Entering his eighth season with FC Dallas in 2026, Zanotta has twice broken the club's incoming transfer record with the acquisitions of Alan Velasco from Club Atlético Independiente in 2022 and Petar Musa from S.L. Benfica in 2024.

Zanotta also helped FC Dallas set outgoing transfer records with the sales of Homegrown products Bryan Reynolds to A.S. Roma in 2021 and Ricardo Pepi to FC Augsburg in 2022. The club again broke its outgoing transfer record with the transfer of Velasco in 2025.

Grêmio also reached the final of the FIFA Club World Cup in 2017.

At Grêmio, Zanotta oversaw the planning and execution of the club's technical operations, including player acquisitions, hiring, contract negotiations and renewals. He also worked to align players and management with the club's executive and technical leadership and served as Grêmio's official representative in meetings with the South American Football Confederation (CONMEBOL).

Zanotta previously served as sporting director of Santos FC from 2012-15, where he was instrumental in the transfer of Brazilian star Neymar from Santos to FC Barcelona in 2013, before transitioning to an executive director position at Sport Recife.

A trained lawyer, Zanotta began his career in soccer working on player training contracts for the Brazilian Football Federation (CBF) and other Brazilian clubs. He later enrolled in the FIFA Master program, receiving an MBA in Management, Law and Humanities of Sport in 2010.

Dallas finished seventh in the Western Conference with an 11-12-11 record and 44 points, clinching its playoff berth on Decision Day with a 2-1 road victory over Vancouver Whitecaps FC.
