POSTGAME QUOTES

Bruce Arena

On the instant impact of Timo Werner with two assists in as many games:

“Timo is a quality player. We know, as we continue to move forward, that he's going to not only contribute with assists, but he's going to score goals as well. As he gets more fit, he's going to be a more complete player for us. His quality is obvious. He's been a good leader for our team in a short period of time. So, I think there's going to be a lot of positive things ahead.”

“It's going to take a little time for him to get his full fitness. We want to bring him along the right way. The last thing I want to do is overload him and cause an injury. So hopefully we've been smart in the first two games with his minutes, and hopefully we can keep building him so by another month or so he's really match fit.”

On the defensive performance tonight, especially from Daniel and the center back pairing of Reid Roberts and Daniel Munie:

“Our center backs and our goalkeeper played very well tonight. Munie and Reid cut off a bunch of players. Daniel made, I'd say two, maybe three key saves. That's what you need on the road and in games like this. So, a lot of credit to Daniel for having three consecutive clean sheets.”

Ousseni Bouda

On three consecutive wins and clean sheets:

“I think it's a collective effort. It starts from the top, and everyone is working for each other as a team. There's great chemistry on and off the field, and that obviously translates onto the field when everyone knows we're all in this together and understands our roles. Each week we prepare for our opponents and how we're going to defend them, and I think we've improved a lot as a team defensively. It's only the third game of the season, though, so hopefully we can keep getting better.”

On what's changed this year and the team's commitment to playing for one another:

“I think we're playing for each other. We're playing as a team, and that's obviously helping us, especially in games like these. It's helped us keep three clean sheets, so we need to keep doing that. Then, when we get into the final third, we can express ourselves and show our talent. But off the ball, we have to stay compact as a team, keep running for each other, communicate, and do that for the full 90 minutes.”

SJ vs. SEA

Head-to-Head

MLS Regular-Season Record vs. Seattle Sounders FC: 15-16-10 (50 GF, 61 GA) ; Home Record vs. SEA: 8-5-6 (25 GF, 19 GA); Last Home Game vs. SEA: 3/9/2025 (1-1)

Storylines

Today's match marks the first leg of the Heritage Cup, a competition honoring the two teams' history in the North American Soccer League (NASL). The winner is decided by head-to-head points, then goal differential as a tiebreaker. The Sounders are current holders after a 1-1 draw in San Jose and 3-2 Seattle win at Lumen Field in 2025.

San Jose has had a great run of form as of late against Seattle Sounders FC. The Quakes have netted results in seven of their last eight matches against their Western Conference foes, going 4-1-3 in that stretch dating back to April of 2022.

The Quakes are 3-0-0 in MLS play for the first time in club history and are one clean sheet win away from setting an MLS record as no club has achieved that before. Additionally, the Black and Blue have posted three straight clean sheets, just one away from the club record at any point in the season, which was set in August 2015 when they did it in four straight games. In fact, only two teams prior to 2026 had won their first three games via shutout: the 2009 Seattle Sounders and 2010 LA Galaxy.

SJ has spread the wealth: Six different players have two goal contributions each (Niko Tsakiris, Jamar Ricketts Timo Werner 2 assists apiece; Ousseni Bouda, Preston Judd, Daniel Munie 2 goals each).

The matchup between Bruce Arena and Brian Schmetzer features two coaches who have combined to win over 400 MLS matches. Arena is the all-time winningest coach in league history with 276, while Schmetzer sits ninth at 142 victories.

Connections

Quakes Head Scout Ian Russell is a native of West Seattle. SJ goalkeeper Earl Edwards Jr. played for Seattle Sounders U-23 in 2018.

Sounders forward Danny Musovski was drafted by SJ in 2018 and played that season. SEA forward Osaze De Rosario's father is former Quakes standout Dwayne De Rosario.

One Ball Can Change a Life

For over 50 years, the Earthquakes have witnessed firsthand the power of soccer to change lives through a variety of ways, like building individual character and creativity, fostering collective values like teamwork, offering safe spaces to play and dream, and even opening doors to new worlds. To turn this vision into action, the club will donate 15,000 soccer balls to the community this year in support of transformational Quakes Foundation programming, which includes school visits, the club's growing Saturday Night Lights futsal program, youth tournaments, clinics, camps and other events throughout Northern California.

"Our work in local communities shows us every day the lasting impact a soccer ball can have on a young life in helping to both create positive outcomes and helping steer kids away from negative ones," said Earthquakes VP of Community Relations Robert Davis. "That is why every soccer ball matters; one ball can literally make an incredible difference."

Saturday Night Lights

presented by CalHOPE

A new program under the Quakes Foundation, launched in April, was Saturday Night Lights presented by CalHOPE. This was a 10-week pilot offering free, safe futsal nights for youth in underserved San Jose neighborhoods. The program was hosted at two sites, including LeyVa Middle School and Washington United Youth Center. The program combined soccer, mentorship, food, and mental health support to create a trusted space on weekend nights.

The impact was real: 100% of LeyVa participants were promoted to high school (including several at-risk students), with zero disciplinary incidents and increased school attendance. Families reported stronger connections, better behavior at home, and more positive views of law enforcement.

52K Meals

in partnership with PG&E

For the 2026 season, the Quakes Foundation and the PG&E Corporation Foundation continued their partnership to address the growing issue of food insecurity in the Bay Area and its surrounding areas.

Through the 52,000 Meals program, the Quakes Foundation awarded monetary grants to twelve impactful nonprofits in the areas of East San Jose, Gilroy, Watsonville, Salinas, East Palo Alto, and Merced.

Get EQ Fit

presented by El Camino Health

Get Earthquakes Fit, presented by El Camino Health, is a five-week health and fitness program designed for third and fourth-grade students. The program features 10 interactive games that promote physical activity while reinforcing healthy nutrition habits. Designed to be simple and turnkey for educators, the curriculum requires minimal preparation while remaining fun, engaging, and educational for students.

The program concluded with closing ceremonies at each participating school, celebrating student achievements with special appearances from San Jose Earthquakes players.

Quakes Unified

The Quakes Unified Special Olympics soccer team integrates individuals with intellectual disabilities (Special Olympics athletes) and individuals without intellectual disabilities (Unified player partners) to compete together on one team. Quakes Unified conducts regular training sessions and participates in competition against other MLS Unified teams.

On July 19, the Quakes Unified Special Olympics team traveled to Los Angeles for its first major road trip. The inaugural Unified California Clásico, hosted by LAFC, featured Unified teams representing the San Jose Earthquakes, LA Galaxy, LAFC, and Sacramento Republic FC. Quakes Unified concluded the tournament with a second-place finish.

SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

Bruce Arena is the winningest coach in MLS and U.S. Men's National Team history. The 2026 season will mark his 21st season coaching at domestic club level, with stops at the New England Revolution (2019-23), LA Galaxy (2008-16), New York Red Bulls (2006-07) and D.C. United (1996-98).

Arena has raised the MLS Cup an unprecedented five times (1996,1997, 2011, 2012, 2014), the Supporters' Shield four times (1997, 2010, 2011, 2021), the Concacaf Champions Cup (1998), the Copa Interamericana (1998) and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup (1996). He has won the most regular-season games (270) and postseason games (35) in MLS history and been named MLS Sigi Schmid Coach of the Year a record four times (1997, 2009, 2011, 2021).

At the international level, he led the U.S. Men's National Team to heights previously unseen in the modern era. During his tenure in charge, the USMNT reached two FIFA World Cups (1998, 2002) — making the quarterfinals for the first time in 72 years in 2002 — while winning the Concacaf Gold Cup three times (2002, 2005, 2017) and finishing as the team's career leader in victories (81).

Arena, a native of Long Island, New York, also won five NCAA national championships (1988, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994) during his time as head coach at the University of Virginia from 1978-95.

COACHING STAFF

Dave Sarachan comes to San Jose as an accomplished leader in his own right, having won the MLS Coach of the Year award (2003), the Supporters' Shield (2003) and the U.S. Open Cup twice (2003, 2006) as head coach of Chicago Fire FC from 2002-07. Most recently, he was an assistant coach for Maccabi Tel Aviv, winning the Israeli Premier League and qualifying for the UEFA Champions League in his lone season with the Yellows (2023-24). Sarachan will be reuniting with Arena for the sixth time, having previously served as an assistant coach on his staff at club level with the Galaxy (2008-16) and D.C. United (1997-99), as well as for two different eras on the U.S. Men's National Team (1999-2002, 2017) and the University of Virginia (1984-87). Alongside Arena, Sarachan has won four MLS Cups (1998, 2011, 2012, 2014), two Supporters' Shields (2010, 2011), one Concacaf Champions Cup (1998), one Copa Interamericana (1998) and two Concacaf Gold Cups (2002, 2017). During that second spell with the USMNT, Sarachan succeeded Arena as interim head coach (2017-18). A native of Rochester, N.Y., Sarachan possesses further head coaching experience with the Puerto Rico national team (2021-22), North Carolina FC in USL Championship (2018-20) and collegiately at Cornell University (1988-97).

Shalrie Joseph joins Arena for the second time after serving as his assistant coach in New England (2022-23) and as an assistant for the club's Supporters' Shield-winning campaign in 2021 while coaching various age groups in the Revolution Academy (2020-22). A native of Grenada who earned 20 caps and scored one goal with them as a player, Joseph took the helm as head coach of his national team from 2018-19. He eventually led The Spice Boys toward qualification for the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup and promotion to League A in the 2019-20 Concacaf Nations League. As a standout midfielder who played 13 MLS seasons (2003-15)—11 with the Revs—Joseph was selected eight consecutive times for the MLS All-Star Game (2004-11) and received four MLS Best XI nods (2005, 2007-09). In N.E., he was teammates with current Quakes assistants Steve Ralston and Adin Brown, with the full trio overlapping from 2003-04. Joseph, a St. John's University alum, ended up playing in three MLS Cup finals (2005-07) for the Revs, capturing the North American SuperLiga in 2008 as well as the U.S. Open Cup in 2007.

Steve Ralston originally joined the Earthquakes as an assistant coach in 2015 after four years in the same capacity with Houston Dynamo FC. He took over as interim head coach of the Quakes for the final six games of 2018. After three years away, he returned to San Jose as an interim assistant coach in 2022. A native of St. Louis and Florida International University alumnus, Ralston retired from MLS in 2010 as the league's all-time leader in assists (135), games played (378), starts (372), and minutes (33,143). He scored 76 goals over 13 MLS seasons and played in four MLS Cup finals for New England, serving as captain (2007-09) and winning the North American SuperLiga in 2008 and the U.S. Open Cup in 2007. Ralston was named an MLS All-Star seven times and received MLS Best XI recognition three times (1999, 2000, 2002). At international level, he earned 36 caps for the U.S. (1997-2007) and scored four goals, winning the 2007 Concacaf Gold Cup.

Adin Brown returns to the Earthquakes as goalkeeper coach. Brown most recently served as goalkeeper coach for Chicago Fire FC (2020-22). Prior to joining Chicago, Brown was goalkeeper coach for the Portland Timbers (2015-17) and Timbers2 (2018-19), helping the club win its first MLS Cup in 2015. He also served in the same role for the University of Portland (2013-15). Brown, a native of Pleasant Hill, California, and graduate of De La Salle High School, attended the College of William & Mary and was just the third goalkeeper in NCAA history to be named a First-Team All-American twice. The third overall pick in the 2000 MLS SuperDraft, Brown appeared 85 times over seven seasons, making his mark with New England (2002-04) where he posted a 1.42 goals against average over three years and had the Revs on the brink of winning the 2002 MLS Cup. He also played abroad for Aalesund FK (2005-09), helping lead them to the Norwegian top tier in 2007. Internationally, Brown was the U.S. starting keeper throughout qualification for the 2000 Summer Olympics but missed the final competition due to injury.

HEADLINER KIT

Emblazoned on the kit is a chaotic flyer collage design with a mish-mash of fonts, handwritten elements and tags, distorted bitmap illustrations, as well as other elements of the chip-on-your-shoulder attitude that defines both the Bay Area and the Earthquakes. Amid the maelstrom of headlines, imagery and iconography from the club's 51-year history on the front of the jersey, the crest area features lyrics from the Quakes' official anthem, "Never Say Die," which was written by Frederiksen, known for his work with renowned punk bands like Rancid and The Old Firm Casuals. Finally, the "Soccer for the People" jock tag calls out the most important connection: the undying one between the Quakes and their community.

THE DEAD KIT

Celebrating the Grateful Dead's influence on the Bay's psychedelic music scene, this jersey embodies the revolutionary counter-culture spirit that still thrives today. Designed for soccer enthusiasts who appreciate both heritage and innovation, this jersey is more than just a fan item—it's a statement. Crafted with Climacool technology, it helps you feel cool and dry, even during the most intense games. The breathable materials and open construction work to wick away sweat, effectively managing your sweat. The printed graphic brings the Earthquakes' energy to life, while the embroidered adidas logo and club crest add a touch of authenticity. Whether you're cheering from the stands or playing on the field, this jersey offers a harmonious blend of style and performance.
