Referee

Tigres UANL advanced to the semifinals of this Concacaf Champions Cup on away goals (3-2 on aggregate). Los de la U have reached this stage in seven of their last nine appearances in the competition: 2015-16, 2016-17, 2019, 2020, 2023, 2025 and now 2026.

Sounders averaged 69% possession tonight against Tigres UANL, their highest share of possession in the Concacaf Champions Cup since 2017, surpassing the 64% they recorded against Olimpia in 2020.

Danny Musovski (Sounders) came on in the second half and scored in the 48th minute, his second goal as a substitute in this Concacaf Champions Cup. The only other teammate to score after coming off the bench is Paul Rothrock, also with two.

Danny Musovski's goal for the Sounders came exactly three minutes after coming on as a substitute. It is the second-fastest goal by a substitute in this Concacaf Champions Cup, behind Ademar Chávez's for FC Cincinnati against O&M FC (2:10).

Jordan Morris (Sounders) recorded his third assist in the Concacaf Champions Cup since 2017, though it was his first in the competition since 2022 against NYCFB. All of his assists in the tournament have set his team ahead on the scoreboard.

Cristian Roldán (Sounders) recorded his ninth assist in the Concacaf Champions Cup since 2018, equaling Luis Quiñones as the player with the most assists in the tournament in that span. However, the California-born player achieved it in two fewer matches (21 vs. 23).
