MATCH NOTES

- Seattle Sounders FC hosts Vancouver Whitecaps FC on Saturday, September 27 on the Emerald Queen Casino Pitch at Lumen Field (7:30 p.m. PT / Apple TV, 93.3 KJR FM, SiriusXM FC 157, El Rey 1360 AM).

- Seattle currently sits in fifth place in the Western Conference with 45 points (12-9-9), most recently coming off a 2-1 road loss to Austin FC on September 21. Vancouver is in second place in the West with 56 points (16-6-8).

- The two sides met earlier this year on June 8 at Lumen Field, a 3-0 win for Vancouver. Seattle leads the all-time MLS regular season series 18-11-10, including a 10-5-4 record at Lumen Field.

- Seattle can clinch a spot in the Audi 2025 MLS Cup Playoffs with a win or a draw against Vancouver, as well as additional scenarios outlined on page six.

- Dating back to 1974 in the NASL, Seattle and Vancouver have played 155 times, with the Sounders leading the series 74-54-27.

- Saturday also marks the third match for Seattle in the 2025 Cascadia Cup race. The Rave Green currently sit in last place in the standings with one point. Portland is in second with two points, while Vancouver leads the race for the regional title with seven points. Seattle's last Cascadia Cup match is scheduled for October 4 against the Portland Timbers at Lumen Field.

- Baker-Whiting (USA) and Obed Vargas (Mexico) have both been called up to their national teams for the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup, taking place in Chile from September 27 - October 20.

- Following Saturday's match, the Rave Green host Cascadia rival Portland Timbers on Saturday, October 4 on the Emerald Queen Casino Pitch at Lumen Field (7:30 p.m. PT / Apple TV, iHeartMedia Seattle, El Rey 1360 AM).

SOUNDERS FC WEEKLY NOTES

DECADES OF DOMINANCE

One of the fiercest rivalries in North American soccer reignites in 2025 when Seattle takes on Vancouver Whitecaps FC on September 27. Sounders FC is 18-11-10 all-time against Whitecaps FC in MLS regular-season play. The Seattle-Vancouver soccer rivalry dates back to the first NASL meeting at the old Empire Stadium on June 9, 1974 and spans over 50 years, multiple leagues and several different iterations of both the Sounders and Whitecaps (see left for Sounders logos throughout the years).

SEATTLE WELCOMES MÜLLER

Vancouver Whitecaps FC announced the signing of German legend Thomas Müller on August 6 after previously spending his entire career with Bundesliga powerhouse Bayern Munich.

Müller signed with Vancouver after 17 years with Bayern where he made 756 appearances, scored 250 goals and amassed 238 assists. He also helped the club win 13 Bundesliga titles during his time.

On the international stage, Müller helped lead Germany to the 2014 FIFA World Cup title. The midfielder scored five goals in the tournament, second among all players.

Müller has made his impact known since joining MLS, already scoring four goals and adding one assist in just three games, including a hat trick against the Philadelphia Union on September 13.

Müller is the second international legend to visit Lumen Field in the last month, with Lionel Messi and Inter Miami CF visiting the Emerald City on August 31st for the Leagues Cup 2025 Final, which Seattle won 3-0.

2025 CASCADIA CUP

Sunday marks the fourth match of the 2025 Cascadia Cup for Seattle. Vancouver currently leads the standings with seven points, with Portland in second place with two points and Seattle in third is one point. Following Saturday's match, the Rave Green have one remaining fixture against Portland on October 4

The Cascadia Cup was formally started in 2004 by the largest supporters' groups for each of the three clubs - Emerald City Supporters, Timbers Army and Vancouver Southsiders. The competition began when all three teams were members of the USL First Division and has included all three clubs, save for 2009 and 2010, when it was between the Timbers and the Whitecaps due to Seattle moving to MLS. In 2011, all three sides were in the MLS for the first time and the competition has existed in the top division ever since.

SEATTLE WINS LEAGUES CUP 2025

Seattle Sounders FC captured the Leagues Cup 2025 trophy on August 31 with a 3-0 win over Inter Miami CF, the first Leagues Cup title in club history. The title capped off a dominant run for the Rave Green throughout the tournament, compiling a 5-0-1 record and outscoring their opponents by 14 goals (16 goals for, two against).

Sounders FC cruised through Phase One play, becoming the only team in the tournament, MLS or Liga MX, to win all three of its matches, including a dominant 7-0 victory over Cruz Azul. The club then defeated Club Puebla in a shootout following a 0-0 draw in the Quarterfinals, setting up a Semifinals matchup against the LA Galaxy at Dignity Health Sports Park, which Seattle won 2-0 behind goals from Pedro de la Vega and Osaze De Rosario.

Seattle then hosted the final against Miami in front of a Leagues Cup and club-record single-match crowd of 69,314 at Lumen Field. De Rosario scored in the first half, with Alex Roldan bagging a penalty in the second half and Paul Rothrock adding the exclamation point, as goalkeeper Andrew Thomas kept the clean sheet to win 3-0.

Three members of the Rave Green won individual awards: Pedro de la Vega won Player of the Tournament, Andrew Thomas won Goalkeeper of the Tournament and Alex Roldan won Most Valuable Player for the Final.

THE RAVE GREEN OWN 'EM ALL

By winning Leagues Cup 2025, Seattle became the first soccer team in North America to win all five major trophies available to them - MLS Cup, Supporters' Shield, Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, Concacaf Champions Cup and one Leagues Cup.

Since joining MLS in 2009, Seattle's nine trophies - four U.S. Open Cups, two MLS Cups, one Supporters' Shield, one Concacaf Champions Cup and one Leagues Cup - are the most among any team in MLS since 2009, and are three more than the next-closest team, the LA Galaxy.

August 31 marked Seattle's 13th final since joining MLS. The club holds a 8-3-2 record in those contests. It was also the fifth final that Seattle has played at home, boasting a perfect 5-0-0 record and tied the largest margin of victory ever in a final (3-0 win against Pumas UNAM in 2022 Concacaf Champions Cup Final).

Head Coach Brian Schmetzer has been at the helm for four of Seattle's nine titles (2016 and 2019 MLS Cups, 2022 Concacaf Champions Cup and 2025 Leagues Cup) and has reached eight different finals.

SOUNDERS FC WEEKLY NOTES

JESÚS FERREIRA MAKES HISTORY

Jesús Ferreira's goal against the LA Galaxy on September 13 was good for his 57th regular-season strike since joining MLS in 2017, the most goals by a player before the age of 25 in MLS history, breaking a tie with Landon Donovan.

Ferreira (24 years, 266 days) was acquired by Seattle via trade from FC Dallas this offseason and has proven to be a valuable member of Seattle's attack. He has provided 14 goal contributions in all competitions for Seattle this year, including nine assists.

Prior to joining Seattle, Ferreira was a standout with FC Dallas, tallying 55 goals and 40 assists in all competitions from 2017-2024. He was named MLS Young Player of the Year in 2022 following an 18-goal, six-assist campaign and was also named an MLS All-Star in 2022 and 2023, as well as to the MLS Best XI in 2022.

Most Goals Before the Age of 25 (MLS History)

Player	Goals

PLAYOFF PUSH

Seattle can clinch a playoff berth this weekend the following scenarios:

- Seattle Sounders FC win or draw vs. Vancouver Whitecaps FC OR
- Colorado Rapids loss or draw vs. Minnesota United FC AND Houston Dynamo FC loss or draw at Nashville SC OR
- Real Salt Lake loss or draw vs. Austin FC AND Houston Dynamo FC loss or draw at Nashville SC

Should the Rave Green earn their ticket to the Audi 2025 MLS Cup Playoffs, it would be the 16th time in their 17 years of existence in MLS that they've made the postseason. That number is the most among any expansion team in MLS history.

Most Playoff Appearances by an Expansion Team

Team	Playoff Appearances
Seattle Sounders FC	15
Real Salt Lake	14
Chicago Fire	13
Houston Dynamo FC	10
Philadelphia Union	9*

CRUCIAL HOME STAND

Following two road matches against Miami and Austin last week, Seattle sets up shop for the next three weeks at Lumen Field, playing a trio of matches against Western Conference opponents.

First, Seattle welcomes Vancouver Whitecaps FC on September 27, then faces its other Cascadia foe, the Portland Timbers, on October 4 before hosting Real Salt Lake on October 11.

Currently sitting in fifth place in the Western Conference, the homestand could prove crucial as the Rave Green look to pick up points to climb up the table, potentially earning home-field advantage during the best-of-three, Round One series in the Audi 2025 MLS Cup Playoffs. Seattle has a 8-1-5 record at home in MLS play this year.

LOOKING FOR 50 POINTS (AGAIN)

Seattle is currently sitting on 45 points and looking for its 12th 50-point season in club history, breaking a tie with D.C. United for second-most all-time.

Seattle has been a mainstay at the top of the Western Conference table since joining MLS in 2009, winning two MLS Cups (2016, 2019) while making it to the MLS Cup Final on two other occasions (2017, 2020).

SOUNDERS FC WEEKLY NOTES

TWO SOUNDERS CALLED UP FOR U-20 WC

Reed Baker-Whiting and Obed Vargas have been named to the final rosters for the United States and Mexico, respectively, for the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup™. The pair of Homegrown Players will represent the Rave Green in the global tournament taking place from September 27 to October 19 in Chile. Both players are set to depart following Sunday's match at Austin FC and will miss, at minimum, Sounders FC's following two matches against Vancouver (September 27) and Portland (October 4).

"Having both Reed and Obed called up to represent their country at the U-20 World Cup is a proud moment for our entire organization," said Sounders FC General Manager & Chief Soccer Officer Craig Waibel. "It's a reflection of the work they've put in and the commitment of our development pathway to prepare players for opportunities like this. Competing on the world stage will be a valuable experience for both of them, and we're excited to see how it helps their continued growth as professionals."

Baker-Whiting, 20, has represented the United States at the U-17, U-19 and U-20 levels, most recently being called up for a camp with the U-20s in San Pedro del Pintar, Spain during the September FIFA window. The Seattle native has appeared in 17 matches (nine starts) in all competitions for the Rave Green this year, including a 90-minute shift opposite Lionel Messi in Seattle's 3-0 win over Inter Miami CF in the Leagues Cup 2025 Final on August 31. The Seattle native recently signed a new contract with the club through at least the 2028 season. The Stars and Stripes are drawn into Group E and will begin tournament play against New Caledonia on September 29 (4:00 p.m. PT / FS1) before facing France on October 2 (1:00 p.m. PT / FS2) and South Africa on October 5 (1:00 p.m. PT / FS2).

"It's always special when players from our club are called in to play on the biggest stage, and we're proud of both Reed and Obed for earning this opportunity," said Sounders FC Head Coach Brian Schmetzer. "They've each put in a lot of hard work in training and have shown the commitment it takes to grow at this level. Competing at the U-20 World Cup will only improve their abilities, and we're looking forward to seeing how it helps the club when they return."

Vargas, 20, also was called-up during the September FIFA window for a camp with the Mexico U-20s. The midfielder earned his first cap with the Mexico senior team in October 2024 with a substitute appearance against the United States in a 2-0 victory. He was also called into Mexico's U-23 squad during the September 2024 window for a training camp and pair of friendlies. Vargas has started all 37 of his appearances in all competitions this year, scoring four goals and adding seven assists. El Tri is competing in Group C, facing off against Brazil on September 28 (4:00 p.m. PT / FS1), Spain on October 1 (1:00 p.m. / FS2) and Morocco on October 4 (1:00 p.m. PT).

Additionally, Tacoma Defiance interim Head Coach Mike Morris will be serving as an Assistant Coach for the U.S. U-20 Men's Youth National Team during the tournament. Morris has been with Sounders FC since the club formed in 2009 and has been a longtime integral member of the club's development programs. The Washington native took over sideline duties for Defiance after the club parted ways with Hervé Dese earlier this season.

BAKER-WHITING SIGNS NEW CONTRACT

Sounders FC has signed Reed Baker-Whiting to a new contract through the 2028 season with a club option for 2029. The Seattle native has made 77 appearances in all competitions as a midfielder and fullback since originally signing with the club as a Homegrown Player in May of 2021. Baker-Whiting will now occupy a U-22 roster spot with the new deal.

"Reed is a young and promising talent who's already shown a lot of maturity in his time with the club," said Sounders FC General Manager & Chief Soccer Officer Craig Waibel. "We're pleased to have him continue his journey with us and believe this new contract reflects the potential we see in him."

Baker-Whiting, 20, has 17 appearances in all competitions for Seattle this year, including two in the FIFA Club World Cup 2025™ and three in the club's championship run at Leagues Cup 2025. He scored his lone goal with Sounders FC in the 2023 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup against the San Diego Loyal, helping the team to an extra-time victory. The Seattle native has appeared in four career postseason matches for the Rave Green, including a 96-minute shift against LAFC in the 2024 Western Conference Semifinals. On the international stage, Baker-Whiting has represented the United States at the U-15, U-19 and U-20 levels, including callups to a pair of U-20 camps in Egypt and Spain earlier this year. He played for one season with Tacoma Defiance in 2020 before signing a First Team contract.

"I've really enjoyed coaching Reed over the past few seasons and watching him grow into a more confident and capable player," said Sounders FC Head Coach Brian Schmetzer. "He's still young, but he carries himself well and continues to show progress every time he steps on the field. This new contract is a good step forward for him, and we're looking forward to seeing how he continues to develop within the group."

Baker-Whiting originally joined the club via the Sounders Discovery Program from Seattle United in 2016 and was on Sounders FC's U-12 squad in 2017 that won the Youdan Trophy after defeating Manchester United, Crystal Palace and Liverpool at the ICC Future's Tournament. He returned to the Youdan Tournament as a member of Sounders FC U-14 team in 2018, defeating Charlton Athletic 5-2 in the final. He also featured for the U-17 squad that won the 2019 Generation adidas Cup Champions Division, defeating Valencia CF in the final.

SOUNDERS FC CELEBRATES LATINE HERITAGE MONTH

Seattle Sounders FC, Seattle Reign FC and their charitable partner RAVE Foundation announced on September 12 the clubs' plans to commemorate Latine Heritage Month – an annual recognition that celebrates the diversity of culture and heritage within the Latine community.

As the Rave Green kick off Latine Heritage Month – which runs from September 15 to October 15 each year – the club recognizes the complexity of the language used. As clubs, Sounders and Reign are committed to supporting individuals of all backgrounds and have chosen to use the term "Latine" to foster the most inclusive environment for all. By using this gender-inclusive language, the clubs reaffirm their commitments to advancing equity, supporting those who do not identify within the gender binary and acknowledging the intersectional identities held by the Seattle soccer community. The clubs have updated their language from the previously used "Latinx", a community-informed decision that follows conventions of romance languages, such as Spanish and Portuguese. While this is the language Sounders FC and Reign FC feel align most with their organizational values, the clubs encourage fans to identify in whichever ways feel most true to themselves.

This year, Sounders FC is teaming up with the Consulate of Mexico in Seattle, Sea Mar Community Health Centers, KEXP and Intentionalist to provide a handful of activities in recognition to the Latine community, with a full list of this year's events and matchday activations available below.

Sounders FC is taking part in this year's Sea Mar Fiestas Patrias Parade, marching proudly while engaging with community members and giving away Sounders FC-branded items. The parade, a celebration of the community and all that it has to offer, will take place on Saturday, September 13 from 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. PT at Sea Mar Community Health Centers Administration (1040 South Henderson Street, Seattle, WA 98108).

Sounders FC, Reign FC and RAVE Foundation are teaming up with longtime partner Sea Mar Community Health Centers to kickoff Latine Heritage Month at this year's Sea Mar Fiestas Patrias, a two-day community event that brings together families, businesses and cultural organizations to honor Latin American traditions. Throughout the two-day event at Seattle Center, attendees can enjoy delicious traditional Latin American food, live music, traditional folk-dance performances, a health fair offering health information, free health screenings, Zumba and Viva Art Exhibit, children's activities and more.

The festival is taking place this year on Saturday, September 13 from 12:00 – 9:00 p.m. PT and on Sunday, September 14 from 11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. PT at the Armory Food & Event Hall and Fisher Pavilion (305 Harrison Street, Seattle, WA 98109). The event is part of the Seattle Center Festal series and is free and open to the public.

Once at Seattle Center, those in attendance will have the opportunity to participate in a variety of onsite entertainment including a free soccer clinic on Saturday, September 13 from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. PT at the Fisher Pavilion rooftop, as well as the giveaway of 200 soccer ball for youth attendees.

The 2025 theme, "Our Voice, Our Strength," celebrates the color, culture, customs and languages that define Latine proud heritage. It emphasizes the importance of unity within this diversity, recognizing that we are all part of a single global community, enriched by many vibrant cultures and perspectives.

On Saturday, September 13, as Sounders FC hosts the LA Galaxy on the Emerald Queen Casino Pitch at Lumen Field, the club is celebrating Latine Heritage Month with its Vamos Sounders Celebration match. Saturday's match kicks off at 5:30 p.m. PT, with gates opening at 4:00 p.m. PT. Tickets to attend Saturday's match can be purchased HERE.

Prior to the match, Sounders FC, Reign FC and RAVE Foundation will be hosting a Pro Sports Career Panel, this time serving Latine-identifying high school students from Sea Mar's Latino/a Educational Achievement Project (LEAP). The panel provides attendees insight into diverse career pathways within sports and will feature Sounders FC and Reign FC full-time Latine-identifying employees.

Those attending the match on Saturday will have the opportunity to receive an exclusive winged-orca poster upon arrival at the stadium. Crafted by Mexican Art Director, Graphic Designer and Seattle-based illustrator Víctor Meléndez, the free posters represent a tribute to Mexican alebrijes, a brightly colored folk art sculpture inspired by symbolic animal parts and vibrant colors with specific cultural significance, representing the diversity of our Sounders community.

SOUNDERS FC CELEBRATES LATINE HERITAGE MONTH

As part of the annual celebration, fans can also purchase an exclusive Latine Heritage Month scarf designed by Sounders FC graphic designer Sahid Alpizar. The scarf will be sold at the Pro Shop at Lumen Field throughout Latine Heritage Month (September 15 – October 15), with 100% of the proceeds benefiting the Washington Immigrant Solidarity Network (WAISN), the largest immigrant-led coalition in Washington.

In the North Plaza and on stadium concourses, fans will be entertained by various dance and musical performances to celebrate the diversity of cultures within the Latine community. The North Plaza will feature performances by 4 groups including Grupo Folklórico Herencias Mexicanas, Baila District, La Clave Cubana Entertainment and Brasil in Motion. Lucia Flores-Wiseman, a Mexican-American singer-songwriter from Seattle, WA – whose music blends indie, folk, soul and jazz into intimate, soulful stories – will perform in Olympic Hall. She gained national attention when she placed 4th on Season 27 of The Voice on Team Adam. Additionally, Sounders DJs will be mixing Latine music on the concourses around Lumen Field featuring playlists curated by KEXP. Sounders emcees in the stadium will be joined by KEXP radio personality and host Albina Cabrera serving as celebrity DJ. Albina hosts KEXP's popular Monday night Latin American music program, El Sonido, where she shares the diverse world of Latin music and culture from South, Central and North America, as well as Spain and the rest of the globe.

Launched earlier this summer, Vamos Sounders Club is a new community-powered fan club created to recognize and celebrate the Spanish-speaking communities across Washington state and beyond who live and breathe soccer. More than a club, Vamos Sounders is a movement of pride, passion and belonging, an initiative driven by connections and inspired by the club's fanbase. Fans can join for free online or at the booth in the North Plaza on matchday. Vamos Sounders Club members will enjoy additional benefits on matchday, including an exclusive opportunity to meet gate giveaway artist Victor Meléndez.

To learn more about Sounders FC matchdays, health and safety and how to be prepared to attend a match, visit SoundersFC.com/Matchday/Know-Before-You-Go.

In celebration of Latine Heritage Month, Sounders FC and Reign FC are excited to continue their partnership with Intentionalist – and Seattle's professional sports teams – to reward fans who #SpendLikeItMatters at Latine-owned businesses from September 15 through October 15. As part of this joint initiative, fans can upload their receipts from Latine-owned small businesses for the chance to win fun prizes and to help the club hit its goal of catalyzing $30,000 in spending at these local businesses. Every uploaded receipt is an entry to win – the more entries, the more chances for fans to win.

As the Rave Green continue their effort to invest in the Latine community, the club, Reign FC and their charitable partner RAVE Foundation are hosting an all-school assembly at Benson Hill Elementary School in Renton on Thursday, October 9 at the school campus, a site of a RAVE soccer mini-pitch. Under the theme "From our Ancestors to Us: Stories that Shine," the all-school assembly will highlight and celebrate the various cultures represented in the Latine community, as well as by Benson Hill students.

Benson Hill School has a diverse student population, with a significant Hispanic student population of approximately 21.6%. Benson Hill is located at 18665 116th Avenue SE, Renton, WA 98058.
