◆ 2026 MLS ALL-STAR VOTING NOW OPEN

The LA Galaxy's Jakob Glesnes, Joseph Paintsil, Gabriel Pec, and Marco Reus each have an opportunity to represent the blue, white, and gold in this season's MLS All-Star game. Voting is now open to the public and will remain open until May 21 at 8:59 p.m. PT.

◆ JAKOB GLESNES

Three-time MLS All-Star defender Jakob Glesnes is making a big impact on the squad in his first season with the Galaxy. The 2025 MLS Best XI defender and 2022 Defender of the Year has been a leader on the back line for LA. Notably, in games available this season, Glesnes ranks fifth in the league among all players in clearances with 17.

◆ JOSEPH PAINTSIL

Paintsil has been on a roll since his return from injury on Matchday 8. The Ghanaian international has added five goal contributions (two goals, three assists) in his last six league outings. Notably, Paintsil ranks fourth in the league in total sprints (102) since his return and has recorded the second highest top speed in the league (36km/h) in that time.

◆ GABRIEL PEC

Pec has had a successful 2026 campaign across all competitions thus far, leading the LA Galaxy in contributions with 14 (10 goals, four assists). The Brazilian forward is picking up some serious steam in league play as he has scored three goals this week alone and now has five contributions in his last six league matches, including a game-winning brace in the club's road victory over Atlanta last weekend. His performance in Atlanta saw him named to the Team of the Matchday for Matchday 12. Notably, Pec ranks second in the league this season in both shots (51) and shots on target (26), trailing only Miami's Lionel Messi.

◆ MARCO REUS

Reus has had an impressive start to the 2026 campaign with five goals and five assists across all competitions. His most recent display of excellence came in the club's come-from-behind victory in Atlanta, with Reus completely changing the game upon entering in the 65th minute. Nine minutes into his stint, the German international threaded a picture-perfect ball to Pec for the equalizer before nearly recording a second assist on the game-winner just five minutes later, but the initial shot was saved before it was ultimately punched in. Two weeks prior, Reus recorded a game-winning brace of his own against Real Salt Lake that included a free kick over the wall and into the top left corner enroute to an MLS Team of the Matchday honor. Notably, Reus is currently sixth in the league in key passes this season with 31.

◆ LA GALAXY EXTEND MLS-LEADING SCORING STREAK

The LA Galaxy extended their scoring streak to 22 consecutive matches when Gabriel Pec picked out the top left corner with a brilliant strike from outside the box on Wednesday night. It is the longest active scoring streak in MLS. The last time the Galaxy were held scoreless in a regular season match was all the way back on August 10, 2025, against Seattle.

NOTABLE QUOTES

LA Galaxy Head Coach Greg Vanney

On not losing the momentum the team has been building:

"We'll see how much momentum we lost because really it will be determined by how we respond to this game in the grand scheme of things if we can get back on track. We certainly lost some momentum tonight. The level at which I felt like we've been competing and playing the last few games wasn't the level that we matched tonight. And so hopefully now we get a little bit of a quick wake-up call and say we've got to shake out of it, and we've got to show up because we've got a tough game here in a couple days, and we want to finish this first part of the season as strong as possible."

On the strategy behind the halftime substitution:

"I wanted to get Joe [Paintsil] out wide and move Marco into the nine [position]. Nasci wasn't ready for enough minutes yet. So, we knew we would get him on [the field] down the stretch. But I wanted to get Joe in a wide position and see if he could get running towards the goal a little bit more, faced up, going one-on-one. I thought he had his best actions through the second half when he was in those wide positions. He had set up a number of good chances we probably could have and should have scored on. And then allow Marco to come off and help the midfield a little bit. Getting Elijah in there made us just a little more durable in the midfield in some of the competitive moments. So, I was just trying to change the control of midfield a little bit but also get Joe in a position where he was attacking from the outside in and facing their back line more often."

LA Galaxy Midfielder Erik Thommy

On returning to Kansas City and facing his old team:

"It's always good to be back. A lot of friends over there, a lot of good people working for the club [and the] organization. Yeah, I mean, obviously, if the result would have been different, then I would have been much more happy than I am now, but when it comes to the people, I'm very glad and happy that I'm back."

On his fitness levels after returning from injury:

"Every training session is really important for me. Every game, every minute. I think I could play 20 minutes against Atlanta [and] today a little bit more. In between, we haven't had a lot of training sessions, so every day it's important for me. I feel much better and hopefully next game will be more [minutes]. When it comes to the minutes, right now I feel pretty good and hope to help the team wherever I can, wherever the coach is going to put me."

LA GALAXY HEAD COACH GREG VANNEY

The LA Galaxy announced in March 2025 that the club signed Head Coach Greg Vanney to a multi-year contract extension. Vanney, 51 began his professional career as a player with the LA Galaxy and returned as Head Coach in January 2021 after a six-year stint as Toronto FC's Manager in which he became the only coach to capture an MLS Treble by winning MLS Cup, the MLS Supporters' Shield and the Canadian Championship during the 2017 season.

Vanney stepped down as Toronto FC manager following the 2020 MLS Season as both the most successful and longest-tenured coach in Toronto FC's history with every major club record, including total wins (112) and games coached (250). In all, Vanney recorded an 87-68-48 MLS Regular Season record and a 10-5-2 MLS postseason record while being named MLS Coach of the Year and Concacaf Coach of the Year in 2017. As Toronto FC's coach, the former Galaxy defender helped lead his side to the MLS Cup Playoffs in five of the previous six seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020), while making appearances in three MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017, 2019) and the Concacaf Champions League Final (2018). He also helped his side capture three-straight Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

As a player, Vanney made 270 total MLS Regular Season appearances, including 193 as a member of the LA Galaxy, tied with Todd Dunivant for the sixth-most appearances of any player in LA Galaxy history and trailing only Cobi Jones (306), Landon Donovan (253), Kevin Hartman (243), Mauricio Cienfuegos (206) and A.J. DeLaGarza (204). With LA, Vanney helped lead the club to a Supporters' Shield (1998), CONCACAF Champions' Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2001) while being named to the MLS Best XI twice (2000, 2001) and earning honors as LA Galaxy Defender of the Year (2001). He also made an additional 32 MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including 26 postseason appearances with the Galaxy.

Vanney began his professional playing career after being drafted by the Galaxy from UCLA with the 17th overall selection in the 1996 MLS College Draft. During his time as a professional, Vanney represented the Galaxy, FC Dallas, Colorado Rapids and D.C. United in Major League Soccer while also playing a stint for Bastia in France. He also earned 11 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, making his debut in 1996 before later featuring in the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup Championship and 2006 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Following his retirement after the 2008 MLS season, Vanney served as the Real Salt Lake Youth Academy Director from 2008-2011 before joining Chivas USA as an assistant coach from 2011-2012. Vanney originally joined Toronto FC as the club's assistant general manager and academy director in 2013 before being named head coach and technical director on August 31, 2014.
