#SKCvSEA: HEAD-TO-HEAD

Sporting Kansas City (1-7-1, 4 pts.) returns home this weekend to face off against the Seattle Sounders (6-1-1, 19 pts.) at Sporting Park on Saturday afternoon, looking to snap a five-game losing streak in MLS play while playing the club's fifth straight match against a team averaging over 1.75 points per game this year.

After a purple patch against Seattle from 2019-2024 that saw Sporting win seven of 10 matches, the team has lost the last three meetings between the two sides.

Sporting last welcomed the Sounders to Sporting Park on July 12, 2025, falling to a 3-2 defeat in a tale of two halves. The Sounders dominated the first half and raced into a 3-0 lead at the interval following goals from Jordan Morris, Albert Rusnak and Jesus Ferreira. Far from down and out, Sporting roared back in the second half and scored twice from the penalty spot through Dejan Joveljic and Santi Munoz, but the comeback ultimately fell short.

Sporting made the return visit to Lumen Field on Aug. 24, 2025, falling to a 5-2 defeat with Mason Toye scoring in the first half and Daniel Salloi forcing an own goal in the second period as Sporting was unable to contain the Sounders' dominance.

Sporting trails the all-time regular-season series between the two teams 12-15-4, including a 6-7-2 mark at home.

SPORTING KANSAS CITY NEWS AND NOTES

RETURNING HOME

With a forgettable three-game road swing in the rearview mirror, Sporting Kansas City returns home this weekend to host longtime Western Conference foes the Seattle Sounders at Sporting Park on Saturday afternoon with kickoff set for 1:30 p.m. CT.

Riding a five-game losing streak, the going doesn't get any easier for Sporting as Seattle is the fifth straight opponent that the team will face that is averaging north of 1.75 points per game so far this season. The Sounders are enjoying an excellent start to the new season, winning six of their eight MLS matches while their only loss came over two months ago with a 2-1 setback at Real Salt Lake on Feb. 28, 2026.

Historically, Seattle has proved to be something of a slump-buster for Sporting - curtailing lengthy winless streaks in both 2023 and 2024 - and Raphael Wicky will be hoping to recapture some of that magic this weekend.

After six straight matches against teams in the playoff places, Sporting will finally begin to face some teams below the line following Saturday's match - facing Portland (12th in West), LA Galaxy (10th in West), Austin (13th in West) and Red Bull New York (11th in East) before the World Cup break.

HOSTING HIGH-FLYING SOUNDERS

Sporting Kansas City returns home this weekend to host the red-hot Seattle Sounders at Sporting Park on Saturday afternoon. Sporting enters the match reeling from a five-game losing streak in MLS play, while Seattle are flying high after going 6-1-1 in their opening eight MLS matches this season.

Sporting last hosted the Sounders on July 12, 2025, falling to a tight 3-2 defeat. After the visitors raced into a commanding 3-0 lead by halftime, Sporting produced a furious comeback in the second half with goals from the penalty spot courtesy of Dejan Joveljic and Santi Munoz but ultimately fell short as Seattle held on to seal the points.

The return fixture took place at Lumen Field on Aug. 24, 2025 with Seattle running out as 5-2 winners. Mason Toye scored in the first half before Daniel Salloi forced an own goal early in the second period but it wasn't enough as the Sounders saw off Sporting's attempts of another comeback.

All-time, Sporting trails Seattle 12-15-4 in the regular-season series, including a 6-7-2 mark at home.

PULSKAMP SAVES THIRD CONSECUTIVE PENALTY KICK

While last Saturday's loss to the Chicago Fire at Soldier Field was a night to forget for Sporting Kansas City, goalkeeper John Pulskamp recorded his third consecutive penalty save before Chicago opened the scoring on the rebound.

After Ian James was adjudged to have handled in the area, Pulskamp dove to his left to deny Chicago striker Hugo Cuypers early in the second half, only for Philip Zinckernagel to bundle home the rebound and open the scoring.

Pulskamp's three saves have all come against some of the premier strikers in MLS, producing stops on Colorado Rapids forward Rafael Navarro on Aug. 29, 2025, Columbus Crew's Wessam Abou Ali on Feb. 28, 2026 and Cuypers on April 25, 2026.

The 25-year-old's three successive stops from the penalty spot tie the club record, held jointly by Sporting and Wizards icons Tim Melia (three consecutive penalty saves in 2019) and Tony Meola (three consecutive penalty saves in 2002).

SKC STARTS PAIR OF TEENAGERS IN CHICAGO

For the first time this season, Sporting Kansas City started a pair of teenagers during the club's defeat against the Chicago Fire at Soldier Field last Saturday night in 17-year-old defender Ian James and 19-year-old midfielder Kwaku Agyabeng.

James started as one of the team's three center backs in the game for his fifth start of the MLS season, matching his total from 2025. James is closing in on 1,000 minutes in his MLS career as he currently sits on 936 a full six weeks before his 18th birthday.

Agyabeng, selected fourth overall in the 2026 MLS SuperDraft out of Clemson, lined up in an unfamiliar left wing back role for the second straight week, showing versatility after primarily making all of his earlier MLS appearances off the bench as a central midfielder.

With an average age of 23.8, Sporting is second to only Red Bull New York (23.5) in regards to the youngest rosters in MLS. Sporting's four youngest starting lineups for MLS matches in club history have all come in the opening nine matches in 2026.

Sporting's 2026 roster contains just one player over the age of 30 in goalkeeper Stefan Cleveland (31), while Manu Garcia is the oldest outfield player at the age of 28. Almost a third of Sporting's roster (seven of 24) is aged 21 or younger.

SPORTING IN THE COMMUNITY

Sporting Kansas City associates and players recently came together to make a meaningful impact in the local community through two volunteer events, celebrating Earth Week and the MLS Greener Goals Initiative. These initiatives brought together passionate individuals dedicated to fostering a healthier and more sustainable Kansas City.

On April 21, volunteers - including players Cielo Tschantret, Ethan Bartlow, and Jayden Reid - gathered at the Pendleton Heights Community Garden, a vibrant space dedicated to nourishing the neighborhood to assist with Urban Produce Push's mission is to fight hunger, improve nutrition, and reduce food waste by delivering fresh, nutrient-dense produce to food-insecure areas in the Greater Kansas City region.

On April 23, the team shifted their focus to Kanbe's Markets Warehouse, where the mission is all about inclusivity and access to food. Kanbe's Markets works tirelessly to transform food loss into food access, serving the most vulnerable in the Kansas City Metropolitan area while reducing waste that could otherwise harm the environment.

"SOCCER CAPITAL SUMMER" COMING TO SPORTING PARK

Sporting Kansas City's "Soccer Capital Summer" will welcome fans from across the world to the Soccer Capital of America in June and July with a curated series of special fan engagement events and experiences, highlighted by watch parties, concerts and programming at Sporting Park.

Announced two months prior to the start of FIFA World Cup 26 on June 11, the launch of "Soccer Capital Summer" kicks off an exciting 100 days of festivities across the Kansas City region that will culminate with a celebratory watch party at Sporting Park for the World Cup final on July 19.

"Soccer Capital Summer" will serve as a premier destination - free to attend for fans of all ages with advance registration required on SeatGeek -- featuring live music, immersive activations, exclusive giveaways and rotating programming in addition to providing a vibrant taste of Kansas City with local vendors, food/drinks and souvenirs.

"Soccer Capital Summer" will show live viewings for more than 20 World Cup matches spread across 10 different days. The watch parties begin with group stage quadruple-headers on June 17, June 18 and June 22 - with the opportunity to cheer on global superstars such as Cristiano Ronaldo, Harry Kane, Lionel Messi, Kylian Mbappe and Erling Haaland - before ramping up with nine knockout round matches headlined by both semifinals and the highly anticipated final.

WICKY QUOTES: #CHIVSKC

On why the game got out of hand after the opening goal...

"In my opinion I don't think it was structural. I think we were very well in the game. We knew it was going to be difficult, Chicago is a team which has a lot of possession and plays well. We wanted to be very compact, which we were in the first half, and then break out when we can, threaten them in behind. I think the game plan went well. Then we concede the penalty, which I haven't really seen. It felt harsh, but obviously with VAR these days, they check. It's a tough one. Then it's like you say, then we break apart. It's not the first time this season. Then we start chasing, we start opening up, and when we open up and spaces get bigger, we struggle. I think that that was the big problem. After the 1-0, I think it was 51, 52 minutes, you have another 30, 35 - if additional time, more minutes - to come back into a game. So there is no need in that moment to chase. I understand the players that they think if you're compact, you don't get the ball. But you've got to try to stay in the game. And then out of nowhere, suddenly it's 2-0. Because there were still moments where we had attacks and then out of nowhere it's 2-0, and then we then fall apart."

On coaching players to stick to the game plan...

"It's a mix of multiple things, I don't think there is one answer, and it's not the first time, right? It happened in one or two other games as well, where we then started opening up and started chasing. I think it's a mix of experience, of leadership, of players talking in the field and saying, 'no, wait, stop, we got to stick to the plan, we will stick together, not opening up.' So I think it's a little bit of probably all of that."

On working to improve the defense...

"We are working with the defense. I think it's again like I said, when we start not being together, then the gaps get bigger, the distances are too big and that's when we start struggling. In the first half I think the distances were very together, were very short, then the team defended well. We've got to just stick to what we do to defend better in certain areas, we cannot get opened up. Obviously then also we had two goals in transition, we lose the ball and we're open, that's another topic."

His decade-long tenure at the club has seen NYCFC post eight winning seasons while developing numerous players who have succeeded in MLS, European leagues and international competition.

Lee began his professional career in his native England before joining Major League Soccer in 2011, working as Performance Analyst at the New York Red Bulls - during which time the club won the 2013 Supporters' Shield - prior to joining NYCFC ahead of its inaugural campaign in 2015.

against Akron in the second round of the postseason. During his time at IU, the Hoosiers were College Cup finalists in 2022, Big Ten tournament champions in 2023 and finished atop the conference regular season standings in each of his final two years. In addition to his time on campus, Miller also played for USL League Two teams St. Louis Scott Gallagher (2021), Long Island Rough Riders (2023) and Ocean City Nor'easters (2024).

Miller played for Saint Louis FC in the U.S. Soccer Development Academy, where he was named to the USC Youth Boys All-Central Region Team in 2019. He signed amateur academy contracts with Saint Louis FC in 2019 and 2020, training regularly at the USL Championship level.
