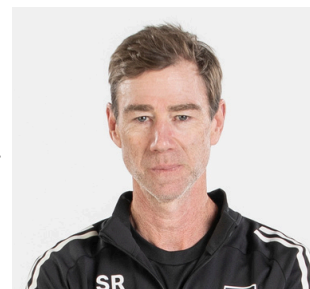

Dave Sarachan - arrives in San Jose as an accomplished leader in his own right, having won the MLS Coach of the Year award (2003), the Supporters' Shield (2003) and the U.S. Open Cup twice (2003, 2006) as head coach of Chicago Fire FC from 2002-07. Most recently, he was an assistant coach for Maccabi Tel Aviv, winning the Israeli Premier League and qualifying for the UEFA Champions League in his lone season with the Yellows (2023-24). Sarachan will be reuniting with Arena for the sixth time, having previously served as an assistant coach on his staff at club level with the Galaxy (2008-16) and D.C. United (1997-99), as well as for two different eras on the U.S. Men's National Team (1999-2002, 2017) and the University of Virginia (1984-87). Alongside Arena, Sarachan has won four MLS Cups (1998, 2011, 2012, 2014), two Supporters' Shields (2010, 2011), one Concacaf Champions Cup (1998), one Copa Interamericana (1998) and two Concacaf Gold Cups (2002, 2017). During that second spell with the USMNT, Sarachan succeeded Arena as interim head coach (2017-18). A native of Rochester, New York, Sarachan possesses further head coaching experience with the Puerto Rico national team (2021-22), North Carolina FC in USL Championship (2018-20) and collegiately at Cornell University (1988-97).

Shalrie Joseph - will also be joining Arena for the second time after serving as his assistant coach in New England (2022-23) and as an assistant for the club's Supporters' Shield-winning campaign in 2021 while coaching various age groups in the Revolution Academy (2020-22). A native of Grenada who earned 20 caps and scored one goal with them as a player, Joseph took the helm as head coach of his national team from 2018-19. He eventually led The Spice Boys toward qualification for the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup and promotion to League A in the 2019-20 Concacaf Nations League. As a standout midfielder who played 13 MLS seasons (2003-15) — 11 with the Revolution — Joseph was selected eight consecutive times for the MLS All-Star Game (2004-11) and received four MLS Best XI nods (2005, 2007-09). In New England, he was teammates with current Quakes assistants Steve Ralston and Adin Brown, with the full trio overlapping from 2003-04. Joseph, a St. John's University alum, ended up playing in three MLS Cup finals (2005-07) for the Revs, capturing the North American SuperLiga in 2008 as well as the U.S. Open Cup in 2007.

Steve Ralston - Assistant Coach Steve Ralston originally joined the Earthquakes as an assistant coach in 2015 after four years in the same capacity with Houston Dynamo FC. He took over as interim head coach of the Quakes for the final six games of 2018. After three years away, he returned to San Jose as an interim assistant coach in 2022. A native of St. Louis, Ralston retired from Major League Soccer in 2010 as the league's all-time leader in assists (135), games played (378), starts (372), and minutes (33,143). He played in four MLS Cup finals for New England and was named an MLS All-Star seven times. He received MLS Best XI recognition three times during his 15-year playing career.

Adin Brown - Goalkeeper Coach Adin Brown returns to the Earthquakes as goalkeeper coach. Brown most recently served as goalkeeper coach for Chicago Fire FC (2020-22). Prior to joining Chicago, Brown was goalkeeper coach for the Portland Timbers (2015-17) and Timbers2 (2018-19), helping the club win its first MLS Cup in 2015. He was also goalkeeper coach for the University of Portland men's soccer team from 2013-15. Brown, a native of Pleasant Hill, California, and graduate of De La Salle High School, attended the College of William and Mary and was just the third goalkeeper in NCAA history to be named a First-Team All-American twice. He was also the United States' starting keeper throughout qualification for the 2000 Summer Olympics but missed the final competition due to injury.
