#SEAvSKC: HEAD-TO-HEAD

Sporting Kansas City (6-14-6, 24 pts.) remains on the road this weekend to take on the Seattle Sounders (11-7-8, 41 pts.) at Lumen Field on Sunday night, looking to snap a five-game winless run that began with the reverse fixture against the Sounders on July 12.

Sporting KC holds the edge over Seattle since the start of the 2015 season, winning 11 of 21 meetings on their way to a 11-7-3 record.

Sporting welcomed Seattle to Children's Mercy Park six weeks ago on July 12, 2025, falling to a 3-2 defeat in a tale of two halves. The Sounders dominated the first half and raced into a 3-0 lead at the interval following goals from Jordan Morris, Albert Rusnak and Jesus Ferreira. Far from down and out, Sporting roared back in the second half and scored twice from the penalty spot through Dejan Joveljic and Santi Munoz, but the comeback ultimately fell agonizingly short.

Sporting last visited the Sounders at Lumen Field on Sept. 15, 2024, falling to a 2-0 defeat. Seattle raced into a two-goal lead in the first half following goals from Jackson Ragen and Paul Rothrock before Tim Melia displayed his penalty stopping heroics by saving Albert Rusnak's attempt from the spot just before halftime.

Sporting trails the all-time regular-season series between the two teams 12-14-4, with identical records both at home on the road: 6-7-2 at home and 6-7-2 on the road.

SPORTING KANSAS CITY NEWS AND NOTES

TOUGH RUN CONCLUDES IN SEATTLE

Sporting Kansas City tough summer schedule continued this past weekend, falling to a 3-1 defeat against fourth-in-the-East Orlando City at Inter & Co Stadium on Saturday night following a three-hour weather delay. The task gets no easier this weekend as Sporting takes on fourth-in-the-West Seattle Sounders at Lumen Field on Sunday night.

Sporting is in the midst of a run that sees the team play nine straight games against teams currently above the playoff line. The four-game stretch the team will conclude in Seattle is particularly daunting, facing Vancouver (3rd in West), San Diego (1st in West), Orlando (4th in East) and the Sounders (4th in West) from July 26 through Aug. 24.

For a second consecutive match, Sporting started in a 4-4-2 formation this past weekend and again found plenty of joy in the attacking third. In the team's last two games, Sporting put up 2.69 expected goals (xG) against San Diego and 1.98 xG against Orlando, both well above the team's season average of 1.44 and the league average of 1.65.

Sporting's playoff hopes remain slim as the team sits eight points out of the ninth and final postseason spot. Since taking the helm at the end of March, interim head coach Kerry Zavagnin has picked up 23 points (6-9-5 record).

LOOKING TO RECAPTURE MAGIC IN PNW

Sporting Kansas City heads to the Pacific Northwest this weekend to renew the club's rivalry with the Seattle Sounders at Lumen Field on Sunday night. Sporting has enjoyed plenty of success on the Seattle turf in the past, winning four of their last six matches at Lumen Field dating back to 2019.

Sporting last visited Seattle on Sept. 15, 2024, falling to a 2-0 defeat. Jackson Ragen and Paul Rothrock each tallied in the first half to give the Sounders an unassailable lead, before Tim Melia saved a penalty kick from Albert Rusnak before halftime - the penultimate penalty save of Melia's legendary career.

The two sides have already met once this season at Children's Mercy Park, with Sporting suffering a 3-2 defeat on July 12, 2025. The Sounders came flying out of the blocks and took a 3-0 lead into the halftime interval following goals from Jordan Morris, Rusnak and Jesus Ferreira, but Sporting came roaring back in the second half. Dejan Joveljic and Santi Munoz each converted penalty kicks but Sporting's comeback attempt ultimately fell just short.

Sporting narrowly trails the all-time series against Seattle 12-14-4, with identical 6-7-2 marks both at home and on the road.

JOVELJIC BACK ON THE SCORESHEET

Sporting Kansas City forward Dejan Joveljic got himself back on the scoresheet this past weekend, tallying the team's equalizer in the eventual 3-1 defeat to Orlando City at Inter & Co Stadium on Saturday night.

With the team trailing 1-0 following an early Orlando goal, Joveljic played Mason Toye through on goal who rounded the goalkeeper before placing the ball on target where the Serbian stabbed the ball home on the line, making the score 1-1.

The goal was Joveljic's team-leading 14th goal of the season, tied for the eighth best goalscoring season in club history with eight games remaining. Joveljic also snapped a three-game goalscoring drought, with his last goal coming in the 3-2 loss to Sunday's opponents Seattle on July 12.

Joveljic's 14 goals are second most by a Kansas City newcomer in a single regular season, only trailing club legend Preki's 18 in the team's inaugural 1996 season.

TOYE TALLIES ASSIST ON FIRST START

Sporting Kansas City forward Mason Toye made the most of his first start for the club this past weekend, proving to be a constant menace in the attacking third and recording an assist in the 3-1 loss to Orlando City at Inter & Co Stadium on Saturday night.

Making his 13th appearance this season but just his first start, Toye caused Orlando all sorts of problems in the first half. He narrowly missed the target when through one-on-one in the 20th minute before forcing a smart save from Pedro Gallese in the Orlando goal in the 23rd minute.

Toye's enterprising play led to Sporting's equalizer in the 25th minute as he latched on to Dejan Joveljic's through ball, rounded Gallese and placed a shot on target that Joveljic tapped home on the line. It was Toye's first assist for Sporting and his first since June 21, 2023 when he tallied an assist in a 1-0 CF Montreal win over Nashville SC.

Toye now has a goal and an assist for Sporting, and 21 goals and seven assists in his MLS career having also represented Minnesota, Montreal and Portland.

BASSONG DONS CAPTAIN'S ARMBAND

Sporting Kansas City midfielder Zorhan Bassong earned a new honor this past weekend, wearing the captain's armband for the first time in Sporting Blue during the team's 3-1 loss to Orlando City at Inter & Co Stadium on Saturday night.

With Erik Thommy out injured and Daniel Salloi starting the match from the bench, Bassong was called upon to lead the team out in Orlando. In the team's previous 27 matches in all competitions this season, Thommy and Salloi have split captain's duties, with Thommy captaining the team on 14 occasions and Salloi taking the armband 13 times.

Bassong arrived in Kansas City ahead of the 2024 season and was primarily deployed as a left back for the first half of the season before making the switch to central midfield in August of 2024. Since then, the 26-year-old's passion and energy has proved a revelation as he has solidified a spot on the team, earned a recall to the Canadian National Team, become a fan favorite with the Sporting faithful and now captained the team for the first time.

SKC ACQUIRES GAM IN TRADE WITH MONTREAL

Sporting Kansas City announced on Wednesday that the club has acquired $175,000 in General Allocation Money (GAM) from CF Montreal in exchange for a 2025 international roster spot.

The transaction will see Sporting receive $75,000 in 2025 GAM and $100,000 in 2026 GAM.

Sporting now has seven international spots on its 2025 roster, one of which is open and six are occupied by the following players: Zorhan Bassong, Joaquin Fernandez, Manu Garcia, Dejan Joveljic, Alan Montes and Shapi Suleymanov.

POSTGAME: #ORLvSKC

Head coach Kerry Zavagnin

On the 3-1 loss to Orlando...

"I think we played a wonderful first half. We had a few personnel changes within the group with Mason (Toye) and Dejan (Joveljic) up top with (Santi) Munoz coming underneath. It felt like things were happening for us as we went into halftime. We created some really good opportunities. As we came into the second half, we started losing possession of the ball in important areas. It made it really difficult for us to get out. In our 4-4-2, Orlando was really pushing us back and we were disorganized in our low block. We wanted to get pressure to the outside backs as they came up the field. They brought (Alex) Freeman on, who plays even a bit further up the field, and so we couldn't get adequate pressure out there. We couldn't get pressure out to the ball, and it compounded when we did win possession because we couldn't advance up the field. That cyclical sequence of the first 15 minutes of the second half put us in a position where we had to make some changes. Quite frankly, some of our guys were losing their energy and steam. That was a little bit of a collective, but Mason (Toye) hasn't played a lot in a long time. Some of the decisions in taking Mason off in the 58th minute and (Santi) Munoz in the 68th minute started to unravel the group a bit. So we went back to three central midfielders to see if we could get a little more pressure out wide and drop Bartlett into the backline. We thought that would help things and at the end of the day, it didn't. As good as our first half was, the second half really had us struggling and we suffered a lot. Ultimately that was the result and the reason for the game."

On lessons learned from the match...

"It's a clear example that the game is 90 minutes. Over the course of the season, when we've been the ones to come out slow in the first half only to recover the result in the second half, I think the idea is that we need to start quicker. Although we gave up a goal in the opening two minutes of the game, I think we composed ourselves in the first half. As we came into halftime, I think it's a really good learning lesson that the game is 90 minutes. As much as we've come back in the second half this year to turn a result, this time around we just didn't have it in us. It's a great learning lesson for all of us that the game is 90-plus minutes and when you play against a good team like Orlando, if you're not locked in for that duration, you won't get the result you're looking for."

SPORTING KC AND CHILDREN'S MERCY KANSAS CITY CONTINUE TO IMPACT LOCAL COMMUNITY

A leading independent children's health organization dedicated to holistic care, translational research, educating caregivers and breakthrough innovation to create a world of well-being for all children, Children's Mercy Kansas City began a 10-year partnership with Sporting KC in 2016. Children's Mercy provides the highest level of care for children from birth through the age of 21. U.S. News & World Report has repeatedly ranked Children's Mercy as one of "America's Best Children's Hospitals."

The comprehensive partnership between Sporting KC and Children's Mercy Kansas City – which includes naming rights to Sporting KC's world-class stadium, Children's Mercy Park, as well as the Sporting KC II and Sporting KC Academy complex at Swope Soccer Village – is also at the forefront of Sporting's state-of-the-art training ground at Compass Minerals National Performance Center. In a first-of-its-kind collaboration between a professional sports team, a national sports federation and a sports medicine provider, the facility opened in 2018 and features the Children's Mercy Sports Medicine Center alongside Sporting Kansas City and U.S. Soccer.

Children's Mercy Kansas City is also the official health care and sports medicine provider for the Sporting Kansas City Academy and Compass Minerals National Performance Center as part of a multi-faceted partnership that focuses on the following three components to impact the local community:

1. Strengthening community
  - The partnership directly supports The Victory Project, Sporting's foundation to help children - including those with cancer and disabilities – through all of life's challenges.
  - Sporting KC players and staff engage with, encourage and inspire Children's Mercy patients throughout the year during hospital visits and special events.
  - FLEET, an innovative team of remote experience robots operated via an iPad, regularly attends Sporting KC home matches to provide an all-access interactive experience for patients at Children's Mercy. Manufactured by Double Robotics, the robot allows users to enjoy two-way live audio and video captured from a 150-degree wide-angle lens while navigating to control their own VIP behind-the-scenes journey.
  - Launched in 2018, the RED CARD campaign addresses one of the most significant social issues impacting children nationwide by empowering youth and adults to prevent and intervene in bullying. Through school assemblies and community-wide messaging, the RED CARD initiative aims to reach children, parents, teachers and coaches who have daily opportunities to create supportive environments and stop bullying in its tracks. In 2023 and 2024, Sporting and Children's Mercy teamed up to provide 90 students at 30 local elementary and middle schools with SKC jerseys on National Random Acts of Kindness Day as part of a Kindness In The Schools (K.I.T.S.) initiative.
2. Improving access to pediatric-trained sports medicine
  - The Children's Mercy Sports Medicine Center at Village West is located inside Compass Minerals National Performance Center and offers a full range of sports medicine services, resources and programming for youth athletes. More than two million high-school athletes and 3.5 million children under age 14 are injured each year in the U.S. playing sports. Only a small percentage are treated by pediatric-trained sports medicine specialists who truly understand the youth's growing body, developing brain and unique psychosocial stressors.
3. Protecting youth athletes and educating parents and coaches
  - The partnership provides athletic training, rehabilitation and conditioning programs for the Sporting KC Academy's six teams at Swope Soccer Village, which hosts Sporting KC II home matches as well as year-round athletic leagues, tournaments and other marquee events.
