LAST TIME OUT | Minnesota United @ LA Galaxy | Oct. 18, 2025 | Dignity Health Sports Park | 2025 MLS Regular Season - Matchday 34

Loons Fall 2-1 on Decision Day Against LA Galaxy

Minnesota United wrapped up its 2025 MLS regular season with a 2-1 defeat to the LA Galaxy at Dignity Health Sports Park. Midfielder Joaquín Pereyra scored the lone goal for the Loons in stoppage time in the 95th minute. Minnesota was unable to find an equalizer after Galaxy's early goals from Matheus Nascimento and Joseph Paintsil. The result concluded MNUFC's record-setting regular season, which saw the club earn its earliest-ever postseason berth and set new marks for wins in an MLS campaign.

1 OF 3: MNUFC host Seattle in Playoff Opener

Minnesota United begins its 2025 Audi MLS Cup Playoffs campaign with Round One Best-of-3 series clash against the Seattle Sounders at Allianz Field. The Loons enter the postseason with confidence after defeating Seattle twice during the regular season, including their first-ever win at Lumen Field earlier this year and their second ever home win and shutout in a 1-0 victory. With momentum from a record-breaking campaign, Minnesota looks to extend its strong home form and secure a place in the Western Conference Semifinals.

Minnesota United FC vs. Seattle Sounders FC | Allianz Field, St. Paul, Minnesota | October 27, 2025 | Best-of-3 Series Game 1

QUICK FACTS

- No Minnesota United player has been sent off during the current campaign across all competitions.
- Minnesota United did not lose any back-to-back games across MLS fixtures.
- Anthony Markanich has scored the second most goals (9) by a defender in a single regular season, after scoring a brace against Sporting Kansas on 10/04/2025. He now sits behind defender Brek Shea's record of 11 goals recorded in 2014.
- Dayne St. Clair recorded his 10th clean sheet of the regular season against Sporting Kansas on October 4, 2025, setting a new personal best for most shutouts in a single campaign.
- Against Sporting Kansas on October 4, 2025, Joaquín Pereyra has surpassed Robin Lod and Darwin Quintero's single-season club record of 15 assists, a mark originally set by Quintero in 2018 and later matched by Lod in 2024.
- Against Sporting Kansas on October 4, 2025 Minnesota United improved to 16-7-10, marking their most wins in a regular season, surpassing the previous club record of 15 set in 2019 and later matched in 2024.
- With Joaquín Pereyra's goal in the 59th minute against Sporting Kansas City, MNUFC has now scored its 500th club goal.
- With the victory over Sporting Kansas, MNUFC is currently riding a six-game winning streak in their final regular-season home matches dating back to 2020. With only seven losses this season, Minnesota United is on track to finish with the fewest defeats in a full regular season in club history.
- Minnesota United held a 8-3-6 (W-L-D) record on the road, improving from their 2024 record of 8-6-3.
- Minnesota United clinched a berth in the 2025 Audi MLS Cup Playoffs on August 30, marking the earliest postseason qualification in club history.
- Midfielders Nectarios Triantis and Dominik Fitz made their Minnesota United and MLS debuts, appearing for the Loons for the first time against San Diego FC on September 13 and both making their first MLS start on the match against Chicago Fire FC.
- In regular season, Nectarios Triantis has made three appearance and scored two goals. He marked his debut with an immediate impact, recording his first MLS goal and assist in the same match against San Diego FC and then scored the lone goal against Colorado Rapids to get the Loons a road point.
- Goalkeeper Dayne St. Clair set a new personal milestone with 12 saves in a single MLS match against San Diego FC on September 13, establishing a new career high.
- Minnesota United set a new club record by reaching 58 points in a single season, surpassing their previous best of 53 points achieved in 2019.
- Minnesota United defender Michael Boxall currently leads the club in all-time minutes played, sitting at 24,074 minutes across all competitions.
- Robin Lod scored another goal in recent match against Portland Timbers on 08/30/25, bringing his total to 38 goals and extending his lead as Minnesota United's all-time top scorer across all competitions. Lod also now leads the club with the most regular-season assists in club history with 35, surpassing Emanuel Reynoso (33). Lod surpassed Reynoso with Minnesota's opening goal against San Jose on July 12.
- Minnesota United has converted each of its last nine penalty kick attempts in MLS play, including Kelvin Yeboah's penalties against St. Louis CITY SC on July 26.
- Only the Vancouver Whitecaps (38) and Philadelphia Union (35) conceded fewer goals than Minnesota (39) during the 2025 regular season.

ABOUT MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

Minnesota United FC plays in North America's top professional soccer league, Major League Soccer (MLS). The league features 29 teams from across the United States and Canada.

After a successful bid to host the FIFA World Cup in 1994, the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) founded MLS to bring a top-level soccer league back to the country for the first time since 1984, when the original NASL folded. The league was set to begin play in 1996 with 10 teams: Colorado Rapids, Columbus Crew, D.C. United, Dallas Burn (FC Dallas), Kansas City Wiz (Sporting Kansas City), Los Angeles Galaxy, New England Revolution, NY/NJ MetroStars (New York Red Bulls), San Jose Clash (Earthquakes) and Tampa Bay Mutiny.

The league's first game was played on April 6, 1996 as the San Jose Clash played D.C. United in front of 31,000 fans at Spartan Stadium. The league drew large crowds in its opening season, pulling star power from around North America and building on the excitement of the 1994 FIFA World Cup.

As MLS has continued to grow, clubs have begun moving out of shared American football venues and into soccer-specific stadium, led by Columbus Crew, who moved into the soccer-specific Historic Crew Stadium in 1999. Currently, 22 teams play in soccer-specific venues.

With the addition of San Diego FC as the league's 30th club, the schedule format will include every MLS team competing in 34 regular season games, featuring 17 at home and 17 on the road. Clubs will play conference opponents twice, once at home and once away. Additionally, each club will play one match against six different cross-conference opponents.

Starting in 2023, the league adopted a new playoff style after three seasons of a single-elimination format. At the end of the MLS Regular Season, the top seven teams from each conference will automatically qualify to the Round One Best-of-3 series while the next two teams in each conference standings will qualify for a single-elimination Audi MLS Cup Playoffs Wild Card match. The winners of each Wild Card game will earn a spot in the Round One Best-of-3 series.

MINNESOTA UNITED PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

#15 | MICHAEL BOXALL DEFENDER

Height: 6'3"    Weight: 209
Birthdate: 8/18/1988
Hometown: Auckland, New Zealand
Previous Club: SuperSport United
Acquired: Signed 7/12/2017

New Zealand international Michael Boxall joined Minnesota United on July 12, 2017. As an eight-year veteran, he brings invaluable experience and leadership to the backline and has remained a cornerstone of the Loons' defense since their inaugural MLS season.

Boxall has made 258 appearances across all competitions, the most of any Loon in the MLS era, and has scored seven goals in MLS play. His most recent tally came against Sporting Kansas City on April 27, 2024, when he netted the second-fastest goal in club history—just one minute and five seconds into the match. On September 19, 2020, he surpassed Miguel Ibarra on the club's all-time appearance list and went on to finish the 2023 season with 95 career MLS appearances.

During the 2024 campaign, Boxall reached several milestones, including playing his 200th MLS regular season game in the season opener against Austin FC and making his 400th career appearance across professional club and international play in a match against Houston Dynamo FC. He is also the only Minnesota United player to start and play every minute of every playoff match in club history, totaling nine matches and 840 minutes.

Internationally, Boxall was selected as one of New Zealand's overage players for the Paris 2024 Summer Olympics, starting and playing in all three fixtures for the All Whites

For the first time in his career, Boxall has been selected to the MLS All-Star Game, set to take place on July 23 in Austin, Texas, honoring his consistent form and veteran presence throughout the 2025 season.

#33 | KIERAN CHANDLER

Height: 5'9"    Weight: 155
Birthdate: 6/9/2006
Hometown: Simsbury, Connecticut
Previous Club: MNUFC2
Acquired: Signed 8/23/2025

Kieran Chandler joined Minnesota United ahead of the 2025 MLS season after progressing through the MNUFC2 system, signing a first-team deal to solidify his place with the senior squad.

The 20-year-old defender made 34 appearances across all competitions with MNUFC2 since joining the club's development pathway in 2023. During that time, Chandler showcased his versatility across the back line, while contributing with one goal and three assists in MLS NEXT Pro play.

A native of Minnesota, Chandler grew up in the club's academy system before making the jump to professional play with the second team. Known for his work rate, defensive awareness, and ability to build out of the back, Chandler's development with MNUFC2 earned him recognition and a promotion to the first team roster.

Chandler made his MLS and MNUFC debut on March 29, 2025, entering as a second-half substitute against FC Dallas at Allianz Field. Since stepping into the senior side, he has continued to integrate into the Loons' defensive unit while gaining valuable minutes at the MLS level.

Height: 6'1"      Weight: 182
Birthdate: 12/5/2000
Hometown: San Andrés, Colombia
Previous Club: Deportivo Cali
Acquired: Signed 7/29/2024

Jefferson Díaz joined the club during the 2024 secondary transfer window in July. Díaz was signed to a three-year deal with a club option for 2028 and will occupy an international roster spot.

The 23-year-old center back joined Minnesota United from Deportivo Cali of Colombia's top division, where he made 50 game appearances across all competitions, scored five goals, and provided three assists since joining the club in 2023.

The native Colombian has played in over 100 professional games since making his professional debut in 2017 with his youth club, Real Cartagena of Colombia's second division. Initially, Díaz filled the role as a striker during his time with Real Cartagena but found himself back on the defensive side in the 2021 campaign, where he transitioned back to a defensive role.

Díaz made his MLS and MNUFC debut in front of home fans on August 24th, starting the match as a center defender and playing the full 90 minutes. Since joining the squad, the native Colombian proved himself in the Loons back line, starting and playing in nine matches. He continued to play his role as a center defender in the Audi 2024 MLS Cup Playoffs, making his debut in Game 1 against Real Salt Lake. He made a total of three game appearances (three starts) while recording his first MLS assist during the same playoff run

#31 | HASSANI DOTSON MIDFIELDER

Height: 5'11"    Weight: 170
Birthdate: 8/6/1997
Hometown: Federal Way, Washington
Previous Club: Oregon State University
Acquired: Selected 31st in 2019 MLS SuperDraft

Dotson became the first second-round MLS SuperDraft pick in MNUFC history to sign a professional contract with the Loons after being selected as the 31st pick in the 2019 MLS SuperDraft.

Dotson started the first seven games of the 2022 season, scoring one goal and adding two assists before tearing his ACL in April and missing the remainder of the 2022 season. Dotson made his return to the pitch in the 2023 season opener against FC Dallas. He would go on to make his 100th MLS regular-season appearance, reaching 112 appearances by the end of the 2023 season. The Washington native played in all 34 regular-season matches (the most of any player in 2023) and scored three goals.

The midfielder made his milestone 100th game appearance, across all competitions, for Minnesota United when he started the April 15, 2023 match against Orlando City SC, providing his first assist of the season. Notably, Dotson made his 100th MLS career start against FC Dallas on Matchday 21.

During the 2024 campaign, Dotson surpassed his season-high of goals scored (5) after scoring his first MLS regular-season penalty kick against Vancouver on October 5. He also tied his season high for assists (4) during the regular season. In his six seasons with Minnesota, Dotson has made 161 appearances for MNUFC across all competitions, scoring 17 goals and providing 17 assists. He became a must-have on the gameday roster during the 2023 season with his versatility, stepping up all over the field by playing defensive midfielder, wingback, fullback, and winger.

Dotson suffered a torn meniscus in his right knee during the Saturday, March 22 match versus LA Galaxy. He had a successful surgical procedure performed on Wednesday, March 26 at Allina Health Orthopedics to repair the torn meniscus, and is expected to miss multiple months.

#24 | JULIAN GRESSEL MIDFIELDER

Height: 6'0"    Weight: 185
Birthdate: 12/16/1993
Hometown: Neustadt, Germany
Previous Club: Inter Miami CF
Acquired: Acquired 4/29/2025

Minnesota United acquired MLS veteran Julian Gressel off waivers in April of 2025. Gressel is under contract through December of 2026, with a club option for 2027.

A veteran of MLS, Julian Gressel joins Minnesota United from Inter Miami CF where he played for the South Florida side during the 2024 and 2025 seasons, making 32 MLS regular-season game appearances and providing nine assists. Gressel was a mainstay and played a vital role with the Miami squad that captured the 2024 MLS Supporters' Shield trophy as the team with the most points in that season, notably a single-season record with 74 points.

The German-born, United States international began his career in MLS when he was selected as the eighth-overall pick in the 2017 MLS SuperDraft by Atlanta United FC. With Atlanta, Gressel made nearly 100 game appearances, earning 2017 MLS Rookie of the Year honors and helping the team capture the 2018 MLS Cup championship and 2019 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. He then was traded to D.C. United and featured prominently for the team from 2020-2022 before being sent to Vancouver Whitecaps FC, competing for the Canadian side from 2022-2023, winning back-to-back Canadian Championships. During the summer of 2023, Gressel was sent to Columbus Crew, where he played a key role and helped the Ohio team lift the 2023 MLS Cup trophy.

Overall, across all MLS competitions (regular-season and MLS Cup Playoffs) since 2017, Gressel has made an impressive 258 game appearances (232 starts), where he has provided 67 assists and has scored 28 goals, to-date.

Internationally, Gressel has represented the United States. He was called up to camp for the first time in January of 2023 and was then named to the final squad ahead of the 2023 Concacaf Gold Cup, where he earned his first cap in a group-stage victory over St. Kitts and Nevis. To-date, Gressel has made six game appearances for the Stars and Stripes.

Recently acquired MLS veteran Julian Gressel made his first appearance as a player for Minnesota United when he entered the match as a second-half substitute at Austin FC. He scored his first goal for the Loons in a 3-0 regular-season victory over St. Louis CITY SC at Allianz Field.

Hlongwane joined Minnesota United ahead of the 2022 season initially as a U22 Initiative player. In 2022, "Bongi" was part of the attacking quartet that had the Loons on a 13-game scoring streak from June 19 through August 27. He scored his two goals of the year in that timeframe, knocking his first one at Houston Dynamo, earning him an MLS Team of the Week appearance. Hlongwane missed the final games of the regular season due to injury but returned to the Loons starting lineup for the club's 2022 MLS Cup Playoff game at FC Dallas.

He put on quite the show during the 2023 season, especially in the 2023 Leagues Cup tournament. Hlongwane was the runner-up to Lionel Messi (Inter Miami CF) for the Golden Boot after notching seven goals. He secured a brace in both matches of the Group Stage against Club Puebla (LIGA MX) and Chicago Fire FC, another against Columbus Crew in the Round of 32, and a single goal against Deportivo Toluca. Hlongwane ended the 2023 season having scored 17 goals across all competitions..

The South African forward played in his 100th match across all competitions against FC Cincinnati on September 18. Then, Hlongwane went on to score his 10th goal of the regular season against St. Louis CITY SC, an MLS-career high, becoming the fifth different Minnesota United player to record a double-digit scoring season and the third in the last three years. He ended the 2024 regular season leading the club in goals scored (11) while providing a total of four assists.

Height: 5'11"    Weight: 189
Birthdate: 4/17/1993
Hometown: Helsinki, Finland
Previous Club: Sporting de Gijon
Acquired: Transferred on 7/16/2019

Lod joined the Loons in the middle of the 2019 season. In his four seasons with Minnesota United, he is the club leader in MLS regular season goals scored with 28, surpassing Darwin Quintero (27) in goals scored across all competitions with 31. The Finnish international stands as the Loons current active leading goalscorer.

In 2022, Lod showed off his versatility, playing not just on the right wing and as a false nine, but he slotted in at center-midfield alongside Wil Trapp and Kervin Arriaga throughout the second half of the season. He secured one of the starting center-midfielder spots in the club's 2022 MLS Cup Playoff game at FC Dallas.

Lod made his 100th MNUFC appearance, across all competitions, against the Colorado Rapids during the 2023 season. In the match against Houston, Lod suffered a torn meniscus in his right knee and underwent reparative surgery on May 22, 2023.

Lod returned to the pitch for the 2024 campaign, where he was named a finalist in the 2024 MLS Year-End Awards for Comeback Player of the Year. He started the season in fine form, providing 10 goal contributions (three goals, seven assists) in just eight games from February 24 to April 27, while also playing in his 100th MLS regular-season game against Charlotte FC. Lod recorded his 15th assist of the season on September 28 against the Colorado Rapids, tying former MNUFC forward Darwin Quintero's single-season assist record set in 2018 and showcasing his playmaking skills in the midfield. He continued to reach new heights after surpassing Emanuel Reynoso in the club's single-season goal contribution rankings with 22 (seven goals, 15 assists) after scoring the opening goal in the final home game of the 2024 regular season, ranking him second behind Darwin Quintero (26). Lod earned his first MLS All-Star roster spot after being selected by head coach Wilfried Nancy as a 2024 MLS All-Star. The Finnish international ended the 2024 regular season as the club's all-time MLS goalscorer with 29 goals across six seasons. He also became the all-time leader for most regular-season goal contributions in Minnesota's MLS history, with 58 (29 goals and 29 assists).

Markanich joined Minnesota United after having made 32 game appearances across all competitions with St. Louis CITY SC since the CITY side acquired the 24-year-old from the Colorado Rapids in August of 2023. The defender notably started and played all 90 minutes in the Concacaf Champions Cup leg one match of the First Round – an eventual 2-1 win over Houston Dynamo FC in February.

The defender began his career in MLS after he was selected by the Rapids in the first round of the MLS SuperDraft 2022. Markanich signed a contract with the Rapids and made his Major League Soccer debut on May 23, 2022 when he started and played the full 90 minutes in a 1-0 win over Seattle Sounders FC. In total with the Rapids, he made 17 game appearances across all competitions.

Collegiately, Markanich played four seasons at Northern Illinois University and was a three-time First-Team All-MAC honoree, where he made 67 appearances for the Huskies, scoring 17 goals and providing 24 assists, with his assists notably being tied for second-most in program history.

Since joining the Loons in the summer transfer window, Markanich made two game appearances, making his MNUFC debut as a starter against Vancouver on October 5.

Defender Anthony Markanich scored his first goal for Minnesota United in Saturday night's win over Austin FC, heading in a cross from Jefferson Díaz in the 35th minute to double the Loons' lead.

Markanich scored his first-ever professional brace in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 match against St. Louis CITY SC - notably both goals within three minutes of each other at the end of the game to secure the 3-2 come-from-behind victory on May 21.

Height: 6'1"    Weight: 165
Birthdate: 12/01/1998
Hometown: Paraná, Argentina
Previous Club: Club Atlético Tucumán
Acquired: Transferred on 8/15/2024

Pereyra joined Minnesota United after three years with Argentina's Primera División side Club Atlético Tucumán, where he scored four goals and recorded 14 assists in 117 appearances across all competitions since 2021.

As a summer transfer, Pereyra made his MLS and MNUFC debut starting as a central midfielder against Louis CITY SC on September 14. He continued to showcase his playmaking skills throughout the rest of the regular season, where he started every match for the remainder of the season. Pereyra provided his very first MLS and MNUFC assist against Colorado, supporting Minnesota United in their 3-0 road victory on September 28. The Argentinian midfielder was one of eight MNUFC players who made their MLS Playoff debut in the Loons' 2024 postseason run.

Pereyra began his soccer career in Rosario Central's academy, making his senior team debut in February 2016 as a substitute. In five seasons with the club, Pereyra played in 60 games across all competitions, scoring two goals and providing one assist. He was part of the team that won the 2017-18 Copa Argentina, qualifying Rosario Central for the 2018 Copa Sudamericana and 2019 Copa Libertadores. He notably played two Copa Sudamericana games in 2018, and four Copa Libertadores games, scoring the opening goal in the 2019 Copa Libertadores Group Stage game against Club Libertad Asunción to earn a 2-1 win. During his time with Rosario Central, Pereyra also had loan stints with FC Famalicão from 2020-21 and Club Atlético Tucumán from 2021-22.

Internationally, Pereyra represented Argentina at the youth level with the U20 National Team.

The Argentinian midfielder made his MLS and MNUFC debut against St. Louis CITY SC on September 14, 2024.

Midfielder Joaquín Pereyra notably scored his first MLS and MNUFC goal in second-half added stoppage time against Austin FC on May 3rd.

Minnesota United signed defender Darius Randell from MNUFC2 to a first-team contract in May of 2025. Randell is under contract through the end of the 2025 season, with club options for 2027 and 2028.

A promising young talent, Randell rose through the MNUFC2 ranks, where he made a strong impression with his attacking instincts, pace, and ability to find space in the final third. Since joining MNUFC2 in 2023, the Minnesota native has been a consistent figure in the squad, earning recognition for his composure in front of goal, work rate, and versatility across the front line.

Randell's transition to the first team was marked by a milestone moment during Minnesota United's 2025 U.S. Open Cup campaign, where he scored his first goal for the senior side in the Round of 32, netting the lone and game-winning goal in a 1-0 victory over Louisville City FC. His performance helped the Loons advance to the rounds of 16, further showcasing his readiness for the top level.

Prior to signing with the first team, Randell developed through the Minnesota United Academy system before joining MNUFC2 in MLS NEXT Pro. His progression through the club's development pipeline underscores Minnesota's ongoing commitment to homegrown talent and internal development.

Minnesota United signed defender Nicolás Romero from Club Atlético Tucumán to a three-year contract through December of 2027, with a club option for 2028. Romero will occupy a U22 Initiative and international roster spot pending receipt of his P-1 Visa and International Transfer Certificate (ITC).

Romero arrived at Minnesota after having played for Tucumán's senior team since the 2021 season. With Tucumán, the center back has made 78 game appearances across all competitions, and has scored twice in over 6,500 minutes of action on the pitch.

The center back made his professional senior team debut on February 5, 2021 when he entered late in the match on the road against Independiente (Argentina), finishing out the final ten minutes of an eventual 1-0 victory. Notably, Nicolás Romero and current Loons midfielder Joaquín Pereyra were teammates from 2021-2024 at Club Atlético Tucumán.

Nicolás Romero made his MLS and MNUFC debut as a substitute against the San Jose Earthquakes. The Argentinian defender made his first club and league start against LA Galaxy on March 22.

Birthdate: 11/6/2000
Hometown: Tegucigalpa, Honduras
Previous Club: CA Independiente
Acquired: Loaned 8/6/2021

Rosales initially joined Minnesota United in August of 2021 on loan from CA Independiente of the Liga Panamena de Futbol. He earned a permanent transfer to MNUFC following the conclusion of the 2022 season.

In 2022, he made his first MNUFC start April 10 at Austin FC and went on to start eight MLS matches and two of the club's three U.S. Open Cup matches in 2022. Rosales also made one game appearance with MNUFC2 in 2022. During his initial 18-month loan with Minnesota, Rosales made 34 game appearances with ten starts.

Rosales made his first start of the 2023 season during Matchday 4 at Colorado Rapids. He then scored his very-first MNUFC goal (all competitions) against the Philadelphia Union in the 2023 U.S. Open Cup Round of 32 on May 9, and his first MLS goal at Austin FC.

During the 2024 season, Rosales became a force, playing as a fullback and providing a season-high of 11 assists. From April 21, 2024, to May 18, 2024, the Honduran international had five consecutive games where he provided at least one assist, ranking him second in MLS for consecutive games with assists during that time. While providing multiple assists during the 2024 season, he finally found the back of the net, scoring his first goal during the postseason against Real Salt Lake in Game 2 of the Round One Best-of-3 Series.

In July of 2024, the club announced that it had signed Rosales to a new three-year contract, with a club option for 2028.

Previous Club: MNUFC2
Acquired: Signed on 6/15/2024

Goalkeeper Alec Smir was signed to MNUFC2 ahead of the club's inaugural season in MLS NEXT Pro in 2022. Ahead of the 2023 campaign, Smir was sent out on loan to USL Championship side Colorado Springs Switchbacks. He was recalled from that loan that May. The keeper then made four game appearances in net (all starts) in 2023, where he recorded 16 saves and notably earned three-straight clean sheets from June 18 through July 2. During his first season with the Twos, Smir made eight appearances (all starts), earning three wins and one shutout. In MLS NEXT Pro action, he made a total of 20 game appearances (19 starts), making 57 saves in over 1,700 minutes played.

The North Carolina native notably was selected to participate in the 2022 MLS All-Star Skills Challenge in the return of "Goalie Wars", defeating two other MLS NEXT Pro goalkeepers to win the surprise event in front of the home crowd at Allianz Field in Saint Paul, Minnesota.

Smir signed a semi-guaranteed MLS contract (which included club options for 2025 and 2026) with the first team on June 15, 2024. He made his MLS debut on July 3 against the Vancouver Whitecaps. In total in 2024, Smir made three appearances in goal, finishing with a 0-2-1 record (W-L-D).

Birthdate: 5/9/1997
Hometown: Pickering, Ontario
Previous Club: University of Maryland
Acquired: SuperDraft (Pick #7) 1/11/2018

St. Clair joined the Loons as the seventh overall pick of the 2019 MLS SuperDraft from the University of Maryland. After six seasons with MNUFC, St. Clair is the club leader in wins with 48 across all competitions and has recorded the most shutouts (31).

St. Clair continued to be a solid presence in front of goal during the 2024 season, making his 100th MLS career start and game appearance against FC Cincinnati during the MLS regular season since joining the Loons in 2019. During the 2024 Leagues Cup tournament, he made 16 saves against Club Necaxa during the group stage. Which is notably the most saves in a single game in Minnesota's MLS history and also a Leagues Cup single-game record. In that same match, St. Clair was a key component in capturing the victory and maintaining a clean sheet against Necaxa, ending the match 1-0. Since surpassing the most regular-season saves and most saves across all competitions in 2023, St. Clair has a total of 333 regular-season saves and 404 saves across all competitions. With the most recent win against San Jose Earthquakes, goalkeeper Dayne St. Clair won his 50th MNUFC match in net across all competitions.

The Pickering native made his first international start against the Netherlands, falling 4-0 heading into the 2024 Copa América. St. Clair, alongside MNUFC teammate Tani Oluwaseyi, made the final roster for Canada in the 2024 Copa América tournament, but the Canadian goalkeeper did not see the field in any of the group stages. As Les Rouges advanced, St. Clair earned his first start in the third-place match against Uruguay that ended in a 2-2 draw, going straight into a penalty kick shootout, which Uruguay won 4-3. He earned his first international shutout in a 1-0 victory over Suriname in leg one of Canada's two-fixture competition in the 2024-2025 Concacaf Nations League Quarterfinal. Most recently, St. Clair recorded a clean sheet in Canada's Gold Cup group stage match against Honduras on June 17, 2025, in which Les Rouges won 6-0.

Taylor joined the Loons in 2021 after four seasons with former USL Championship side North Carolina FC. After spending his first season with Minnesota as a depth piece, Taylor shined in 2022, making 26 game appearances, starting 23 games and providing three assists down the right flank.

Taylor started the 2022 season playing with MNUFC2, making two game appearances before earning his starting position with the first team for the majority of the season. Taylor made his MLS debut on July 3, 2021 against San Jose Earthquakes and his first start the following weekend at Colorado Rapids on July 7. He scored his first MLS goal in a 2-1 win at FC Dallas.

In 2023, Taylor remained a consistent presence in the fullback role, making 30 appearances (29 starts) and providing defensive stability while contributing in the attack with overlapping runs. During the 2024 season, he featured in 32 matches (25 starts), recording three assists. However, he missed a month of action due to a hamstring injury before returning on Decision Day, October 19, against St. Louis CITY SC. He came off the bench in the final minutes, marking his first appearance since the injury. The match also marked a milestone for Taylor, as he played in his 100th game across all competitions in the Loons' 4-1 victory.

Minnesota United signed midfielder Wil Trapp as a free agent in January 2021, following a single season with Inter Miami CF in their expansion year. The deep-lying midfielder has provided leadership for the Loons since joining the club, co-captaining the team for the last two seasons.

The Ohio native has made 130 appearances with MNUFC across all competitions, scoring two goals and providing seven assists. He reached a milestone in the 2024 home opener, making his 100th appearance for the club across all competitions. Trapp has continued to be a mainstay in the midfield, having played in 115 regular-season matches with 110 starts for Minnesota United. Notably, the MLS veteran played his 300th MLS regular-season game against Real Salt Lake in the 2024 season, further solidifying his leadership role. Trapp made his 100th start for Minnesota United during Matchday 10 against Charlotte FC.

Before joining Inter Miami in 2020, Trapp spent the majority of his career with Columbus Crew. As a U.S. Men's National Team player, Trapp was named an MLS All-Star in 2016, reached the MLS Cup final in 2015, and was honored as the U.S. Soccer Young Male Athlete of the Year in 2013. Previous Club: Sunderland AFC

Midfielder Nectarios Triantis joined Minnesota United from Sunderland A.F.C. on a four-and-a-half year deal through 2029, with a club option for 2030, after the close of MLS' Secondary Transfer Window.

He made his much-anticipated Minnesota United and MLS debut on September 13, 2025, against San Diego FC, where he assisted Carlos Harvey's goal before scoring the Loons' third with a remarkable strike from near midfield to cap off a 3-1 victory.

The 22-year-old Australian arrived in Minnesota following a loan spell at Scottish Premiership side Hibernian FC, where he made 50 appearances, scored three goals, and added six assists. A former A-League champion with Central Coast Mariners, Triantis is known for his versatility across midfield and defense, technical quality on the ball, and ability to impact matches on both ends of the pitch.

#9 | KELVIN YEBOAH FORWARD

Height: 6'1"     Weight: 171
Birthdate: 5/6/2000
Hometown: Accra, Ghana
Previous Club: Genoa CFC
Acquired: Transferred on 7/27/2024

The 24-year-old Ghanaian-Italian striker was recently added to Minnesota United's squad during the secondary transfer window of 2024. Yeboah signed a three-and-a-half year contract with MNUFC with a club option for 2028 and filled a designated player spot.

Yeboah most recently was on loan to Belgian club Standard Liège from Genoa CFC of Italy's Serie A at the start of February, ending the season with 14 game appearances and six goals across all competitions. Prior to his time with Standard Liège, Yeboah was sent on loan two other times, the first being with FC Augsburg in 2023 before playing for Montpellier HSC from 2023-2024. Yeboah also had a one year stint with SK Sturm Graz in Austria in 2021-2022 before joining Genoa's squad where he made 45 game appearances and scored 20 goals across all competitions.

Since joining Minnesota United, Yeboah has quickly become an attacking force. During his MNUFC and MLS debut in the Starting XI on August 24 against the Seattle Sounders, the Ghanaian-Italian striker scored the opening goal by converting a penalty kick, making him the sixth player in Minnesota United's MLS history to score on his debut league match. In the same match, Yeboah added another goal, becoming the first player in club history to score a brace in his MLS and MNUFC's debut. Notably, Yeboah became the 22nd player in MLS history to score multiple goals in his debut, and the first in over two years, since Nathan Fogaça did so for Portland in May 2022. Yeboah earned his second penalty goal of the season against St. Louis City on September 14, bringing his total to three goals in three games since joining Minnesota United.

Yeboah scored MNUFC's first goal of the Loons' 2025 season in the 69th minute of the 1-0 Home Opener victory versus CF Montréal.

MINNESOTA UNITED FC COACHING STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

ERIC RAMSAY | HEAD COACH

Eric Ramsay, in his second season as Head Coach with Minnesota United, was announced as the second head coach in the club's Major League Soccer history on February 26, 2024. He previously served as a first-team coach under former English Premier League's Manchester United manager Erik ten Hag. As an integral member of the Manchester United staff from 2021-24, he helped lead tactical training sessions, developed young stars and worked with some of the most notable soccer players in the world including Cristiano Ronaldo, Marcus Rashford, Mason Mount, Casemiro, Bruno Fernandes, and Nemanja Matić. During his two-and-a-half years with one of the top clubs in global football, Ramsay and the Red Devils won the EFL Cup and reached the FA Cup final in 2023.

Born in Shrewsbury, England, and growing up in Wales, Ramsay had a short stint as a player before focusing on his coaching career, playing youth soccer for both the Shrewsbury Town and The New Saints academies. Prior to heading to the university, Ramsay appeared in 14 matches for Welshpool Town in the JD Cymru Premier. Ramsay graduated with a first-class honors degree in Sports Science with Management from Loughborough University in 2013, where he also worked as an assistant coach for the university's football team. Ramsay would join Premier League side Swansea City following graduating for three-and-a-half years as coach for the club's U18 and U21 teams. Ramsay returned to Shrewsbury, where he was named Interim First Team Manager of Shrewsbury Town in November 2018 and later a first-team coach from December 2018 to August 2019. He also managed his hometown's club academy in 2017. Ramsay then had experience coaching the U23 squad for Chelsea Football Club, another member of the English Premier League elite. He received his UEFA Pro License in 2019 - making him the youngest British coach ever to receive that designation. Ramsay's background also includes serving as an assistant coach with the Welsh National Team in 2023.

CAMERON KNOWLES | ASSISTANT COACH

Cameron Knowles was announced as a first-team assistant coach under Head Coach Eric Ramsay's staff on March 11, 2024. Knowles recently served as MNUFC's interim head coach in 2024, where he had successfully prepared the team for its upcoming 2024 MLS regular season and coached the team during its first three matches of the campaign. In those three matches, Knowles led the squad to an undefeated 2-0-1 (W-L-D) record, including two road victories against Austin FC and Orlando City SC. Prior to his time as a first-team assistant coach and the interim head coach, Knowles was the head coach of Minnesota United's MLS NEXT Pro team, MNUFC2, from 2022-23 and was the video analyst for the Loons' first team in 2021. Knowles led the MNUFC2 squad to a 19-20-13 (W-L-D) record in the Western Conference.

DENNIS LAWRENCE | ASSISTANT COACH

Dennis Lawrence was announced as a first-team assistant coach under Head Coach Eric Ramsay's staff on March 13, 2024. He joined Minnesota United from Coventry City Football Club of the EFL Championship, England's second division. With Coventry, Lawrence served as a first-team coach from 2021-24, where he helped run training sessions on a daily basis and led the team's tactical and technical preparation ahead of each match. Lawrence served as the head coach of the Trinidad and Tobago Men's National Team from 2017-19. He led the team to compete in multiple competitions, including the FIFA World Cup Qualifiers in 2018, the Gold Cup in 2019 and Concacaf Nations League in 2019. Lawrence's Trinidad & Tobago team notably defeated the United States in the final game of the World Cup Qualifying stage in 2018.

THOMAS FAWDRY | HEAD OF GOALKEEPING

Thomas Fawdry was named Head of Goalkeeping on July 13, 2024 and oversees all goalkeeper operations at MNUFC. He joined Minnesota United with over five years of first team experience leading goalkeeping departments, most recently at Barnsley Football Club of the EFL League One. With Barnsley, Fawdry served as Director of Goalkeeping from 2021-24, where he focused on the well-being and development of goalkeepers from the Academy to the First Team, assisted with scouting, recruitment and talent identification, and oversaw the goalkeeping staff.
